SMALL CHANGE.

The ditch has been dammed.
See three important non-resident notices in this paper.

The sweet odor of the blooming fruit trees is pleasant to the olfactory.

A slight thunder shower Wednesday morning was followed by sunshine.

Alderman Taylor has had his residence, on West Main street, handsomely painted.

Mr. Geo. Cade is agent for an excellent fertilizer, which our farmers will do well to try.

White frosts were visible here last Saturday and Tuesday mornings. We believe no damage resulted.

Our good friend M. L. Martin brought us a fine club of subscribers last Saturday, for which he has our thanks.

There will be sacramental service at the Methodist church to-morrow, to which all the members are urged to come.

A substantial brick pavement is to be laid in front of the Methodist church. John Coulter very liberally donates the work.

Henry Manuel has an excellent new barber in his shop, and, with three chairs running, is prepared to wait on his customers promptly.

An epidemic of new subscribers and renewals has prevailed in this office since our last issue. We have still room for a few more. Come right along.

Laura Wright, colored, for disturbing public worship and being disorderly generally, was fined $15 by Mayor Hale on Thursday. Not having the money, she was locked up.

We hear some mechanics occasionally complaining of work being dull, but we notice it is a hard matter to get carpenters to do a little repairing. They all seem to be kept busy.

The "Charter and Laws of the Town of Milan" have just been issued from this office in pamphlet form. Parties desiring to be posted can get a copy by calling on his honor, Mayor Hale.

The Nashville Journal of Medicine and Surgery, for March, edited by Dr. C. S. Biggs, has reached us. It seems to us to be an excellent publication, and well worthy the support of the profession.

Fraser's degree is being prepared by the Knights of Honor, with the view of giving a public entertainment soon. It is one of the richest treats of the season. Let all be prepared to enjoy themselves.

The streets and sidewalks of Milan are in better condition than for many years—thanks to an extra good board of Mayor and Aldermen. They are thorough business men, and have the interest of the town at heart.

A Jordan, Esq., has bought E. N. Stone's interest in the dry goods stock of Jordan & Stone, and will "go it alone" in future. Esquire Jordan is well and favorably known and will continue to do a big business at the old stand.

Very enjoyable sociables were given at the residences of Mr. D. B. Clark on Friday night of last week and Dr. A. B. Conley on Monday night. The young people were well pleased with both and stayed at each until late hours.

Plaut & Frenz are doing a very considerable business with people in neighboring towns. They have recently shipped several carpets to Humboldt, selling them at wholesale rates to individuals. Good goods and cheap goods are bound to sell.

Prospero Lodge K. P. is preparing to celebrate the anniversary of its organization, May 27, with a picnic.

Jim Bullington, who was confined in the calaboose on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, was released by some unauthorized person last Tuesday. It seems somebody had a key to fit the lock. New locks have since been provided.

Eli Stone and Dave Clark, two of the best and most popular men in town, have bought Mrs. Fawcett's stock of groceries, and are now running the business. They make a strong team, and we predict for them a big business. See their local elsewhere in this paper.

Mrs. Guion last Tuesday sent us a branch from a peach tree which was full of white blooms. The peach is a free-stone variety, but we do not know the name. Who ever saw white peach blooms before? She also sent us some branches of the Crawford which were just as full as they could well be. If nothing happens, she will have a fine crop. The frost has not yet hurt them.

The Temperance Cause.

On last Wednesday night a number of the friends of the cause met at Masonic Hall and organized a prohibition club by electing Geo. Cade chairman and J. W. Coulter secretary.

The next meeting will be held at the same place on the evening of the 29th inst., when the public are invited. Delegates to the state convention will then be elected.

On next Wednesday night, at the Methodist church, Milan Commandery No. 70 U. O. G. C. will entertain the public with a lecture and music. The following programme will be carried out:

Music by Miss Lizzie Townes, assisted by the different choirs. Song—"Beware of the wine." Prayer by Rev. J. L. Lloyd. Song—"Waif of the Drunkard's Sad Home." Lecture by Dr. A. A. Davidson on the evils arising from the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. Song—"Don't go out to-night, dear father." Address by Rev. M. M. Taylor. Song—"Free Water." Address by Rev. J. L. Lloyd. Music. Exercises will begin at 7 1/2 p. m.

GEORGE CADE,
JAMES NESBITT,

The cemetery committee was instructed to assist the Mayor in arranging and fixing up the deeds.

RAILWAY RACKET.

Clarksville is proud of her new passenger depot, now ready for use.

Double daily passenger trains again running on the C., St. L. & N. O. road.

The break in the C., St. L. & N. O. road has been repaired, and trains are now running regularly.

The accommodation train pulled out a drawhead when it started from here Thursday evening, causing a short detention.

A guard passed here Thursday with ten negro convicts from Somerville, taking them to the penitentiary. We judge there will be less stealing in and around that town now.

Some forty or fifty French and German immigrants laid over here Saturday and Sunday last on account of the washouts in the roads south. They were bound for Louisiana and Texas.

Hatchie river got up a boom last week and damaged the L. & N. road pretty badly, washing out much of the track. Trains were abandoned for a day or two, but are now running on time.

Fayetteville Express: The narrow gauge railroad will be completed, possibly, in two weeks, but through trains will not be put on until May. Both engines need repairing before being put to regular duty.

The Alamo Sentinel says: "The completion of the Tennessee Central is about the only chance for Alamo to ever have a railroad." Then join us, neighbor, in working up a boom in its favor. Get up statistics of what would probably be shipped over it in your county and send them to President Wise A. Cooper at Trenton.

Mr. C. P. Huntingdon, the railroad tycoon, accompanied by T. W. Pierce of Boston, President of the "Sunset" road in Texas, passed here in a special car last Saturday. One or two of our Tennessee Central directors took occasion to call his attention to that enterprise while he was waiting here. He intimated that he would look into the matter if brought properly before him. Let our people go to work and make a good showing.

Food for Thought.

A locomotive engineer was watching the unloading of a lot of plows here the other day, when he sententious remarked: "This is the d—dest country to buy plows, and afterwards the d—dest country to buy corn that I ever saw." It does look a little strange, when it is well known that we have the finest timber in the world and as productive soil as any in the country. We need more and better farmers, as well as more mechanics. A farmer who will not raise corn enough to feed his family and his stock ought to be ashamed of himself.

Broke Out in a New Place.

Eli Stone and Dave Clark have bought Mrs. Fawcett's stock of groceries, and will run the business under the firm name of Stone & Clark. Mr Stone is now in Memphis buying a new stock of Staple and Fancy Groceries. They will keep a full and well selected assortment of everything needed in the grocery line, besides Hardware, Plows and other Agricultural Implements. They will also handle all kinds of Country Produce. Their friends may rely on getting the best goods in their line at reasonable prices. They will run regularly a free delivery wagon for the accommodation of their city customers. Give them a call and you certainly will be well pleased.

PERSONAL.

Gen. M. T. Williamson, U. S. Marshal for West Tennessee, was in town yesterday.

Postmaster T. D. Pearce has sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to attend to business.

Mr. M. L. Baird, of the City Meat Market, has gone to Tennessee river to buy fat beef cattle. Look out for something nice.

M. H. Johnson, Esq., Deputy Sheriff Pruitt and ex-Deputy Sheriff Ing, all of Humboldt, paid our town a visit yesterday.

Rev. J. J. Scott, a blind Baptist preacher from Louisville, preached at the Baptist church last Wednesday night. His audience were pleased and instructed.

Miss Nannie Jackson, after a severe attack of typhoid fever, we are glad to say is able to be out again. Her pleasant face has been sadly missed during her illness.

Rev. Mr. Rowlett, of Rutherford county, a Primitive Baptist minister, preached at the Methodist church last Sunday night. He has a number of relatives here, who he is visiting.

Hudson, the jolly butcher, is now at William's meat shop. The house has been overhauled, repainted and handsomely fitted up, and the best meats in the market can be found there every day.

Rev. W. J. Naylor left here last Saturday for Colorado, where he intends to "grow up with the country." Mr. Naylor is a young minister of talent, and promises to make a mark in the church. We wish him well.

Several distinguished gentlemen honored this office with a call last Monday, prominent among whom were Gen. Alex. W. Campbell and Presiding Elder Hayes, of Jackson, and Grand Master Irion, of Paris, who is at the head of the Masonic Fraternity in this state.

In another column will be found the announcement of H. C. Pearce, Esq., as a candidate for County Court Clerk of this county. Mr. Pearce has had much experience in that office and knows how it should be run. He also has many friends over the county who will work hard for his election. We believe he is honest and competent to fill the office acceptably.

A Parting Word.

A great many of our subscribers have renewed during the past week and many new names have been added to our list. A few—whom we have been unable to see—will get the paper this week, with a cross mark opposite their names. If we do not hear from them by next week, we shall take it for granted that they wish their papers discontinued, and will cut them off. Thus far we have had only one to stop, and we think he will renew shortly.

Don't Forget

When you go to trade that money saved is money made, and that we will sell you goods cheaper than any firm in Milan. Our stock is complete.
