

CHANCES OF COURT SHOOTING HERE

Same Act Committed at Terre Haute Possible, Says Bailey.

POLICE ARE REPRESENTED.

SGT. McMANUS GOES TO TERRE HAUTE TO ATTEND FUNERAL OF CHIEF OF DETECTIVES, KILLED BY CRAZED McDONALD.

Sergeant Dan McManus left this morning for Terre Haute to represent the Richmond police department at the funeral of William E. Dwyer, captain of detectives, who was killed in a court room at Terre Haute, Thursday by Henry F. McDonald. McManus was an old friend of Dwyer.

"The same thing that McDonald did at Terre Haute is always possible here," stated Chief Bailey this morning. "If a desperate man was arrested here, released on bond and then searched when he appeared in the court room for trial, I can imagine the scene that would be created."

"As soon as the sheriff or a deputy would step up to search the man for possible concealed weapons, I can in my mind's eye distinctly see the attorney for the defendant jump to his feet and angrily protest to the court against the action, stating that such procedure on the part of the officials was uncalled for and that it served to prejudice the court and the jury against his client."

Only recently a man was brought before Judge Fox to show cause why he should not be sent to jail for refusing to pay alimony to his wife. Fearing imprisonment the man became desperate and made a frantic effort to escape from the court room. After a hard fight, the officers succeeded in overcoming him. After this had been done the man was searched and an immense razor was found on him. Had the man been armed with a revolver it is barely possible that there would have been a repetition of the Terre Haute affair.

A NAVAL REBUKE.

Two Admirals, a Captain and a Fool

When Dewey's fleet was at Manila the late Admiral Chichester was then a captain. On one occasion Admiral Diederichs, the German, sent out the Irene on an unexplained errand and without the customary notification to the commander of the blockading fleet. Admiral Dewey had suffered, he thought, sufficiently from that sort of thing, and so the admiral sent a vessel across the Irene's bows and notified her captain that she would not be permitted to depart without a statement as to her destination. It was not Admiral Diederichs' mission to quarrel with both the American and the English fleets on this critical occasion, so he sought to find out the captain Chichester's purpose in case of a collision. Going on board Chichester's ship, he angrily exclaimed, "Did you see what Dewey did to my ship?"

"Yes," replied Chichester. "What would you have done if it had been an English ship?" "Well," said Chichester, conventionally assuming that the Irene's captain had sailed without orders from Diederichs, "I'd have put my captain in arrest, and then I'd have gone on board the Olympia and apologized to Admiral Dewey for having such a fool in command of one of my ships."—Harper's Weekly.

A Poet's Homely Face.

The poet Rogers was afflicted with a notably unpleasant, cadaverous countenance, which, with all his intellectual power, was a mortification to him. To hide his annoyance, he joked about his ugliness incessantly and deceived his friends into supposing him indifferent to it. He once turned to Sydney Smith, who, with Byron and Moore, was dining with him, and said: "Chatterbox wants to perpetuate this miserable face of mine. What pose would you suggest that I should take?" "If you really wish to spare the world as much as possible," said the wit, "I would, if I were you, be taken at my prayers, my face buried in my hands." Rogers laughed with the other persons present, but he shot a malignant glance at the jester and, it is said, never fully forgave him for the bonnet.

Thankfulness.

I am no friend to the people who receive the bounties of Providence without visible gratitude. When the existence falls into your hat you may laugh. When the messenger of an unexpected blessing takes you by the hand and lifts you up and bids you walk you may leap and run and sing for joy, even as the lame man whom St. Peter healed skipped piously and rejoiced aloud as he passed through the beautiful gate of the temple. There is no virtue in solemn indifference. Joy is as much a duty as beneficence is. Thankfulness is the other side of mercy.—Henry Van Dyke.

Facial Horticulture.

"A new milkman left our milk today," announced Dorothy. "Did he have whiskers?" asked her mother, thinking perhaps it was the proprietor.

"No," said the four-year-old; "he didn't have whiskers, but he had the roots."—Harper's Weekly.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Richmond might well be proud of her musical lovers and artists through whose efforts some of the most noted musical artists have appeared in recital. These recitals have been made possible by the Music Study club, which holds its meeting on Tuesday morning of every other week. Next Tuesday the last morning meeting of the club season will be held in the Starr Piano parlors. The subject "A Morning with Sir Edward Elgar," will be in charge of Mrs. Will Earhart and Mrs. James Morrison. All members are urged to be present. The annual election of officers will take place after the morning's program. At this meeting programs for next year will be given to each member. On April twenty-first, an evening meeting will be held for invited guests.

The aid society of the First Presbyterian church, met yesterday afternoon at the church. Mrs. E. B. Grosvener told an original story in a very pleasing manner. Mrs. Hastings gave a talk on how an aid society should be managed. She said in part, that as a club member is faithful to her club so should the aid society member be faithful to that organization. Too many members think it is only an aid society meeting and their attendance is not needed. She said that was why so many societies did not prosper. The remaining hours were spent at needlework.

A charming indoor picnic was given by a society of young women to their adolescent friends in a certain city about a month ago. In the hall or reception room were large bouquets covered with red crepe paper roses. The lights were shaded with paper of the same color. The living room, where the marsh-mallow bake took place, was pink. In the dining room, where the picnic supper was served, were palms and ferns in profusion. The indoor picnic has become quite popular and the hostess is trying to invent something new for every occasion of this kind. A very pretty decoration may be made to represent Chinese cherry blossoms. Take smooth twigs and at intervals fasten blossoms made of pink paper, upon the twigs by means of tiny wires. When these are used in abundance they make a very clever decoration.

A family dinner was given Mr. Josiah White yesterday at his home in Spring Grove. The affair was in honor of his eighty-fourth birthday anniversary. Places were arranged for twenty. The table was beautifully appointed with hyacinths and other spring flowers. Roses and carnations were given as favors. Many beautiful gifts were received by Mr. White. Mary White and Susan Smith assisted in entertaining after the dinner had been served. The out of town guests were Mrs. William M. Jenkins, of Guthrie, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wilson of New Castle, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Exum Unthank of Spiceland, and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Toms and daughter Eva.

Mrs. Fred Denney gave a very pretty child's party in honor of her daughter, Fay's ninth birthday anniversary, at their home, 40 Washington avenue. The hours were from four until six. Games and music furnished the amusements for the guests. A dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. George Ball entertained the thimble club at her home on North Sixth street. The hours were spent at needlework and in a social manner. Dainty refreshments were served. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. George Ballenger, 227 Richmond avenue.

Miss Arnold of Indianapolis, who is the guest of Mrs. Robert Study of 206 South Sixteenth street, will return home tomorrow.

The entertainment committee of the Richmond Country club, which is composed of Mrs. George Love, Mrs. W. W. Gaar, Mrs. John Nicholson, Mr. H. E. Thornburg and Mr. Guy Scott, has been most fortunate in securing the services of the celebrated Heidelberg orchestra of Dayton, for the last subscription dance of the season to be held at the Pythian Temple, on Wednesday night, the twenty-second of April. The members have the privilege of inviting several guests. The dance will be in the nature of a cotillon. Punch and a luncheon will be served during the evening. The committee is endeavoring to make this the most charming and successful event of the club social calendar.

The East End Aid society of the First Christian church, is making extensive preparations for an exceedingly pretty bazaar to be held next week at the Pythian Temple. Booths of every description are being arrayed in gorgeous colors. Everything will be on sale from beautiful embroidered linens and scarfs down to needles and pins. The Richmond city band will furnish a musical program every evening.

The Troubadours, gave a very pleasing concert last evening at the Elk's club rooms. There was an unusually good attendance. Dancing began at ten o'clock, the quartet of musicians furnishing the dance music. During the evening a buffet luncheon was served.

Mrs. George Mashmeyer, entertained yesterday afternoon at a thimble party in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Jurgens' seventy-eighth birthday anniversary. Seventeen women spent the hours at needlework. The dining room where an elaborate two course luncheon was served, was exceedingly ly pretty in its appointments of spring flowers. Scarlet carnations were given as favors.

Vesper services will be held tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock at the First-English Lutheran church. The program is:

Organ—
"Prelude in E".....Hefebure-Wely
"The House of the Lord".....Ashford
Choir

Offertory—
"Sons la Feuillee".....Thome
"Over the Stars There is Rest".....
.....Franz Abt
Mixed Quartet

Organ—
"Allegro Moderato".....Lemmens

Miss Willma Willet entertained at her home on East Main street in honor of her house guest, Miss Ruth Perhune of Muncie, Ind. The hours were spent socially. A luncheon was served. The party included Ruth Perhune, Eva Phelps, Reba Stinson, Grace McConologue and Elizabeth Phelps.

The Misses Pugh of Columbus, O., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simmons, 43 South Eighteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flekle and daughter, of Lynn, Indiana and Elma White were in this city yesterday, the guests of Josiah White of Spring Grove.

Mrs. John R. Milligan of New Castle, was here yesterday attending the birthday celebration of her grandfather, Josiah T. White.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

Water bills due April 1st. 30-10T
Up to the present time no arrests have been made for a violation of the anti-tickling rules, promulgated by Chief Bailey.

Don't fail to attend the bazaar at the Pythian Temple, April 6 to 11, open every evening.

All the members of the No. 1 hose company, who were exposed to smallpox at the Underhill home, have been vaccinated and the quarantine has now been lifted.

Almost everything you can think of at the Bazaar, Pythian Temple.

Mrs. Ira Swisher, manager of the Gennett theatre, today received notice that the Glick stock company, which was scheduled here all next week, would not be here, having closed for the season today at Piqua, O.

Water bills due April 1st. 30-10T
For several days past the local hotels have been enjoying excellent business. There are a large number of salesmen now on the road, which means prosperity for the hotel landlords.

With the opening of the season the work on the Y. M. C. A. building is progressing rapidly. In a short time the foundation work will be entirely completed.

Dinner and supper served every day from April 7th to 11th at Pythian Temple.

City Engineer Fred Charles and his assistants are busy preparing plans for various public improvements authorized by the council and the board of public works, which improvements will be made this summer.

It is probable that City Controller Webster Parry will be able to present his annual report of the city's finances at the council meeting Monday night. This report has been in the hands of the printer.

MITCHELL DECLINES

Offer of Position From the President Is Turned Down.

HONORS ARE BESTOWED.

Washington, April 4.—John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America, called on President Roosevelt Wednesday and on leaving the white house said that the president had offered him the position of special commissioner to study and report upon labor conditions on the Panama Canal zone. Mr. Mitchell said he was not able to accept the offer, as it was necessary for him to recover his health before he could take up work of any kind.

Mr. Mitchell will have another talk with President Roosevelt today and also appear before the house committee at the hearing of the Sherman anti-trust law. He was yesterday informed that he had been named by the president as one of the special guests of the conference of the governors of the states and territories, to be held at the White House May 13, 14 and 15.

A TWENTY YEAR SENTENCE.
"I have just completed a twenty year health sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago," writes O. S. Woolver, of Le-Raysville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c at A. G. Luken & Co's drug store.

SORRY HE DIDN'T GET PROSECUTOR

This Is the Only Regret of the Man Who Shot Up Court Room.

THE MAN IS NOW DYING.

IT IS NOT THOUGHT HE CAN RECOVER WITH SO MANY BODILY INJURIES WHICH WERE SUSTAINED IN BATTLE.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 4.—Henry McDonald, who in court shot and killed William E. Dwyer, Chief of Detectives; wounded Harvey V. Jones, chief of police; Policeman Sylvester Doyle, Deputy Sheriff Ira Wellman and a spectator named Walker and was himself fatally shot by the officers, following his conviction for dynamiting a church at Sandford, is dying in a hospital here. There are five bullet wounds in his body and his head is badly battered, due to blows with the revolver butt of Chief Jones.

"I wanted to get two of them," McDonald said. "I would have been satisfied if I had got Cooper. I did not get a fair deal, and I am ready to take the consequences. I don't want any lawyers to defend me. What money I have saved is for my wife and three children and not to pay lawyers. I had made up my mind to kill Jim Cooper if the jury convicted me."

McDonald denies the dynamiting charge. He has kissed his three young boys good-bye and handed his watch to his eldest son.

The Horrible and Grotesque.

Not a few of the scenes a clergyman is called upon to witness are both grotesque and terrible. An old man had been ill for months, but clung to life with that wonderful plasticity which is so common with old people. He was of course a great burden to his two daughters, who had to nurse him and at the same time earn their own bread. One day, on being asked how the old man was, one of the daughters, even while she stood by the bed, announced: "E's just the same; 'e is such a time a-dyin'." "I wish 'e'd hurry up a bit. It's s' awkward for me and my sister, with our other work to do." It was terrible enough to see natural feeling all but destroyed by poverty, but there was something truly awful in the scene when the old man gasped over from his bed: "I am a-makin' 'aste, ain't I? I've got no call for to live."—Cornhill Magazine.

A WARM WELCOME

It Will Be Accorded Hill and His Wife When They Reach Germany.

INCIDENT NOTEWORTHY.

Paris, April 4.—Dr. and Mrs. David Jayne Hill met the Prince and Princess Radolin at the reception given by Ambassador White yesterday afternoon. Dr. Hill is the ambassador designate of the United States to Germany and Prince Radolin is the German ambassador to France. Both the Prince and the Princess manifested particular cordiality to Dr. Hill.

The impression holds here that the Hill incident will help the movement in congress for the purchase of bettering residences for the American ambassadors abroad and thus put an end to the comparisons between the embassies occupied by the successive representatives of the United States.

BERKMAN IS FREE

Police Could Not Connect Him With the New York Riots.

THE JUDGE'S ADMONITION.

New York, April 4.—Alexander Berkman, the anarchist, who was taken into custody following the Union Square boom throwing, has been discharged. When he was arraigned in police court the police said they had been unable to connect Berkman with the affair. In discharging Berkman, Magistrate Droeg said: "You had better unite with some other organization than the anarchists. But you must remember that the police, as well as the public at large, look upon an anarchist as little better than a burglar."

Her Mistake.

"My dear," said Mr. Brown to his wife, "where did all those books on astronomy on the library table come from? They are not ours." "A pleasant little surprise for you," responded Mrs. Brown. "You know you said this morning that we ought to study astronomy, so I went to a bookstore and bought everything I could find on the subject."

It was some minutes before he spoke. "My dear," he then said slowly, his voice husky with emotion, "I never said we must study astronomy. I said we must study economy."—Exchange.

QUEEN LOSES HER MIND OVER GRIEF

Assassination of Carlos and Crown Prince Cause.

Lisbon, April 4.—Queen Maria Pia is reported to have broken down mentally and physically under the strain of grief and anxiety which she has undergone since the tragedy in which her son, the late King Carlos and her grandson, the Crown Prince, lost their lives.

The Sunrise of Life.
Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomach and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathartics. Give them a mild, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Cassell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the usual sum of 50 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is the one great remedy for you to have in the house to give children when they need it.

MAYOR IS GRATIFIED

Friendship Between the United States and Brazil Sealed.

Rio Janeiro, April 4.—The mayor of Rio Janeiro, in his annual message, gives expression to the gratification caused by the visit of the American fleet. The mayor says that the national and municipal authorities joined in extending a warmly enthusiastic welcome to the vessels and the officers and men, and in arranging in their honor those public celebrations which confirmed once more the friendship and political solidarity existing between Brazil and the United States.

It is reported here that President Roosevelt will visit Brazil after the expiration of his term of office.
