LOCAL AFFAIRS.

SEWERS AND WATER MAINS.—Yesterday afternoon proposals for the construction of a sewer on I street north of Fourteenth street and on Concession street, were opened at the Mayor's Office. The bids stated the prices for constructing the main and lateral sewers, man-holes and street traps, and were as follows: Jones & Collins, $7.35 per foot for main, $1.65 for lateral, $1.95 for man-holes, and $1.35 for traps; John Chapman, $7.40, $2.20, $0.95, and $1.35; J. W. & A. D. Hutton, $7.30, $2.25, $0.95, and $1.30; Wise & Callahan, $10.24, $2.45, $0.75, and $1.50; W. McCallum, $8.54, $2.45, $0.95, and $1.50; Thomas D. Lewis, $8.55, $2.45, $0.95, and $1.50; James Chapman, $8.55, $2.45, $0.95, and $1.50. Mr. Lewis being the lowest bidder, the contract was awarded to him.

At the same time, the proposals for laying water mains during the current year were opened, each bidder proposing to lay six-inch pipe 15 feet length, six-inch pipe 9 feet length, four-inch pipe 13 feet length, four-inch pipe 9 feet length. Mr. A. R. Shepherd was the lowest bidder, the contract was awarded to him, his bid being $11, 22, 18, and 19 cents per foot in the first and second districts, and 22, 23, 19, and 20 cents per foot in the third district.

CHURCH EXTENSION.—On Wednesday evening the ministers and elders of the Old School Presbyterian Church, comprising the Presbytery of the Potomac, met at the New York Avenue Church to consider the subject of church extension. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Gurley, Dr. Ober, of the Capitol Hill Church, and Rev. Mr. Campbell, of the Seventh Street Church. It was stated that the Presbytery now needed for church extension about $50,000—$25,000 for the Lewinville Church, $10,000 for Prince William, $10,000 for the Island, and the balance for Capitol Hill, of which $20,000 ought to be raised in the Presbytery.

Dr. Ober offered a series of resolutions endorsing the movement, and pledging the aid of the several churches and the Presbytery.

The subject was referred to the ministers and elders, and the officers of the churches referred to, to be reported at the next meeting. The subject was referred to the ministers and elders, and the officers of the churches referred to, to be reported at the next meeting.

NEW CHURCH.—The Metropolitan church edifice which was commenced some years since at the corner of C and Four-and-a-half streets, will probably be completed this summer. After the foundation had been finished the work was stopped for want of funds. The last conference at Baltimore appointed the Rev. Dr. De Haas, to this charge, who is now filling the Wesley Chapel appointment, and under his immediate supervision an additional lot has been purchased, and plans are being made for a splendid edifice, 150 feet deep on Four-and-a-half street, and about 75 feet front on C street.

PUBLICITY FOR SALES.—Yesterday afternoon Officer Shafer, arrested Eliza McGrath and Mary Smith, and charging the latter with assault and battery. From the evidence before Justice Walker, it appeared that Mary Smith pushed the daughter of Eliza McGrath in a pond of water, whereupon the mother sought Mary, for the purpose of giving her a thrashing. On finding Mary a fight ensued, but Officer Shafer coming up marched them both to the station-house. Justice Walker held them to bail for court.

DEATH OF A POLICE OFFICER.—Roundhead Geo. R. Lipscomb, of the Third precinct, died at his residence on Dumbarton street, Georgetown, yesterday morning about five o'clock, after a lingering illness. Mr. Lipscomb has always been an excellent officer, and was much esteemed. Superintendent Richards this morning issued an order in respect to the memory of the deceased, and detailing 30 men as an escort for the funeral, which takes place this evening.

UNIFORMS FOR THE POLICE.—The contract for furnishing the summer uniform for the Metropolitan Police Officers, consisting of flannel coat and pants, has been awarded to Messrs. Wall & Stephens, of this city, at $26 per suit.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.—In the Criminal Court yesterday morning, on motion of John J. Liff, Cordell Store was admitted an attorney and counselor of the Supreme Court of this district.

W. C. PHILIPS, of Devlin & Co., New York will be at Willard's Hotel from 11th to 19th inst. with a large assortment of samples of new and choice styles of reasonable goods for gentlemen's wear, from which he will be happy to take orders for garments to be made at our house in New York.

EMBROIDERY STAMPING.—Our lady readers are respectfully referred to the advertisement in another column, relating to embroidery stamping. The company have an entirely new stock of patterns, and practice a method of stamping never before practiced in this city. They prefer to let their works speak for them, and would be pleased to have the ladies call and see for themselves.

JEWELRY AND SILVER-PLATED WARE.—Gold-plated Jet and Bone Sets, Jet Bracelets, Corals, Chains, California Stone Sets, Rings, Pins, Silver Plated Cast Stands, Cell Bells, Cups, Goblets, Table Spoons, Forks and Tea Spoons—1,000 styles to choose from for only one dollar, at Prigg's Dollar Jewelry Store, No. 435 Pa. ave., third door from Four-and-a-half street. ap1-16

A NEW HORN CARRIAGE.—Messrs. W. M. Ives & Son, in Baltimore, have lately completed an elegant horn carriage for the Fire Department of this city. It is fitted with all the modern improvements, and very substantial. It will arrive in this city about the first of next week.

IT WILL BE SEEN BY REFERENCE TO OUR ADVERTISING COLUMN that R. Spence & Co., who have done a successful business for the last four years as Solicitors of Patents and Claims, still occupy their old office, No. 478 Seventh street, in this city.

The Very Latest from the Front—Millions of Fenians in Thirty Unarmed Fenians Concentrated in Belfast—Thirty Fenians Moving on New Brunswick via Canada, Mo.

Belfast, April 13.—A large number of Fenians have just arrived in the steamer from New York.

Killian returned last night with thirty or forty men. They are perfectly quiet, and have no arms. No disturbance has yet occurred.

Belfast, April 12.—Reports state that Castle is designated as a Fenian rendezvous, and that 300 men are to concentrate there. Castle is peculiarly accessible to the British provinces. During the revolution and war of 1812 it was held by British forces from Nova Scotia. Last year's battery was attacked by rebel raiders, and its selection by the Irish patriots shows their appreciation of its importance as a military position.

Calvin, Maine, April 13.—About thirty Fenians arrived here yesterday from Belfast. They have been quiet and orderly. No disturbance has occurred. The excitement here and at St. Stephens is abating. The volunteers across the border are industriously drilling, and are wide awake against surprise. The Fenians tried to hire St. Croix Hall for a meeting to-night, but it was refused them.

The Civil Rights Bill in an Indiana Court—A Colored Man Sues to Enforce a Contract.

Lafayette, Ind., April 11.—A colored man named Barnes brought suit against a prominent citizen here for breach of contract. Barnes is a colored man, and the defendant is a white man. The contract was made for the sale of land.
