RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Prayer meeting at the Methodist church will be held on Wednesday night hereafter. This is a step in the right direction. Let them all be held the same night and the public will be pleased.

A watch meeting will be held at the Methodist church to-morrow night, beginning at nine o'clock. Presiding elder Whitten and the pastor will conduct the exercises. The sacrament of the holy communion will also be administered.

Rev. F. P. Flawiken delivered his farewell sermon to a large audience last Sunday night. His discourse was able, timely and appropriate. The Methodist and Baptist pastors joined him with their congregations.
The service was held in the Baptist church.

The Methodist Sunday-school got up a chimney for Christmas night—at least Santa Claus did, and when he came down through the fire-place with his pack on his back, the little folks were thrilled with delight and wonder.
He gave them much amusement and won the love of all. The church was handsomely decorated with blue and gold mottoes, pictures, etc. Some fine presents were given, and every one appeared pleased.

Our friends of the Baptist church gave a very creditable entertainment on Christmas night. The church was appropriately decorated and the ladies deserve much praise for its picturesque appearance. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and all present, especially the little ones, were very much delighted. The tower, which by the way was a fine production of woman's skill and ingenuity, was completely loaded down with handsome and costly presents for both young and old.

SMALL CHANGE.

Don't forget the Collias excursion.
The Exchange is the only paper published in Gibson county this week.
Last Sunday and Monday were clear, bright, beautiful days—all that could be desired.

The Post Master General has recently appointed Col. B. E. Holmes Post Master at Yorkville.

Sociables were enjoyed this week at the residences of many citizens—too numerous to mention in detail.

The boys deserve especial praise for their general good behavior this week. We are proud of them.

We are indebted to one of Humboldt's charmingest daughters for a gossipy letter in this issue of our paper.

Last Sunday was delightfully quiet, considering that it was Christmas Eve. We congratulate ourselves and all concerned.

We hope our citizens will rally at Jordan's Hall next Tuesday night and fill the house. Let the school tax question be fully and fairly discussed.

John Moxley, who was convicted of larceny last March by the Humboldt Law Court and sentenced for two years, has been pardoned by the Governor.

Col. Rufe Christian has the thanks of the editor for a splendid oyster dinner list Tuesday at McAlister's.
May he live to enjoy a hundred more, is our wish.

All the members of Eagle Lodge Knights and Ladies of Honor are requested to be present next Monday night. The new officers will be installed and other important business transacted.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church played to a good audience at Trezevant last Tuesday night, and made some money, we learn. "The Oddity" seems to be a taking play.

Last Saturday was the busiest day with merchants that Milan has seen in a long time. The biggest crowd of the year was in town, and it was with an effort that one could pass through Main street or get waited on in a store.

The holidays have been enjoyed this season in a more rational manner than usual here. While nearly every one seemed to be happy, yet we had very little drunkenness or noise on the streets. Everybody seemed to be on their good behavior.

The St. Louis Magazine is now in its 14th year; is replete with illustrations, stories, poems, timely reading, an illustrated fashion paper, and other reading of general interest.
Sample copies sent on receipt of two 3-cent stamps. Address T. J. Gilmore, 213 N. Eighth st., St. Louis.

Jack Crim, the accomplished chef de cuisine at McAlister's restaurant, enabled us to enjoy a splendid Christmas breakfast last Monday by sending us a big can of fresh oysters. Jack knows just exactly how, when and where to touch us in a tender spot.
Mr. McAlister also sent us over a splendid egg-nog very early that morning. The two together were irresistible.

The district stewards of the Paris district of the Memphis Conference met in McKenzie last Friday and assessed the amounts to be paid by each church for connectional interests.
Milan church was assessed as follows: Foreign missions, $61.25; domestic missions, $9; bishop's fund, $8.75; conference fund, $15; church extension, $15.30; presiding elder, $50.
Total, $159.30.

The Precision Club repeated the play last night, which they gave a week ago, to a crowded house. All present were well pleased. The company surpassed their former effort.

The public school directors of this district met last Wednesday night and decided to open school in the college building on Monday, the 8th of January prox. They elected the present faculty of the College: Prof.
Langston, principal, Mrs. Hutcherson and Mrs. Fawcett, and added Mrs.
Ware and Miss "Mollie" House. This is a splendid corps of teachers, and will no doubt give general satisfaction. Messrs. Hale and Langston were instructed to purchase additional desks for the school rooms.

Prospero Lodge, No. 24, K. P., elected the following new officers last Thursday night: J. P. Rhodes, Chancellor Commander; M. W. Wheeler, Vice Chancellor; A. W. Loving, Prelate; J. S. Jones, Master of Exchequer; W. H. Coley, Master of Finance; W.
Y. Williamson, Keeper of Records and Seal; A. W. Loving, W. J. Hine and H. P. Miller, Trustees; W. A.
Wade, Representative to the Grand Lodge, and A. W. Loving, Alternate.
The Lodge will have a public installation in the castle hall next Thursday night, when the families and a few invited guests of the members will partake of an oyster supper.

RAILROAD RACKET.

The prospect is fine for a select and large party to go on the great New Orleans excursion on the 9th prox.
Don't miss this opportunity.

A crazy man jumped through a car window on train No. 1 at Trezevant last Tuesday night and made his escape. We did not learn his name.

Ed. Partridge, former roadmaster on the L. & N., but now with the C. & O., was in town last Wednesday, looking as natural as of old. He has many friends hereabouts.

Mr. W. N. Harris takes Capt.
Ellington's train on the C. St. L. & N. O. road. He has been on the road a long time, and has many friends. He is a good man for the place.

It is rumored that the C. St. L. & N. O. folks are about to recapture Mr.
Garner from Memphis and give him charge of the Jackson office. He is too useful for them to lose him. We have reason to believe the rumor true.

Capt. A. H. Ellington, who has been a passenger conductor on this division of the C. St. L. & N. O. road ever since it was built—nine years—has been promoted to the position of train-master between Jackson and Cairo. His many thousand friends will join us in congratulating him on his well-deserved promotion.

All our community will rejoice to learn of the promotion of Mr. Horace W. Clark to the superintendency of the southern division of the C. St.
L. & N. O. road; but all will regret that he is taken from us. That part of it we are decidedly opposed to.
Mr. John Myers, late agent at Jackson, goes with him to the southern division as train-master. A good appointment.

Mule Thief Captured.

On Thursday night of last week Ol. Thomas, colored, stole a mule from Wesley Dossett, about eight miles west of here. He was captured at Martin on Friday, with the mule, was brought here Saturday by deputy sheriff Williams and sent to jail at Trenton.

Go to A. Jordan's and buy your goods at cost.

PERSONAL.

There are many visitors in town.
County Superintendent Deason was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. Scott and children, of Humboldt are visiting friends here.
Misses Sallie and Nora Moore, of McKenzie, visited relatives here this week.

Our new city marshal looks like a brigadier general in his handsome new uniform.

Messrs. R. S. Fletcher and R.
W. Brooks, of Jackson, called on us last Thursday.

Mrs. W. M. and Miss Carrie McCall, of Humboldt, are visiting relatives and friends here.

Misses Minnie Fuqua and Mary Hillsman, of Trezevant, are visiting Mrs. Jennie Hutcherson.

Misses Eula and Callie McGee, two charming young ladies from Trenton, are visiting Mr. House's family.

The bright and popular Miss Florence Alexander, of Bolivar, is making the hearts of our beaux glad, while visiting here.

Our friend Wils. Harrison, late of Middle Tennessee, has moved into the Dr. Scott residence, near the freight depot. Mr. Ramser and wife will board with him. We welcome them.

Mrs. Velines and Miss Fields, art and music teachers in Bethel College, Russellville, Ky., cheered our sanctum by their bright presence last Saturday. They were en route to Jackson to spend the holidays.

Our young friends, George Cade, Fred Collins and Willie Hansbro, students at Knoxville, are spending the holidays at home, and seem to be enjoying themselves. Ernest Dickson is also here from the Humboldt school, and Tommy Meals, from Mc-Kenzie school.

Jackson Dispatch: We congratulate the Rev. J. E. Eoff, of Milan, upon his union with Miss Belle Savage, one of Bolivar's sweetest ladies, in the latter city on the 12th inst. Mr Eoff is well known in Jackson, and has the best wishes of all his friends here for his future prosperity and happiness.

Nashville American: Some days ago P. Nelson, residing in Trenton Tenn., visited Nashville and while in the city became possessed of the hallucination that a mob was after him with sticks, stones and pistols. He was jailed on the charge of lunacy and yesterday was transferred to the county asylum, it having been ascertained by examination that he was a fit subject for that institution.

DIED.

Last Monday was indeed a sad Christmas to a part of our community. While most of our people were rejoicing over the return of this happy anniversary, the death angel was hovering over the household of Mr. Hardy Deshong, and his young wife was taken from him—to the happy home above, let us hope.
After a severe but short illness, she died on that day, leaving a young infant, a grief-stricken husband, father, mother and brothers and sisters. It was indeed a sad Christmas to them, and the Exchange tenders its sincere sympathy. She was the eldest daughter of Dr. M. B. Harris.

L. Q. Hunt, Mifflin, Tenn., says:
"Brown's Iron Bitters cured my six-year-old boy of fever and ague."

DR. MOFFETT is daily receiving the thanks of parents whose children have been saved by TEETHINA (Teething Powders).

men met last Tuesday night for the ent year and swearing in the new aldermen and marshal, which was done,
