WASHINGTON FACTS AND IMPRESSIONS.

DO NOT forget the lecture of Rev. L. Dobson to-night at McKendree M. E. church. It will be an interesting occasion.

LORD WESTBURY—and Sir Clarence Paget, of Prince Arthur's suite, have arrived here, and are the guests of Mr. Thornton, the British minister.

THE REPUBLICAN of to-morrow morning will contain the sermon preached on Sunday night last by Rev. Dr. Sunderland, in which he denies the assumption of the Roman Church that St. Peter was at Rome. The sermon is quite long, but it will repay a perusal.

HONS. WM. E. DODGE, George H. Stuart, Felix R. Brunot, and Col. Campbell, members of the Indian Commission, George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, and Rev. Dr. Hall, of New York, with their wives, visited President Grant yesterday, and partook of a lunch which was served at about 1 o'clock.

A DISPATCH was received at the Navy Department yesterday, stating that the Minnetonomah and Terror sailed from Boston in the morning, for Portland, Maine, where they are to be engaged in the ceremony attending the arrival of the remains of the late George Peabody. Admiral Farragut is to have charge of the naval force on the occasion.

THE SUB-COMMITTEE having in charge the Paraguayan matters did not submit their report to the Committee of the House on Public Relations yesterday, as was anticipated. Their report will be submitted at the meeting of the committee on Saturday, when it will be reviewed and generally discussed. It is understood to be very severe upon Lopez.

MR. DAWES, of Massachusetts, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, is in receipt of a vast number of letters from leading Republicans all over the country, applauding his speech in the House on Tuesday in relation to the public expenditures. Several distinguished Democrats have also expressed their gratification at the stand the gentleman has taken.

"THE RECENT ATTACK UPON THE PAPACY," will be the subject of a lecture by Rev. Father White, of St. Matthew's church, at Carroll Hall, on Sunday evening next. It will be in reply to sermons that have been recently preached by Rev. Dr. Sunderland and other Protestant clergymen. The subject is one of great interest, and we have no doubt the learned Father will have a large audience. No man is better qualified to speak on the subject.

A MAGNIFICENT CHANDELIER, of the most improved pattern, combining treble reflectors, with twenty-four burners, has just been put up in the Blue-Room at the Executive Mansion, and illumines the room with dazzling brilliancy. At the future receptions of the President the visitors will enter and leave the Mansion by the main door. In the hallway leading to the executive offices, where the Marine band is stationed on such occasions, suitable gas fixtures have been introduced, and hereafter the use of "tallow dips" will be dispensed with.

THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS have under consideration the civil and diplomatic appropriation bill, which they hope to be able to present to the House on Monday. Colonel Capron, Commissioner of Agriculture, was before the committee for some time yesterday in reference to the appropriations for that Department. The members of the committee express great confidence in the management of that Department, and will report quite liberal appropriations for it. There is also a growing disposition on the part of the House to encourage and sustain it.

FOR THE GUIDANCE of all disbursing officers, agents, or clerks of the United States, instructions have been issued by the Secretary of the Treasury relative to the continuance of the internal revenue tax on salaries. He says: "The question has been submitted to this Department whether the tax on payments for salaries and services in the United States, levied and withheld by virtue of the 123d section of the internal revenue act, approved June 30, 1864, as amended, is governed by the 119th section of said act, as amended, (which latter relates to taxes on incomes, and not to taxes on such salaries.) The decisions of the proper accounting officers and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue have been given on the subject, and in accordance therewith such taxes will be withheld as usual by all disbursing officers, agents, or clerks of the United States."

THE WASHINGTON MAIL STEAMSHIP COMPANY.—Mr. Hamlin introduced in the Senate yesterday a bill to incorporate the Washington Mail Steamboat Company. The names as incorporators Charles Spear, Paul Stevens, W. H. Tenney, Wm. B. Wall, W. H. Philp, George H. Plant, J. L. Savage, D. C. Forney, H. Kilbourn, S. P. Brown, Alexander Hay, A. H. Herr and John Pearson, and fixes the capital stock of the company at not less than $200,000, nor more than $500,000, in shares of $100 each. The company is authorized to establish and run a line or lines of steamers between the cities of Washington and Norfolk and other points, purchase real estate and build the necessary docks and buildings, transport passengers, &c., and issue bonds of the denomination of not less than $100, in an amount not exceeding one half of the capital stock of the company. Referred to the Committee on the District of Columbia.

IN THE SENATE yesterday Mr. Ramsey introduced a bill to establish a postal telegraph system. It authorizes the Postmaster General to establish telegraph offices in connection with the post office in every city and village where telegraph stations are now maintained, and at such other places on the line of the telegraph as the business of the company may require; to provide for the reception of messages at every postal-telegraph office, post office, sub-office and street letter-box for their transmission between postal-telegraph offices by contract with the Postal Telegraph Company, and for their special and immediate delivery when letter delivery is provided by law, or within one mile of every postal-telegraph office where there is no delivery, and delivery at special rates beyond such limits, excepting "messages transmitted by night," which shall be delivered the next morning. He is also authorized to provide for the transmission of messages by mail to or from the nearest postal-telegraph office, when received at or destined for any place not having such office; the transmission by telegraph of postal money orders; the transmission of the messages by mail in special cases; priority of transmission, and transmission where the whole amount due has not been paid.

The rates to be prepaid for transmission and delivery of messages of twenty words or figures or less, including date, address and signature, shall not exceed 25 cents for each and every 500 hundred miles or fractional parts thereof, measured in an air line; and for each additional five words or figures, or less, one fifth of the above rates. But the rates for messages directed to be transmitted by night, shall not exceed 25 cents for each and every 1,000 miles, or fractional parts thereof; for each additional ten words one fifth these rates. A brilliant and stylish party was given by Mrs. Robert Farnham, at her residence, Eleventh and M streets. Among those present were many of our distinguished citizens and families. At 11 o'clock a sumptuous and elegant repast was served by Shaffield with his usual good taste.

At Maffit's Academy, on E street, the society of young gentlemen of Washington, formed for the purpose, accompanied by their lady friends in elaborate toilettes, assembled and engaged for several hours in the giddy mazes of "The German." By the way, this fascinating dance is becoming quite a feature in fashionable circles.

The Wisconsin "Sociable," at Harmonial Hall, last evening, was a grand affair. Among the distinguished persons present we noticed Senator Howe and lady, Representative Sawyer and lady, Representative Cobb, Ex-Senator Fulton, Col. Allen and lady, of Milwaukee, Ex-Governor Dole and lady, Mr. Mansfield, Judge Bixford and lady, Col. Daniels, Major Haynes and lady, Capt. Town and lady, L. B. S. Miller and daughter, Dr. W. W. Much credit is due to the committee having the matter in charge.

Amusements.

WALLACK'S OPERA HOUSE.—Although there has been no diminution in the numbers who attended to witness the excellent drama of "School," yet Miss Laura Keene is determined to afford our play-goers an opportunity of witnessing all the latest and best comedies and dramas. To-night "Tolinette, the Saucy Housemaid," will be produced for the first time in this city. On Monday night "Champagne, or Step by Step" will be produced.

NATIONAL THEATER.—Large audiences continue to attend the performances of the Lingard burlesque troupe. The burlesque of Pluto is capitally rendered, the main attraction being Miss Alice Dunning's singing and acting.

DR. SCHMITZ.—The case of Dr. Schoppe is an illustration that the manufacture of sympathy for a person accused of crime may be carried too far. It will be remembered that one of this doctor's patients died while attended by him, and he proved to be his heir. The matter of fact community in the midst of which the event occurred did not like the looks of the transaction, and the result of the investigation was that the doctor was placed on trial for murder. He was found guilty. He had friends enough to make a noise, and German societies and all other sorts of societies were appealed to, and considerable interest was excited. So much of this sort of capital was made that the presence of public opinion seemed likely to overrule the not very strong evidences of guilt. Finally, Schoppe's friends appealed to some men learned in the law in Berlin for an opinion that it would be unjust to hang a man on such evidence as the accused was condemned on, when, lo! there is returned for answer that this very man was forced to leave Berlin years ago for the crime of forgery. Hence comes up the thought that all the testimonials Schoppe brought from Germany—which first made him friends here—were forgeries, and also the thought that familiarity with that sort of crime is what would best enable him to forge a will in the name of his wealthy patient. Certainly the sympathy went too far when it went to Berlin.

THE warning of the Avondale disaster has been heeded in the Illinois mines. The Northern Illinois Coal and Iron Company have completed the work of connecting the La Salle and Rockwell shafts, so that now in the case of fire the miners have means of escaping at three shafts.

Death of Gottschalk, the Pianist—Progress of Emancipation in Brazil—The Whereabouts of Lopez.

NEW YORK, January 20.—The steamship South America, from Rio Janeiro, December 25, brings the melancholy intelligence of the death of Louis H. Gottschalk, the celebrated American pianist and composer. While giving a monster concert at Rio Janeiro he fell senseless at his instrument during the performance of his favorite composition, "La Motte." He was taken to Tijuca, where he lingered three weeks, and expired on the 18th of December.

The Emperor of Brazil sent continually during his illness to obtain tidings of his condition. His funeral was conducted by the Philharmonic Society of Rio, and was attended by an extraordinary number of persons of all nationalities. The remains were deposited in the cemetery of St. John the Baptist.

The emancipation movement was making great progress in Brazil.

The Brazilian Minister of Agriculture who was averse to American immigration has resigned.

News from Paraguay contradicts the reports that Lopez had abandoned the country. He was fortified at a post called Pasadera, in the mountains of Maracaiga, and well supplied with provisions. A thousand of his men had made a raid on the cattle depot of the Brazilian army and captured it, but they were subsequently dispersed by Gen Camara, recaptured the cattle which the enemy were driving away.

Deserters from the Paraguayan army represent that the war is not over, but has entered on a new and remarkable phase. Lopez had concluded an alliance with the Cargnay Indians, who had offered to furnish him with 15,000 fighting men, and provisions for
