

RESORT OWNERS MAY SUFFER FOR BOY'S DOWNFALL

Juvenile Judge and District Attorney Would Penalize Them for Permitting Minors to Gamble

SUBPENAS FOLLOW YOUTH'S CONFESSION

Saloon Keeper Also Haled for Selling Liquor to a Girl

OAKLAND, July 31.—Proceedings against cafes, saloons, poolrooms and other places where minors are served with liquor or permitted to gamble have been started by Judge William H. Donahue and District Attorney William H. L. Hynes. Subpenas were served on seven proprietors of resorts today to appear in court tomorrow, when the case of Harry Masters, accused of gambling away $400 stolen from his employer, comes up for trial in the juvenile court.

Assistant District Attorney Phil M. Carey in the juvenile court this afternoon said that action would be taken also against the owners of saloons where minors were served with liquors. They will be haled into court to show cause why they should not be charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Both the juvenile court and district attorney's office have been active for several days in probing the matter, and warrants may be issued as a result. When Helen Sergeant, accused of delinquency, appeared before the juvenile court this afternoon, Carey said that he had studied decisions in similar cases and that proceedings can be taken against the owners of cafes where liquor was sold to the girl and against persons who drank with her. Fred Ohe, saloon keeper, Fortieth street and San Pablo avenue, and E. Arnold, a chauffeur, appeared in court this afternoon to explain their actions with the girl.

Other men who are said by the girl to have made the rounds of cafes with her will be summoned into court and charged with contributing to delinquency. The crusade of the county authorities follows that recently started by Chief of Police Petersen of Oakland, who has asked the city council to frame an ordinance prohibiting the playing of cards in saloons for money under the penalty of revocation of licenses.

EDMUND F. GREEN RETURNS TO CITY; REFUSES TO TALK

Former President of Casualty Company, Accused of Irregularities, Back From North

Edmund F. Green, clubman and former president of the Pacific Coast Casualty company, who has been accused of certain irregularities by the company directors, returned yesterday to San Francisco from the north, where he went two weeks ago.

Mr. Green has been in conference with Counsel James Walter Scott, and it was said yesterday that he was not prepared at this time to make a statement.

Soon after Mr. Green left the city, having informed the company directors he was going to Portland, where he did, it was reported that there was a shortage of approximately $15,000 due to his connection with the concern.

In Portland, Mr. Green denied these accusations and said as certain charges made by Mrs. Green.

Mrs. Green, who separated from her husband 18 months ago, is at her home at Cupertino.

"Mr. Green is acting under my advice," said Mr. Scott last night, "and has nothing to say just at this time."

MRS. SEYD HAVENS RETURNS TO FIRESIDE

Deserted Bride's Family to Talk With Groom's Regarding Couple Rejoining

Mrs. Seyd Havens returned yesterday to her home in Oak, and her family and that of her husband, who deserted her shortly after their hurried marriage, are going to hold a conference on the possibility of a reconciliation.

An Havens, son of the Oakland millionaire, had doubts for hours on his wedding day as to whether he was going to get married at all, some of the friends of the couple have hopes that the husband and wife will be reconciled. Others are not so sanguine.

After leaving his wife in Calgany Havens went to New York, where he is at present.

CONSTABLE FACES RECALL

Conflict Over Piedmont Patrol Leads to Threatened Election

OAKLAND, July 31.—A petition for the recall of Constable Morris H. Lane is to be put into circulation by residents of Piedmont, on the ground that he exceeded his authority by giving Cecil Hitchcock, special officer, head of the Hitchcock protective patrol, power to name deputies and collect money from Piedmont householders for protecting their property. Chief of Police Petersen has asked the city council to pass an ordinance placing the regulation of private patrols in the municipal police department.

Italian-American Carnival Is Arousing Great Interest

OAKLAND, July 31.—Miss Florence Simas, Miss Anna Merko, Miss Anna C. Foster, Miss Anna Tamm, Miss Minnie Figoni and Miss Alice Murray have been named in the contest for queen of the five-day carnival, beginning August 26, which will be given in West Oakland under the auspices of the Italian-American league.

The young ladies are all from the western section and have numerous friends who are making a canvass of the city.

The ballot box in the Italian-American bank, Eighth street and Broadway, already contains more than 1,000 votes. S. T. Rubino, chairman of the committee, said today that additional boxes would be placed.

Among the features of the Mardi Gras, which will be modeled along the line of the carnivals of Rome and Florence, will be a parade, with many picturesque floats and the marchers in festival attire; daily musical programs, in which some of the leading singers of the bay city are to take part, and unique decorations and lighting effects.

DELEGATES VISIT JIM PHELAN'S FINE BUNGALOW

Young Ladies' Institute Delegates Ride on Auto Trucks, 40 to a Load

(Special Dispatch to The Call)

SAN JOSE, July 31.—The tedious task of making over a constitution was completed this morning by the sixteenth annual session of the Young Ladies' Institute, which was held in session here since Sunday, and the delegates hailed with enthusiasm an automobile trip excursion into the foothills to the $200,000 bungalow which Mayor James D. Phelan of San Francisco is building and which he will formally open next October, when the smart set of the peninsula will be invited.

Five immense vehicles were required to carry the delegates, 40 being squeezed in each, in addition to chiefs, light refreshments and an orchestra.

Grand officers will be elected tomorrow afternoon by the convention.

WATCHMAN IS ACCUSED OF RIFLING SAFE

Complaint of Employer Leads Police to Set Trap, Into Which He Falls

OAKLAND, July 31.—Harold Bulky, for years night watchman for the United Electric Vehicle company, 3219 Telegraph avenue, fell into a trap set for him by the police early this morning, and is in jail facing an attempted burglary charge.

Bulky, who has been suspected of small thefts for more than a month by his employer, A. B. Swauger, entered the store last night and was tampering with the safe, of which he had the combination, when he was placed under arrest by Patrolman Peters and Deputy Sheriff Roland Carlek, who were stationed on either side of the safe.

Bulky was arrested several months ago for neglecting to provide for his wife and minor child. The case was settled out of court.

ACTOR TURNS BURGLAR BECAUSE WIFE IS SICK

Proceeds of Crimes, He Insists, Went to Pay Doctors' Bills

OAKLAND, July 31.—George Francis, accused of 19 burglaries, was charged today upon the complaint of William C. Young, 6037 Telegraph avenue. Young's home was robbed July 28 and a revolver, watch and a small amount of money was taken. The gun and watch were found on Francis when he was arrested yesterday.

Francis gave his history today to Captain of Inspector Agnew. He said that up to the time of the fire of 1906 he was part owner of the Lyceum theater in San Francisco. He and his wife used to do turns on the stage. The fire left him destitute and he became a burglar. He was arrested in 1909 and given a prison sentence, being released last September.

Francis said he discovered that his wife was suffering with cancer. He removed her to a sanatorium near Los Angeles and went to work on the Los Angeles aqueduct.

"My term in prison had undermined my health," Francis said, "and the work was too hard for me. As a last resort, I went back to my old stage. I started that time I entered many homes in Oakland, Berkeley, San Francisco, San Jose, Stockton, Sacramento and other cities. I do not drink, smoke or gamble and I have nothing left of the money and valuables I stole. Every cent of it was given for the medical treatment and care of my wife."

OAKLAND BREVITIES

A span of three high tension wires of the Pacific Gas and Electric company's feeders were short-circuited last evening at the Southern Pacific right of way at Seminary avenue. The unknown persons who tore down the wires threw a grappling hook over the span, weighted down with a coffee pot filled with stones. The only damage done was the snapping of the wires for several minutes and the breaking of the wires.

The supreme court of the state will pass on the merits of the controversy between the city of Berkeley and the Pacific Telephone company relative to the forfeiture of the bonds of the Home Phone company when it was merged into the Pacific company. City Attorney E. C. Staats yesterday filed notice of an appeal from the decision of the superior court favoring the corporation.

Jumping into the estuary yesterday, Dr. McCone saved the life of J. S. Stapleton, a fellow workman, who had been struck by a plank and had fallen unconscious into the water. Dr. McCone, who was passing by, saw the man and found him suffering from concussion of the brain and other injuries.

Reopening of barber shops Sunday mornings is to be voted upon by the barbers' union. Under union rules the shops have been closed Sundays for two years or more. Some of the journeymen have been quoted as favoring a change, by which the shops will be opened between 9 o'clock and noon Sundays.

The members of Elveta chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, celebrated the third anniversary of the organization of the chapter last evening in Elveta Masonic temple, East Fourteenth street and Eighth avenue. A literary and musical program was given, followed by dancing and a banquet.

Dr. George C. Pomeroy is convalescing at Providence hospital after a successful operation. The trouble began with his work in the fire of 1906.

President Mrs. E. Moxley of the State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, spoke on "Our Needs" at the second day of the seventh annual session of the club in the African Methodist Episcopal church, Fifteenth and Market streets, yesterday.

Members of the Oakland Rotary club gathered at the weekly luncheon of the organization at the Hotel Oakland yesterday. The club is planning to erect a building to house Rotary clubs at the Panama-Pacific exposition was postponed for consideration. R. A. Williams was chosen a director to succeed C. Schrader. The Oakland club will meet with its sister club at its luncheon at Walnut creek Sunday.

WOODACRE FIRST SUBDIVISION OF THE MAILLARD HOME PLACE

PRE-OPENING DAY EXCURSION
Sunday, August 3, leaving Sausalito Ferry at 9:15 and 10:45 a. m. Tickets at our office only. Open until 10 o'clock Saturday evening.

50 CENTS ROUND TRIP
Come and select the plot you like best. In the forest covered with magnificent redwood or in the sunny, open valley. Many sites have already been reserved by home-seekers.

The homesites in Woodacre are large, ranging from quarter acre villa sites to one acre country estates. You can secure one of these sites for a fraction of what ordinary building lots cost in other San Francisco suburban districts. The reason—Woodacre is young. The history of all desirable suburban communities will be repeated here—values will soar with development.

See San Geronimo Valley—the streams—the forests of redwood pine and oak—the GREAT NATURAL AMPHITHEATER—the works of nature. Note the rustic and ornamental concrete bridges—the elaborate parking system—artificial lakes—concrete swimming tanks—tennis courts and other features being installed to place Woodacre among San Francisco's foremost suburban communities. Transportation is adequate, the fare low.

New daily train service installed this week.

HIGH PRAISES

For MAYERLE'S EYEGLASSES are received daily from every part of the United States. The following is the strongest evidence ever given for their superior merit

Mr. George Mayerle, San Francisco—Dear Sir: I have your glasses and they work remarkably well. I thank you for sending them to me in a beautiful gold frame and sterling silver case. Sincerely yours,

FROM THE HON. JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF CALIFORNIA

Mr. George Mayerle—Dear Sir: The glasses you have just made for me are extremely comfortable and satisfactory. I expected this, however, as I have always been well satisfied during the several years that you have been furnishing me with glasses. Check in payment is herewith inclosed. With best wishes, I am, truly yours,

FROM O. RICH, MANAGER PALACE HOTEL, SAN FRANCISCO

My Dear Mr. Mayerle: The glasses you have made for me in the last eight or nine years have proved very satisfactory.

FROM HON. JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

Dear Sir: I inclose herewith check for glasses furnished by you to my sister. She is very pleased with them. Those you made for me are most satisfactory. I thank you for your skill and effort to please. With kind regards and best wishes, I am, very truly,

FROM HON. GEORGE H. BARRON, JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

My Dear Mr. Mayerle: I want to make a tardy acknowledgment to you, that since I have followed your advice, that of constantly wearing the glasses that you prescribed for me, my sight has become very satisfactory. Besides having received great benefit to my sight, the prevailing nervousness, from which I have been suffering, has also greatly diminished. With greatest appreciation, I remain, yours very truly,

FROM GEORGE H. BARRON, CURATOR, GOLDEN GATE PARK MUSEUM

The glasses which you recently made for me are absolutely satisfactory. Your marvelous skillfulness in diagnosing my case so quickly and with so much apt parent case is to be complimented. Yours very truly,

GEORGE BARRON.

FROM ADMIRAL DEWEY

Dear Sir—Replying to your recent letter, I am happy to say that I still carry in my pocket and use daily with great comfort the glasses which you sent me at Manila. Also the new ones you recently made suit my eyes perfectly. Very truly yours,
