

GERMAN AND TURK CLASH TONIGHT

Busch and His Opponent Have Been Training and Are Ready for Bout.

THE TURK IS THE HEAVIER.

GERMAN CHAMPION HOWEVER HOPES TO WIN DESPITE THE ODDS—RICHMOND BOYS WRES-TLE PRELIMINARY.

Tonight another wrestling match will be held at the coliseum. The principals will be Busch, the German champion, who defeated Frank Prindle here last Friday night, and the "Terrible Turk." Both men have been training hard for this match and the eyes of the wrestling fans all over the country will be centered on this match.

The Turk tips the scales stripped at about 190 pounds while Busch will weigh in at about 175. Despite the fact that the Turk has a handicap in weight Busch states he is confident of defeating him. The German is a skilful, tricky wrestler and he depends on his science to overcome the superior weight of his adversary.

As a preliminary to the big match two local boys will take the mat and they promise to furnish good sport.

The doors of the coliseum will be thrown open at 7 o'clock. The big match will start about 8:30 o'clock. It is quite probable that there will be a large crowd present.

Affairs of the Sporting World

(By Tort.)

Yesterday it looked as though New York had secured a lead which the Pirates and Cubs could not overhaul—but base ball is a peculiar game. The Giants split even with Philadelphia, while the Cubs won from Cincinnati, and the Pirates remained idle, consequently this morning Chicago and Pittsburgh are tied for second place and New York leads by scant two points. That four point lead Detroit has in the American League may be enough margin to win on. However, should Cleveland win all of its five remaining games and Detroit drop one of its five remaining games the Naps will nose under the wire a winner.

Tonight at the Coliseum, Bush, the German, will bear hug All the Turk, and the sporting fraternity will be on hand to provide noise. The wrestling game has made a decided hit in Richmond, and the indications are there will be a large crowd in attendance. The Turk seems to be the choice for winner owing to his superior weight.

In the Indianapolis Star this morning a local dispatch reads that Earham has no hopes of holding down Purdue to a low score. Either Coach Vall or the correspondent has the frigid peds and the chances are it is not the former so afflicted.

Vall has a big squad this year, and the majority of the candidates are promising. He also has several experienced players around whom he should be able to build up a fast team.

Tomorrow afternoon Earham will formally open the local foot ball season at Reid field with Antioch college collaborating in the sketch. This will be the first good opportunity to get a line on the Quaker team and its possibilities.

While Earham is administering the half-Nelson to Antioch, the high school team will be trying conclusions with the Spiceland high school team at the public school play grounds. Now, gentle reader, take your choice of attractions.

The referee at the wrestling match tonight assures us that he will not again attempt to walk the ring ropes. Isn't it about time for some one to start the annual polo pipe about the revival of the old Western League this season, and that Richmond will have its former all-star team in the fold?

of the time and expense of their capture and even when men are sent to prison it does not restore the money. "Bryan has yet to point out any administration or any wrongful use of funds. Our expenses have increased, but our results have also. An increased navy or army means peace insured for many years to come. It means our ability to enforce our rights.

"Then compare Taft and Bryan as men. One is the worker, the doer of deeds and the other is the dreamer. It is the duty of all Indians to vote the straight ticket. I will not undertake to talk on state issues as there will be others to do that. The Republican party advocates the conservation of natural resources. We beg of you to consider wisely before casting your votes. Study which party suits you best, and which party has done the most, then cast your vote and it will be for the Republican party and William Howard Taft, who bears its standard."

BIG CORPORATION QUESTION DEALT WITH BY GARFIELD

a director on more than one board. How simple it would be for this man to elect some clerk as his stool pigeon to serve on other boards. He chases after shadows instead of substances. Instead of doing away with the industrial evils, his are methods for chicanery and fraud. It is simply the idle dream of a man who has not thought it through to the finish. He would seek to impose a penalty upon some businesses because others have been managed improperly. He destroys the initiative for industrial endeavor.

"Bryan tells us the tariff is the cause of much of this evil. You can't take the protective tariff off of one single man or corporation and impose it on others. We have suggested in our platform a revision of the tariff. We have promised the people that March 4 of next year, we intend to call Congress to revise the tariff. But we want it revised along protective lines. We believe in a tariff that will prevent foreign manufacturers from underselling home manufacturers, but will allow only a reasonable profit to these home manufacturers. We would have this tariff regulated so that when the home manufacturers were obtaining an excessive profit the foreigner could come in and undersell him.

"Bryan poses as the special friend of labor. He endeavors to arraign the laboring man against the Republican party on all things. Let us meet him on that issue. I consider his statement about the souls of men being in danger as instilling into the minds of the people pernicious ideas. He tries to make believe one set of men is trying to oppress the other set and to control their lives. Any man who presents that argument is not a good citizen. The Republican party has treated labor fairly. It has not picked out one set of men and said you are our pets. We recognize any man who earns his bread either by his hands or brain as a laboring man. We recognize that there should be certain legislation along labor lines. We have reduced the hours of labor in order to make possible the uplifting of mankind. We have specified the hours a man shall labor on railroads. We have gone into the factories and legislated certain laws of protection. We have promoted laws governing child labor laws. Why, Bryan talks about child labor laws and says the Democratic party would have care for the souls of men. Look in South where the Democrats are absolutely in control. Look at the pale, wan cheeks of the children in the factories in the South; look at them and see what democracy has done toward the child labor laws. The Republican party has gone further than the Democrats ever dared to go. Where are the pure food laws, the meat inspection laws which insure pure food to the people. The Republican party has attempted to do that which will benefit the greatest number of people. We do not believe in experimenting, but advise going slowly and steadily.

Roosevelt, Labor's Friend.

"Another point, which Bryan lays special stress upon, is in regard to the problem of court injunction. He says our candidate is the father of injunction. He says Republican courts are unjust and enforce the law against the laboring man. Has there ever been any one who stood by the laboring men like President Roosevelt? He says labor and capital must be protected equally and both must obey the law. He has treated organized labor, union labor, the same as he has treated organized capital, union capital.

When you analyzed Mr. Bryan's propositions they are fancies and in his dealings with the proposition about labor, he has been unfair and unjust. He has tried to make the laboring man believe he has been treated unfairly. Look at his bank deposit idea. It would make a good bank responsible for a bad one. A set of men could organize a bank with the purpose of fraud and when it collapsed and they left with the money, the other banks would have to pay the good the loss. Of course, the banks would be chased to Canada or Mexico.

GREAT OLEASURE OF WEALTH IN GIVING SAYS M. M. WHITE nations, and that the peoples of the earth are turning their attention toward the establishment of permanent tribunals for the settlement of international differences upon principles of justice and equity.

It would seem fitting that all the bodies of the Society of Friends throughout the world give earnest attention to the subject of peace, and as individuals exert all their influence to further the peace spirit.

These meetings further invite all the Yearly Meetings of Friends throughout the world to appoint special committees, one from each Yearly Meeting, which may confer and operate to arrange and formulate measures for the support of the movement.

Home Mission Report.

There is probably no religious sect in the world, considering its size, that does as much personal Christian service as the Society of Friends. A summary of the thirty-fifth annual report of the Home Missions of the church, which was the first item of business at the afternoon session of the yearly meeting Thursday, discloses the enormity of the personal ministry that is done throughout the various Quarterly Meetings. Here is the report in brief as submitted by the mission board:

| | |
|--|--------|
| No. of cottage prayer meetings | 1,028 |
| Children's meetings | 26 |
| Lectures | 14 |
| Conversions and renewals | 124 |
| No. of visits for mutual help | 3,157 |
| No. of visits on sick and aged | 8,040 |
| No. of local meetings | 233 |
| Visits to jail and county infirmary | 27 |
| Bible schools held | 6 |
| No. of pages of literature distributed | 79,468 |
| No. of flowers in bouquets distributed | 1,888 |
| Amount sent to Southland college | $750 |
| Calls and invitations to Bible schools | 200 |
| Meals to the sick | 70 |

Many boxes of clothing, provisions and medicine were sent to Oklahoma and other parts of the country to missionaries and those in need. Seven quilts were sent to the Orphans' home. Seventy-five bibles were distributed and 413 garments distributed locally.

It is estimated that the cash value of the clothing and fuel thus distributed was $1,266, while the total amount of cash used in this departmental work was $2,447.

During the period assigned to this department Folger P. Wilson of this city presided. A request for $25 for the work was asked and granted.

Two pleasing vocal selections were rendered by a quartet composed of Mesdames Clarence Hadley, O. C. Krone, Charles Neal and Walter Garver.

Francis Jenkins, of Wabash, was asked to speak in behalf of the work of home missions and in response she narrated many pathetic incidents in her personal experiences as a slum worker.

Mrs. Daisy Barr was called for and she gave a short and intensely interesting talk on the foreigners within our confines and she exerted the members of the society to take a greater interest in the welfare of the horde of foreigners entering our country annually.

Scanlon Speaks.

One of the most interesting temperance addresses ever delivered in Richmond was that of Prof. Charles Scanlon, formerly of the McAllister college, Minnesota, now Temperance secretary of the Presbyterian church. The address was given following the report of the temperance committee of Indiana Yearly Meeting. His canvass of the temperance situation disclosed his mastery of the facts in connection with the movement in this country. The speaker stated the liquor traffic is an unmitigated curse, and he left little opportunity for his hearers to differ with him so far as statistics and facts concerned. Prof. Scanlon was at no time abusive in his remarks but never the less he left no doubt in the minds of the audience as to his personal convictions.

The devotional services of Thursday evening were largely attended and the leaders were Truman Kenworthy and Mary Moon Meredith.

The peacock is not singular in his self admiration. Pigeons are so notorious for the same vice that it is, I am told, illegal to put a looking glass in a dove cot, as it would attract and retain the birds from the neighboring pigeon houses.—George J. Murray in London Spectator.
