

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1900.
W. J. MURTAGH, Editor and Proprietor.

Regular Republican Candidate.
FOR MAYOR.

MATTHEW G. EMERY.
The House of Representatives yesterday, after a struggle, agreed to the conference report on the market-house bill, and it now only requires the signature of the President to become a law.

THE MARKET-HOUSE BILL.
The House of Representatives yesterday, after a struggle, agreed to the conference report on the market-house bill, and it now only requires the signature of the President to become a law.

Our citizens need only be satisfied with the report of the committee of conference. He also produced a design representing the building which the corporation under this bill proposed to erect.

Mr. Logan also defended the bill and the report of the committee of conference. He also produced a design representing the building which the corporation under this bill proposed to erect.
