BATON ROUGE:

LADIES' BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION .- AD official notice elsewhere inserted, calls for a meeting of the above Association on Saturday, the 27th inst., at 9 o'clock A. M. The Association, aided by the Oity Council, has, we are happy to say, inaugurated their praiseworthy undertaking of a "House of Industry" for the indigent poor of our city, where efforts will be made to provide with work and means for a livelihood, all those legitimately entitled to the watchful care and protection of the Asso-

The City Council has resolved to approprinte fifty dollars monthly, commencing the first of August proximo, and also to grant the use of a building-either the Academy Hall or the school-house contignous to it, as may be selected-in order to further the benevolent purroses of the Association. Temporarily, the ladies have secured a building up town which is in use and will continue to be used as a "House of Industry," until other arrangements shall have been consummated.

SUMMER RESPITE. - An occasional respite from one's ordinary avocations or pursuits during the long summer seasons of this latitude, is no less a pleasure than a duty which is due to one's physical as well as mental well being. A good many of our friends and acquaintances, appreciating the benefit to be derived from a change of climate, scene and associations, have left us and gone to seek abroad such opportunities for relaxation and enjoyment as may come in their way; and others are preparing to follow upon similar errands. We hope they may realize every blessing attendant upon such health or pleasureseeking peregrinations.

Among those who are on the eve of tak ing their leave from our vicinity on a visit to other parts, is that accomplished resident pianiste, Mrs. J. B. Henderson. That lady, we are informed, will be absent from here for two months, intending to return by the first of October, in time to resume her valued services as musical instructor at Mrs. Read's school.

BOARD AND LODGING .- The attention of persons desiring to obtain good and comfortable board with or without lodging, is respectfully called to the card elsewhere inserted, of Mrs. H. J. Heard. That lady having secured the building on Lafayette street, known as the "Bear House," will open the same for the purpose above stated, on Monday next. We are persunded that Mrs. Heard will spare no effort to please and satisfy those who may register themselves as guests at her house.

Our attentive and courteous friends Cent. Pete Millette, wharf-master, and his assistant, Ed. Jolly, place us under renewed obligations for late papers in advance of the mail.

Col. Van Wickle will present to the convention a series of resolutions relative to levee matters.

Col. Wm. J. Minor, of Lafourche, is also in the city to attend the convention .- New Orleans Bulletin,

DEATH OF JUDGE JONES .- Robert Byron Jones, better known as Judge Jones, who was arrested recently at Natchitoches, brought to this city, and confined in the military prison on a charge of having been implicated in the murder of Cyrus W. Stauffer, died of cholera, on Saturday evening, at No. 191 Baronne street, where he had but a few hours before been removed from the prison. His brother, Dr. Jones, died, it will be remembered, of the same disease a few days previously. Both were but little over thirty years of age, and both leave families. Judge Jones was buried on Sunday .- N. O. Crescent, 23d inst.
