

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

EDITED BY MISS ELIZABETH R. THOMAS.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

Beautiful in all of its appointments was the dinner party given Thursday at mid-day by Mrs. Harry Boggs at her home on Pearl street, in celebration of her birthday anniversary. The table presented an attractive appearance with its decorations of pink and white carnations. Among the guests were members of the Ladies Aid society of East Germantown. Places were arranged at the table for Mrs. Henry Ellason, Mrs. Charles Kocher, Master Forrest Kocher, Mrs. Fred Kocher, Mrs. Henry Willis, Mrs. Nat Willis, Mrs. James Boggs, Mrs. Chris Stidel, Mrs. Walsh Beck and Mrs. William Bear. COMMENCEMENT RECITAL.

The commencement recital to be given at Earlham college during gala week, under the direction of Miss Lucy Francisco promises to be a notable musical event.

TO ATTEND DANCE.

A number of the young people of this city expect to attend the Cambridge City high school commencement dance to be held Tuesday evening. Guests from Indianapolis, Rushville, New Castle, Anderson and Connersville are expected.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

By arrangements with Oscar Hammerstein, his protegee, Orville Harrold, the Muncie tenor, now studying and singing operatic parts in New York City, will be the star attraction of the Apollo club's annual concert in Muncie in June. Harrold is a member of this club and intervened with Hammerstein, to whom he is under contract, to allow him to appear again in his home city in concert, after his several years of absence.

DANCE THIS EVENING.

The members of the Kappa Alpha fraternity expect to give a dance this evening in the pavilion at Jackson's park. A number of the younger society folk will be in attendance.

CARD PARTY AT THE CLUB.

Thursday afternoon about fifty society women, members of the Country club met at the club house and enjoyed an afternoon at bridge. Mrs. Rudolph Leeds and Mrs. Robert Stimson were given the favors. A small admission fee was asked. The money will be used in buying linen and china for the club house. Next week a dance and card party will be features of the club's social schedule for the week.

TO MICHIGAN.

Mrs. William Klapp, Jr., accompanied by her father, Mr. Dolloff has gone to Niles, Michigan, to attend the funeral of a cousin.

JUST LAUGH.

While we are having such "horrid weather" as one woman shopper called it today, did you ever stop to think that perhaps if you laughed and laughed for a whole week, maybe things wouldn't seem so gloomy. Of course society is rather dull now on account of the inclement weather, as penguins which are usually held at this time of the season must be postponed. But then yesterday was a beautiful day and of course all enjoyed it, so think of the bright days coming and—laugh. Don't look gloomy; it doesn't pay.

RETURNED TODAY.

Miss Jessie Hadley, who has been in Phoenix, Arizona, during the winter months, arrived home today. While there she was the guest of Mrs. Barth (nee Miss Chessie Dennis) formerly of this city.

INVITED TO ATTEND.

Persons in this city are cordially invited to attend the ice-cream social to be given Saturday evening in Webster, Indiana. The proceeds will be used in defraying the Memorial Day expenses.

PARTY FOR VISITING GUESTS.

A feature of today's social schedule was the bridge party given this afternoon by Mrs. William Campbell at her home on East Main street, in honor of Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Kregel of Nashville, Tennessee, who are guests of Mrs. Henry Gennett.

DANCING SEASON OPENS.

Dancing parties seem to feature the social schedule at present and a number of charming affairs have been held. Just now the pavilion at Jackson's park seems to be the most popular place for holding such affairs. Monday evening Mr. Walter Steinkamp, Mr. Will Ward, Mr. Paul Connell and Mr. Harry Frankel will be hosts for a dance at the park. Piano and drums will furnish the dance music.

TO NOBLESVILLE.

Mr. H. Cameron Hines, a student at Earlham college has gone to his home in Noblesville to attend a dinner, given in celebration of his father's birthday anniversary.

FOR THE MAY FESTIVAL.

Women are busy shopping these days, in preparation for the May Festival, to be held Tuesday and Wednesday of next week in the coliseum. A number of handsome gowns will be worn adding to the brilliancy of the occasion. It is to be hoped that the weather man will be just a little lenient and give us beautiful weather.

HAS GONE TO CANTON.

Mrs. J. B. Baker of North Eleventh street went to Canton, Ohio, this afternoon, having been called by the serious illness of Mr. Hiram Shaub. Mrs. Baker is a sister of Mrs. Shaub. Mr. and Mrs. Shaub have a number of relatives and friends in this city, who will be grieved to learn of their trouble.

NO "COMET PARTIES."

What's the matter with "Comet parties"? Richmond people do not seem much enthused. A number of these parties have been given in Muncie, Anderson and Marion.

BRIDGE ON THE WANE.

London, May 20.—The rumor that the popularity of bridge is on the wane in London society comes as the best of news to ladies' made in England. Since the game became the rage they have lost one of their most valued perquisites, their mistress's cast-off gowns. A woman who has lost money at bridge soon has to search for means to pay her debts, and one of her first resources is to sell her discarded dresses instead of handing them over to her maid.

It has been ascertained that during the last eight years, since the bridge fever has been at its height, model gown establishments where second-hand dresses are bought from fashionable women and sold to actresses or middle-class women have trebled in number.

Of course, there are many who declare that the rumor that bridge is to be given up has no foundation. Bridge clubs seem to be in flourishing condition, and stakes get higher and higher, but the smart set is undoubtedly seeking a new diversion.

Several hostesses have told their friends that at their week-end parties no bridge is to be played, and that they intend to make billiards the successor to bridge. They say they are tired of having half their guests on bad terms with the other half because of squabbles over cards, and are even more tired of the difficulties of getting up dances and theatricals except among the very youngest set. Dressmakers, seeing which way the wind is blowing, are already advertising billiard wraps, dainty silk affairs to throw over the shoulders during the game. Last season they were announcing the latest thing in bridge blouses.

Another sign of the times is that at the London women's clubs the billiard instructors are now busy. Women who have not played for years are practicing, and those who had never learned to handle a cue are working hard to master the game.

COLE-KOHNE.

The Decatur Daily Democrat contains the following account of a Richmond man's wedding:

A very beautiful bride was Miss Ida Irene, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kohne, whose marriage to Mr. Charles G. Cole of Richmond took place this morning at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic church, the beautiful and impressive ceremony being performed by the Rev. Father Wilken in the presence of a large number of the friends of the young couple who thronged the church. The ushers were Frank Bremerkamp and Bernard Terwee, who led the bridal procession, which was an unusually pretty one. They were followed by the bridesmaids, the Misses Estella and Bertha Kohne, sisters of the bride and by the groomsmen, Clifford LaDelle and Lawrence Kleinhenz, the maid of honor, Miss Agnes Kohne, sister of the bride, and last the happy bride and groom. The bride, a lovely and modest young girl, was charming in a gown of white silk, with trimmings of valenciennes lace and dainty, pure lilies of the valley. Her head was crowned with a white hat, showered with the same flowers—lilies of the valley and she carried a white prayer book, with marked of the lilies. Miss Bertha Kohne was beautiful in a gown of palest blue, with spangled trimmings. Her large white picture hat was covered with the dainty, blue forget-me-nots, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses, while her sister, Miss Estella, wore a frock equally becoming and dainty, of yellow silk tissue, with trimmings of val and applique. To match this dress she wore a white hat trimmed with yellow butters and her shower bouquet was of yellow roses. Rose color over yellow satin, with white applique ornaments, was the charming costume of Miss Agnes, as maid of honor and she carried a basket of white and pink roses. The groom and his attendants were in the usual black attire. Master Raymond and Ambrose Kohne, brothers of the bride, served as acolytes. After the church ceremony the bridal party with a number of relatives and intimate friends repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding breakfast was served at 11:30 o'clock. The dining room and tables were decorated with cut flowers and the bride table, with its large wedding cake, was one of great beauty. The Misses Hazel and Mildred LaDelle, daintily gowned, served at the bride's table.

Among those in attendance from out of town were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cole and Mrs. Luke Bohn of Richmond, Mrs. Bertel and Miss Anna Cox of Fort Wayne. The young couple left today for a trip to the lake cities, including in their tour Detroit, Toledo, Tiffin and Cleveland and will be at home after June first at Richmond. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cole of Richmond and is a hustling young business man, with the hardware mercantile firm of Seanev & Brown at Richmond. He is known to all here as a young man of excellent qualities and for some time was with Schaub, Gottscheller & Co. of this city. The bride is a young lady of beautiful character and is known as one of the city's best young ladies. She served for several years as stenographer for the Ward Fence company. The young couple will be attended through life with the very best wishes of all.

STOMACHS REPAIRED
Relieves Distress in Five Minutes—Guaranteed to Cure Indigestion, or Money Back.

Let Mrs. Griffith tell you about Mi-na, the greatest prescription for stomach troubles ever written:

For years I have doctored for acute gastritis, but only received slight benefit, and had to be careful what I ate. But, thanks to Mi-na stomach tablets, I can now eat anything. Last Christmas, after partaking of a hearty turkey dinner, I was seized with an attack of acute indigestion and the doctor worked over me for hours before I got relief. He paid me eight visits before I could say I was well enough to sit up. But since then I have taken Mi-na tablets, and I have not been troubled since. Before using Mi-na I had attacks about every month."—Mrs. Ida Griffith, 1213 C St., Washington, D. C., July 5, 1909.

Mi-na stomach tablets are sold by druggists everywhere and at L. H. Fife's for 50 cents a large box. They are guaranteed to cure indigestion, sour stomach, belching gas, dizziness, biliousness, heaviness, or any stomach ailment.

Few people realize that for most diseases the bed and it alone is the greatest, surest, quickest cure the world and ages of science have yet discovered or bestowed. People as a rule, look upon going to bed for sickness as a necessary and unavoidable consequence of sickness, instead of looking upon it as they should, as being the very first and greatest part of the cure of the case.—New York Press.

This Free Remedy Helps Sickly Babies

Babies and children suffer mostly from the stomach. There is something wrong with the milk or with the eggs or with the minor articles of food, for it doesn't take much to disturb a child's stomach. One thing the mother can always be sure of and that is that no harm can come from giving a small dose of a mild laxative, for it is sure to be better off for it. You know your own feeling of lightness and ease when that function has been performed, so how much more important is it to the child?

Watch carefully that your child does not become constipated, for if it does not have at least one or two movements of the bowels each day it is constipated. From constipation comes headache, a feeling of oppression, bad breath, nausea, sour stomach, etc. In these troubles you can obtain nothing better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Give it in the small doses prescribed for children and watch the sickly child become healthy and well, full of appetite and energy.
