In one distriet alone we hear of 20 democrats who did not go to the polls,

Tom Haynes, Wilson member elect from Williamson county, says in his paper, the Franklin Review and Jonrnal: It is to be hoped that this is the last can vass of this sort we shall ever see in Tennessee. One such is enough. Now let our former amiable and pleasant relations be rosumed, with the vow that, no matter how widely we may differ in the future, we will do it in decency and order.

Nashville Banner: The Nashville Sun, an organ started some weeks back in the interest of the bolting faction, has failed to rise for the past two days, and report says it will sever shine again. It was conducted with so much ability, and withal so courtly, dignified and temperate in tone, that its readers will miss it muchly. The luminary was brief, but glorious, and in the language of Macheth, it "should have died bereafter."

Clarksville Tobacco Leaf: An unfortunate shooting affair occurred last Wednesday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, Mr West Beamont and Mr Tyler Bryan, in which the latter received a pistol wound in his face, directly under the eye. The wound is a dangerous one, though, his physicians think, not necessarily fital. Benumont was arrested on the spot and carried before R D Read, Esq., and waiving examining trial was admitted to bail on a bond of one thousand dollars.

Murfreesboro News: We are not surprised that, with two or three exceptions, the members of the Tennessee Conference are opposed to the repudiation and communistic doctrines advanced by Mr Wilson, late candidate for Governor. These men are not partisans, but they are citizens, interested like all other intelligent citizens in the welfare of society, and jealous of the good name of their state. It is but natural that men, imbued with the spirit of the Divine Master, who taught that it were better even to suffer a wrong, than to commit any deed of doubtful justice, should favor a settlement of our state indebtedness, which will be alike just to debtor and ereditor. We do not believe in taking politics into religion, but we are convinced that if a little more religion could be taken into our pelities, it would be all the better for the country. We say sigsin that we are not surprised that the ministers, we may sately say of all denominations, are opposed to the dangerous heresies which may now be comprehended in the term of Wilsonism. Indeed it Bagwell. would be a matter of painful surprise were they otherwise.

Whose Picture?

DR FITZGERALD:-I send you a picture of an unknown little girl, apparently eight or nine years old, with a sweet face and beautiful expression of countenance, taken from the hand of a dead Confederate soldier, on the battle field of Perryville, Ky., by a Michigan cavalry soldier of the 4th regiment. The picture was open and firmly grasped in the dead man's hand, His last look upon the face of one he dearly loved-perhaps his sweet little daughter-or loved sister-his last dying gaze upon this sweet face. The tears fill my eyes as I look upon this sweet face-perhaps now a woman. O! what sad memories of those dreadful days. I send it to you in hope that and finally nominated an Irishman may belong. WHY WE LOST NEW YORK

Kelly, Kinsella and McLaughlin Accused of Bertaying the Democracy-Bitter Feel: ing Between Tamma-ny and Anti-Tam-

many. New York San of Wednesday.

At the National Democratic headquarters, 138 Fifth avenue, there was much depression throughout the evening. The dejection intensified as the night advanced and the defent of Gen. Hancock seemed assured. The denunciation of John Kelly as the main cause of the unexpected Republican strength in New York city was loud and frequent. It was asserted that he had sold out the party for personal ends, and that his enmity to Mr. Tilden was the main cause of the disaster to the Democracy.

In Brooklyn, where the Democrats ic majority was ten thousand short of a battle he often had one in his mouth | the estimate the Democrats are quarreling over the defeat. They made a majority for Hancock, but lost the county ticket. The faction led by the Brooklyn Eagle says that the boss McLaughlin crowd were treacherous of excellent cigars came into his head- to Hancock, in utter defiance of the quarters as gifts from all parts of the wishes of the people. The Eagle country that he was soon confirmed in says: "His agents at the polls traded off Hancock for city and county candidates. They left the polls unmanned for Hancock, so that it was impossible in many cases to procure electoral conveys to us this crumb of comfort: tickets, save from representatives of the Central Campaign Club, who were faithful to the last. This, to gether with the fact that the canvass for Hancock had been a spiritless, a sham affair, in charge of some of the most servile followers of the Boss, tion or compromise. Vital principles naturally had a very damaging effeet, and the Democratic standardbearer fell behind. But there is rejoicing among the independent Democrats to-day that the Boss' barnacles went down in the wreck."

Boss McLaughlin, on the other hand, lays all the blame upon Mr. Kinsella's party, saying that it belted dishonor. If the National party had for all the Republican county officers. the regular organization and worked contended for revenue reform as the This is probably somewhat nearer the Tennessee Democracy fought for state truth than that McLaughlin knifed OFFICE 3rd floor up stairs in the Collins jan 22-17 credit, we would have had some con- Hancock; but it may be said that there are two sides to the Democratic quarrel in Brooklyn, and Kinsella is not utterly without provocation. The Boss lost all his local candidates, the Republicans carrying the city and county tickets, but losing the National, State and Congressional candidates.

In New York the most bitter feel ing exists, threatening to re-open the old fight between Tammany and anti-Tammany. The latter are especially bitter against John Kelly. They say that he brought about the defeatfirst by bolting last year and throwing the State into the hands of the Republicans, losing all the patronage, which they estimate at least 15,000 votes. Then he prevented Tilden's nomination, which they say would have insured Democratic victory, a notice of it may find out to whom it and a Catholic for Mayor, whose canticket ten thousand votes. Added to Tyeire, I know, will take pleasure in this is the claim that Kelly deliberattending to this. The picture was ately knifed Hancock at the polls to save his city officers. They openly say that Kelly is to blame for the loss of the Presidency.

"The causes of the defeat of the Democracy of the State, and consequently of the country," said a prominent member of the Executive Committee of Irving hall, this evening, in the Manhattan Club, "are numerous. The main cause is to be found by looking back a year, when John Kelly defeated Gov. Robinson and gave the State to the Republicans. By this course he struck a deadly blow at the integrity of the party, inspiring the most ardent with distrust. The Democracy lost, for instance, a who is an invalid, abused and illtreat- number of Inspectors of Canals, who ed to such an extent that she has been control 10,000. Mr. Cooper, the Mayor, added to this by bungling in the matter of Police Commissioners Smith and Nicholls, the loss of the control of the Police Department. When the men of Irving hall returned beaten at his house the next night, from Cincinnati flushed with victory, it was plainly their duty to set about making fair terms with Tammany hall, with a view to securing co-operation in regard to the national and local tickets. But they, supposing that they had Kelly completely at their mercy, held off until, seizing a favorable opportunity, he got-up a ratification meeting that was very significant. Irving hall men then saw the terrible mistake that they had made, in giving time to rebuild his shattered fortunes. But it was too late., Kelly, feeling some of his former scrength, asked for recognition at the Saratoga convention, and secured it. Having recovered his regularity, he dared to withstand the Democracy of the county and the country, in order to secure the lion's share of the local patronage. That was his sole purpose.
