Sealed bids are used in auctioning property in Japan. There is no shouting. The auctioneer announces to the audience that he has such and such a piece of property for sale and invites bids. Those who wish to bid write their bids and names on slips of paper. The paper is folded and put in a box. When the auctioneer sees no more bids coming he opens the box and sorts out the bids. The highest bid takes the property.

same, if it not done within that time it will be certified to the auditor and collected as other taxes.

The contract was given W. E. Jones. Mr. Jones has ordered the oil and is making his wagon with the expectation of beginning work next Monday or Tuesday.

U. S. SQUADRON IS IN DANISH WATERS
(National News Association)
Copenhagen, May 26.—King Frederick has taken a personal interest in the arrangements for the entertainment of the officers and men of the American squadron during its five days' visit to Copenhagen. The squadron, consisting of the Louisiana, flagship of the Kansas, New Hampshire and South Carolina, is due to reach port tonight. Features of the entertainment program will include an audience of state and a banquet to the officers given by the King, a ball given by the Minister of Marine and excursions to near-by resorts for the men of the squadron.

NEW PARIS, OHIO.
New Paris, Ohio, May 26.—Wednesday the county commissioners, surveyor and viewers were at work assessing the benefits and damages on the proposed new road along the creek by Thomas Brawley's and Henry Bragg's north of town.

Next Sunday evening at the M. E. church Rev. McCobb will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the New Paris high school. Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian church the commencement exercises will occur. President Kelly of Earlham will deliver the address and music will be furnished by a picked orchestra headed by Miss Dorothy Kirkpatrick. Miss Kirkpatrick will also give a solo with Miss Carrie Haller at the piano. Tickets on sale Monday at Hahn's store.

Rev. Minnie Colgrove of Greenville will preach at the Universalist church Sunday June 4, at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Everybody cordially invited to attend and hear this talented woman.

Dr. Beach of Cedar Springs, informs us that he is rapidly getting things in shape and expects to throw the entire resort open to the public on June 1. He has engaged all his help and most of them are now on the grounds busily engaged in putting things in order for the opening day. Naturally New Paris people wish him all the success in the world.

William Lawder, Jr. of Dayton, is home on a short visit.

Miss Mary Melody was in Eaton Tuesday.

E. H. Young is helping in Hahn's store while the latter is attending I. O. O. F. grand lodge.

Miss Cora Hawley will have charge of the library in the absence of Carrie Whitaker this summer.

Miss Carrie Whitaker has gone to Wheeling, W. Va., where she will spend the summer with Mrs. Myrtle Guild.

The council met in regular session and took up the matter of oiling the streets of the village. Three petitions generally signed by property owners on Main, Washington and Cherry streets were presented and read. A resolution was then read and adopted under the terms of which the streets will be oiled and the cost assessed against the property owners who will have ten days in which to pay the
