WASHINGTON FACTS AND IMPRESSIONS.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS yesterday were $577,174.46.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY has confirmed the appointment of John T. Walton as examiner in the New York custom-house.

THE UNITED STATES TREASURY yesterday remitted to New York a check for $1,693,600.57 in coin, to be sold for the credit of the sinking fund.

SECRETARY FISH positively declines to give the press a copy of the Dickel letter, and expects the Senate Committee to return the copy which he gave them as soon as they have digested its contents.

THE MATINEE TO-DAY.—This afternoon the Zanfretta and Carom troupes will give a pantomime matinee, and those who have not yet seen these really excellent artistes should certainly attend.

OWING TO SOME DELAY on the part of the New York Bank Note Printing Companies, the balance of the new legal tender notes will not be ready for circulation for several weeks. The dies, it is thought, will be ready for issuance the latter part of next week.

LA RUE'S MINSTRELS.—This troupe give their farewell performances to-day—a matinee at two o'clock, and the regular evening entertainment. Those who have not yet seen Ricardo, the prima donna, and the sensation of "Shoo Fly," and who desire so to do, should bear this in mind.

A BILL is to be introduced into Congress at the request of prominent army officers, authorizing the enlistment of boys over twelve years of age as musicians. Under existing laws no one can be enlisted who is under sixteen years of age, when a lad is too old to begin the practice required.

THE SECRETARY OF WAR has authorized officers in Texas, Florida, and Georgia, to loan pistols and rifles to revenue officers, and to sell them powder and shot at cost, whenever they may require the same while hunting up the illicit distilleries and the violators of the Internal Revenue laws. Troops also are at the command of the revenue collectors whenever desired.

THE GERMAN VETERAN UNION of this city has elected Gen. F. E. Spinner, United States Treasurer, an honorary member, and has also conferred upon him the "Decoration of the Cross of the Union." The letter and insignia were yesterday received by the General, and he has suitably acknowledged the honor conferred.

THE COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE has prescribed for the use of distillers, wholesale liquor dealers and rectifiers a new form of books, which will take the same number as the old form 53, and can be obtained from collectors and assessors of the several districts. Its use will be enforced on and after the 1st of February, 1870.

LECTURE ON RITUALISM.—Dr. G. W. Rogers, formerly an Episcopal clergyman, will deliver a lecture on ritualism at Carroll Hall to-morrow evening, under the auspices of the Young Men's Catholic Association. As the subject is one which excites considerable interest among the religious community, and as the lecturer is said to be both able and entertaining, we have no doubt that the hall will be crowded.

THE INDIAN OUTRAGES IN MONTANA.—The Indian Bureau is in receipt of advices from Montana, which state that the representations made of outrages by the Indians in Montana are grossly exaggerated and highly colored by parties who have other objects in view than the public good. The Indians have to bear the blame of all the crimes committed in the Territory, although it is known to the Department that some of these murders are committed by whites, for the purpose of robbing their victims.

HEAVY FINANCIAL TRANSACTION.—Postmaster General Creswell yesterday drew a warrant for the enormous amount of two cents. The warrant was what is technically called a covering in warrant, and was drawn to balance a difference in accounts which has existed between the Treasury and Post Office Departments since 1867. Before the transaction is completed the signatures of the Sixth Auditor and the Secretary of the Treasury are required upon the warrant.

THE NUMBER OF SPANISH TROOPS IN CUBA.—Information was received at the Navy Department from Rear Admiral C. H. Poor, commanding the North Atlantic fleet, to the effect that the Spanish frigate Navas de Tolosa, one of the Almansa class, arrived at Havana on the 31st of December with troops, making the whole number of troops in Havana at that date, 15,384. No foreign men-of-war were in port at Havana, and there appeared to be nothing new in regard to the political situation.

CIVIL RIGHTS FOR THE CHINESE.—Senator Stewart, of Nevada, has prepared a bill to be introduced in the Senate providing for giving to Chinamen the civil rights of citizens of the United States. From the best information obtainable, it would appear that the Chinamen do not ask for anything but what is already accorded them, except to be put upon an equality with white citizens in the courts, and that they may be protected in their persons and property. They never come here to be citizens, but always look forward to, and arrange for, a return to China during life, or failing in that, that their bones be taken to their homes.

MISS BATEMAN.—At last we are to be favored with the presence of an actress who is acknowledged by all critics to be superior to any lady now upon the stage—we mean Miss Kate Bateman, who will appear at the National theatre on Monday night. Her success in Europe was unprecedented, creating an interest never before excited by any American artiste, and since her return to this country she has been greeted by crowded houses, and has excited the utmost enthusiasm wherever she has appeared. As her engagement will continue but for six nights, all who intend witnessing her great impersonations should secure their seats early. The box office is now open, where seats may be secured for any night of her engagement.

THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN for this week is now ready, and can be had at this office, in wrappers ready for mailing. It contains the full and very interesting report of the reception of the Richmond press and the banquet at the Arlington; account of the various New Year's receptions; the charge of Judge Fisher in the case of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; the Byron scandal, and the story as repeated by Mrs. Stowe; the telegraphers' strike; articles on the question of rank in the navy; a large number of departmental news items; the sermon delivered by Rev. Dr. Lilienthal, in Cincinnati, on the Christian Jew; a variety of well-selected reading matter; editorials on prominent topics; a very readable letter from our special correspondent in the East Indies; together with a host of brief articles, instructive and interesting. Persons wishing a faithful compendium of the news of the past week should purchase the WEEKLY REPUBLICAN.

THE PRESIDENT will transmit to Congress next week a large batch of nominations—diplomatic, consular, naval, military, postal, revenue and judicial—including that of Judge Strong, in the place of Mr. Stanton, on the Supreme Bench. He remarked to a Senator this afternoon that when he had once made a nomination he felt that he had nothing more to do with it, and that he did not regard the confirmation or the rejection of it by the Senate as reflecting in any way upon him.

WORK AT THE NAVY YARDS.—Orders have been given to have the machinery of the Hartford and Canandaigua, now at the Brooklyn navy yard, thoroughly repaired, ready for sea service. Bids for the work have been solicited from outside establishments. Orders have also been given to concentrate all the force possible on the machinery of the Nantasket, at the Portsmouth navy yard, and have her ready for service as soon as possible. The machinery will be put in the United States steamer Antietam, now at the Philadelphia navy yard, as soon as possible. Bids have also been solicited from outside establishments.

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.—Advices received here from Ohio are in favor of the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment. The Senate will certainly agree to it, and it is now believed that the House will do the same. The action of the New York Legislature creates little comment here, as it was generally anticipated. It is considered wholly void, as it is held that the Legislature has no jurisdiction over the subject except in obedience to the Constitution and laws of the United States. To prevent confusion from such proceedings in the future, Congress will on reassembling pass Senator Williams' bill expressly declaring such action on the part of State Legislatures null and void. That will settle the case of New York very decidedly.

SOME OF THE CALIFORNIA DISTILLERS have been mashing grain on Sunday, and on the strength of their lawlessness claim exemption from taxation on all spirits produced from the Sunday mash. The revenue law provides that no malt, corn, grain or other material shall be mashed, nor any wash, &c., used by a distiller at any time between the hour of 11 p. m. on Saturday and the hour of 1 in the morning of the succeeding Monday, and any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000. While the law prohibits the mashing it does not make a distinction as to the payment of a tax on all spirits distilled. The supervisor has been notified if the offence is repeated to prosecute the transgressors according to law.

PATENT DECISION.—Commissioner Fisher has, on an appeal from the board of examiners in chief, reversed the decision of the board, and ordered a patent to issue to B. F. Woodside, of Tennessee, for an improvement in composition for the manufacture of percussion caps.

Woodside proposes to manufacture the caps from paper pulp and hair, and claims as his improvement the use of a material the fragments of which, when exploded, will not become missiles to injure the face, eyes, and hands of the gunner.

The board refer to an English patent where a gutta percha cap is used, which the patentee claims a covering of calico, or any woven fabric, or "other material." The Commissioner decides that the English claim for "other material" cannot be used to debar the present applicant from his patent.

COMMISSIONER DELANO has decided to transfer gaugers from one distillery to another, as provided in section 49, act of July 20, 1868, and has issued a circular of instruction to supervisors throughout the country to carry out the instructions.

It directs the best qualified and most experienced gauger shall be selected to relieve the gauger in charge of distillery No. 1 in their district, and shall remain in charge of the same for two or three weeks, until he becomes thoroughly qualified to report to the supervisor on the exact condition of affairs in the distillery to which he is assigned. The supervisor is further directed to continue these changes until the entire district is canvassed.

The Commissioner says that supervisors can in this manner become fully posted as to the workings of the various distilleries, and that greater efficiency will thereby be secured, and much valuable information obtained.

NATIONAL THEATRE.—The current engagement of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Florence at the National theatre is a repetition of the remarkable triumph which these distinguished artists always achieve in Washington. The house is full nightly to its utmost capacity, and the enthusiasm of the intelligent and refined audience who nightly witness their performances knows no bounds, apparently. As popular here as they have been for years, their popularity is evidently increasing among our play-goers. Mr. Florence's Captain Cuttle on the night before last was as finished a performance of that most difficult character as that of Burton in the part, in the latter's palmiest days. It illustrated, to the delight of the cultivated in the house, the pathos of Dickens as can be done (in Captain Cuttle) by no other living actor. Mrs. Florence, in her protean characters of "the Young Actress," gave scarcely less pleasure to the audience, evincing a versatility of talent and genius for light comedy, in which she is la now without a rival on the American boards.

Last night they were again warmly welcomed by a rousing house of fashionable people, who enjoyed Florence in "Tim Moore," "Vivian Ripple," and "Wm. Williams, 444 M. V.," with a zest that, in a trice, took the wrinkles out of all present. Nor were they less pleased with Mrs. Florence in the three protean characters which she personified on that occasion with spirit, grace and naivete that carried all hearts and imaginations by storm.

To-night they present a new melodrama—"Inshavogue," founded on the most stirring events of the Irish rebellion of '98. It is said to be as powerfully written as it is certainly artistically put on the stage by Mr. and Mrs. Florence. Florence in the part of the Irish patriot, "Inshavogue," stirs up the hearts of all capable of appreciating the fine and noble points of Irish nationalism; while Mrs. Florence, as his devoted and self-sacrificing wife, exhibits to a charm the proverbial "soul" of the Irish woman.

A LONDON PAPER contains a letter signed by Guillaume de Bourbon and Auguste de Bourbon, claiming to be the sons of the captive in the Temple and grandsons of Louis XVI., and protesting against the pretensions of Count de Chambord to be the head of the Bourbon family. We suppose we are to have a rehearsal of that marvelous tale about the young prince being sent to America and reared among the Indians.

STATE LEGISLATURES.

MINNESOTA.

Message of Governor Marshall—Inaugural of Governor Austin.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Both Houses of the Legislature of Minnesota met in the Senate chamber to-day. Governor Marshall delivered his annual message. He recommends that five hundred acres of the internal improvement lands be appropriated to pay all railroad bonds.

The Governor says there has been reason to suppose that the hostile Sioux would be incited to war, endangering the settlements on the American side of the line, and he has communicated with the General Government and the military authorities on the subject.

The recognized funded debt of the State is $350,000.

After the reading of the message, the new State officers were sworn in, and Gov. Austin delivered his inaugural address.

The Governor says that on January 1st, 1867, there were only 816 miles of railroad in the State, and that now there are 783 miles completed.

He recommends that five hundred acres of land be used to liquidate the old railroad bonds, but that if this is not done an amendment to the constitution be submitted to the people, providing that the lands be disposed of for no purpose without a direct vote of the people.

Owing to the danger of a Sioux outbreak arising out of the Winnepeg trouble, he recommends that the Legislature ask the General Government to station and maintain a military force in the vicinity of Pembrina, to protect the settlements.

Republican State Convention—Ossian Stearns Nominated for the Governorship—Patriotic Resolutions Adopted—President Grant's Administration Heartily Indorsed.

CONCORD, Jan. 7.—The Republican State Convention met to-day, and was called to order by E. H. Rollins, chairman of the State Central Committee.

Asa Fowler was elected president and made a short address.

Hon. N. G. Ordway made an address on the subjects of temperance and labor reform movements, claiming that the Republican party always had been, and could afford to be, in advance on those questions. He offered a resolution relating to the progress of reform and protection of labor.

Colonel Tappan, of Bradford, moved to lay it on the table.

A. M. Wheeler, from the committee on resolutions, said that committee had the subject under consideration for six or seven hours, and nothing would change their action.

S. M. White, of Dover, moved that Ossian Stearns be nominated by acclamation for Governor, and by the members rising. It was done with three cheers.

Mr. Atherton moved to proceed to the nomination of a candidate for railroad commissioner, and declined to be a candidate.

Charles P. Page was nominated for railroad commissioner.

Governor Stearns at first declined the renomination for Governor, on account of ill-health, but was subsequently induced to withdraw his declination.

Resolutions were adopted substantially as follows:

The first contains a declaration of principles and the confidence and hearty approval by the convention of the administration.

Second congratulates the country on the reduction of the public debt.

Third declares the resolutions of the recent State Democratic convention in favor of the payment of the public debt in depreciated currency is only another form of repudiation.

Fourth relates to excise and tariff and taxation of luxuries.

Fifth commends economy in the Government and integrity in the administration of the laws.

Sixth favors the abolition of the franking privilege.

Seventh urges that the nominal restoration to former relations of any State to the Union accomplished by frauds, and in violation of the conditions of restoration, to be null and void, as in the case of Georgia. Congress is bound to enforce the conditions of reconstruction, and maintain a republican form of government.

Eighth denounces the action of the New York Legislature in rescinding the ratification of the Fifteenth amendment as a blow aimed at universal suffrage.

Ninth commends on the participation of the Democratic party in the rebellion.

Tenth hails the revival of temperance in the State as an omen of good.

Eleventh pledges support to the industrial classes.

Twelfth advises that railroads and other corporations be managed in the interests of the public as well as for the stockholders.

Thirteenth favors the renewed efforts to develop the resources of the State, the advancement of railroad enterprises, the abolition of free passes, and the reduction of fares and freights.

Major General Marston offered a resolution regretting the death of ex-Secretary Stanton, which was unanimously adopted, and the convention adjourned.
