VAUDEVILLE AND MOVIE REVIEW

By Dave Peyton

The Grand
The summer policy in vogue at this house is just what the doctor called for. The opening on Friday night was well attended and the Saturday and Sunday business was away above par. The bill for present week, beginning on next Friday night, is made up of an all colored star, Vaudeville Bill, and every week a brand new show will be offered.

The Avenue
"The Love Bandit" drew large houses, and done much toward encouraging the famous players. It is a struggle for them under present economic conditions, and it is imperative that the Chicago public give drama its full support. The sins of society is the presentation for this week.

The Monogram
Captain Mac Kemp and her versatile company of 10 people are delivering the goods here for the week. Miss Kemp is an accomplished performer and producer, and knows just what to offer the public.

"BEYOND THE ROCKS"

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 4, 5, 6 and 7 (4 days). Super-Special attraction. A flaming romance as only the author of "Three Weeks" could write it; as only Glorious Gloria, with dashing Rodolph Valentino playing the lover, could make it live in all its ardent splendor. A romantic drama of passionate young love struggling against convention—of gay nights of revelry in the Paris world of fashion—of tingling adventures on the snow-clad crags of the Alps—of intrigue and coquetry in the gilded resorts of London's high society. Never before have such lavish settings, such dramatic love scenes, such spectacular adventure been seen upon the screen. The love-drama with all the thrills and luxury of a life time.

Don't miss the show.

'WHEN ROMANCE RIDES'

At the Vendome Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 1, 2, and 3. Zane Grey's "When Romance Rides," adapted from the novel "Wildfire." One of her father's horses stolen, another "doped," yet she was winning the great race for him—winning with "Wildfire" putting forth every atom of his energy—"Wildfire," creature of the forest and plains.

Billy King Takes New Show On Road

Billy King's latest and most spectacular production, featuring one of the best aggregations of headliners ever put on the road, opened in Columbus, Ohio, May 29th, at The Lyceum Theatre. They play at The Lyceum Theatre, Washington, D. C., week of June 5th, after which they will play in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, the trip lasting for eight weeks. This new show presents in its line-up of stellar talent such stars as Willie Thyrle, "Doc" Straine, "Ike" Young, Ed. Woods, Charlie Richardson, William Gunn, Marshall Rogers, Essie Brown, Marie Lucas, Annie Belle Cook, Geraldine Bristell, Maybelle Brown, Baby Cox and Margaret Scott. Chicago theatre goers are waiting expectantly for this show to open in Chicago, feeling that Mr. King has produced a show that will take any audience by storm.

WITH THE ACTORS

Doc Straine remained over for a few days and didn't leave with the King company for Columbus on Sunday night, as business of importance kept him here.

Jerry Mills is staging a big revue that will open at the Green Mill Gardens on June 16.

Allen & Stokes are in the city looking like ready money, and will open at the Grand on Decoration Day and play Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Tom Le Monier is doing well with his new music store on South State Street at 37th.

Mocking Bird Rube is up and around again after several weeks' confinement in the county hospital.

Mrs. James Barrett, wife of Little Jimmy Barrett, stage manager of the Grand Theatre, is back home again after having undergone an operation at Provident Hospital.

Gertrude Saunders is under contract to appear nightly, the entire summer, at a large Broadway cafe. Miss Saunders recently made a tour of the Pan-tages circuit.

PRESPIRATION AND BODY ODORS

Will Make You Unpopular

Perfume and highly scented talcum powder will not disguise or hide perspiration and body odors. Even bathing every day will not destroy these disagreeable efforts of perspiration.

A French chemist has invented a delightful cream by the use of which you can keep your body as fresh and sweet as a flower. It is called Mon Secret which in French means "My Secret."

BLACK AND WHITE

Mon Secret

Destroys All Body Odors

Mon Secret is truly a wonderful toilet cream. Applied under the arms and other parts of the body, it not only prevents perspiration but kills this and other body odors.

Black and White Mon Secret will not irritate or injure the skin; nor will it soil your clothing.

No woman, who desires daintiness and personal charm, can afford to be without a jar of Mon Secret. Get a jar today

If your druggist cannot supply you large jars for 25c, a package or two will be sent you postpaid on receipt of price.
