AN AUTUMN FIELD.
How rich and full in June's all-perfectness
Was the lush grass, which in this ample field,
Grew riotously glad! How prodigal the yield
Of every flower whose absence had made less
The bounteous whole! Now, where that sweet excels
Abounded to itself has bareness sealed.
The thriftless sods, left like a glorious shield
Of all its wrought and painted loveliness.

Yet not quite, for here and there behold
A flower like those which made the summer sweet,
Puts forth some meagre tint of red or gold,
To make the bareness seem more complete.
Such overflow of life, such wealth of bliss;
Now for remembrance and endurance—
—John White Chadwick.

AUTUMN.

Now does man square his shoulders, accelerate his pace and fill his lungs with the cool air tinged with the tonic of the North.

His blood courses more swiftly, his nerves are steeled, his muscles work with renewed energy, and his brain is alert once more.

Above him the vast, distant azure dome sparkles like wine in the sun. The sweltering summer of his discontent is made glorious autumn, the true season of the children of the temperate zone. The stretches of lovely woodland within easy reach of the city dwellers will don yellow and russet and flaming tints so adorned by nature lovers and beneath nature will retire into restful silence; more intimate, more blissful that her bustling summer heyday.

The voices of the birds will be hushed; the annual wonder of their migration will once more wing its way across the sky. Its full magic lies at our door, ours on the day of rest at the cost of half an hour's travel. Indian summer will be here soon. We are come into our own again, Nature's incomparable recompense for the discomforts of the summer.

LUNCHEON AT CLUB.

One of the most attractive social events for today was the pretty fall luncheon given at one o'clock at the Country club by Mrs. Paul Comstock, when she took this means of entertaining in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Howard Bixby, of St. Paul, Minnesota, who is her guest for a time. Goldenrod, asters and other fall flowers were used in appointing the table. Covers were laid for twelve guests. A delicious luncheon in several courses was served. The guests were Mrs. James Carr, Mrs. Fred Carr, Mrs. Milton Craighead, Mrs. Wilbur Hibberd, Mrs. Jessie Allen, Mrs. Miles Bland, Mrs. Louis Quinn, of Chicago, Mrs. Ray K. Shively, Mrs. Elizabeth Comstock, and Miss Margaret Starr. After luncheon the afternoon was spent playing bridge.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Last evening Miss Nelle Wigmore delightfully entertained a few friends at her home in South Seventh street. Music and games were the features of the evening, after which a two course luncheon was daintily served. Later a sack was carried into the room, from which a tiny kitten escaped, with a note tied about its neck, signifying that the cat was out of the bag. After a scramble the kitten was finally captured by Mrs. Grace Myrick and on opening the note she read the following announcement to the expectant guests:

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wigmore announce the engagement of their daughter Nelle Edith to Mr. Rae R. Meeks, of Columbus, Ohio. The wedding will take place Wednesday, October thirtieth at the St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knollenberg, Mrs. Eliza Juergens, Mr. and Mrs. John Knollenberg, Mr. John Runge, Miss Edith Runge, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Benfeldt, Mr. and Mrs. Will Knollenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Feltman, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gardner, Miss Helen and Mary Louise Gardner, Miss Adelaide Benfeldt, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foreman, Miss Caroline and Miss Josephine Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Runge, Masters Paul and John Runge, Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, Miss Cora Thompson, Mr. Omar Brinkley, Mr. Edward Thompson, Miss Clara Thompson, Mr. Everett Halsey, Mr. Robert Thompson, Miss Margaret Politz, Mr. Chauncey Cranor, Mr. and Mrs. Will McLaughlin, Miss Alberta Knollenberg, Mr. Augustus Beeson, of Detroit, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cox, Mr. Raymond, Mr. Myron and Mr. William Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mott and Master Kenneth Mott.

HERPICIDE

Nearly everyone has dandruff, and must reconcile themselves to the idea of becoming completely bald or resort to the use of Newbro's Herpicide. The manufacturers have absolute faith in Herpicide to kill the germ and remove all traces of dandruff. So perfect is this belief that all dealers are instructed to sell the preparation with a "money back" agreement.

Such supreme confidence is the best evidence in the world of the merit of Herpicide. They know the result. Used as directed, Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ that causes dandruff and keeps the hair from coming out. It stops itching of the scalp, which is so disagreeable.

Send 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet to the Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Michigan.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Applications may be obtained at good barber shops.

delightful and charming social events of the day. Pink roses and ferns, unusually pretty at this season of the year, were used in arranging the rooms where the guests were so hospitably entertained. The party frocks worn by the women added to the beauty and effectiveness of the event. Bridge was played at three tables. A favor went to Mrs. Sadler and there were also two other favors. After the afternoon's pleasures the guests were served to a delicious luncheon at the small tables. Those bidden to meet Mrs. Sadler were Mrs. Richard Schlinger, Mrs. Clarence Mayhew, Mrs. Joseph Stevenson, Mrs. C. C. Allen, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Wineberg, Mrs. John Hawekotte, Mrs. William Seeker, Mrs. Ira Swisher, Mrs. Oliver T. Knode and Mrs. O. S. Nixon.

MILLINERY OPENINGS.

A number of the millinery shops held their openings today. Several of the shops, however, will hold their openings Friday and Saturday. The society editor visited a number of the shops and found many beautiful creations in trimmed and untrimmed hats and also in the pattern bonnets. At Mrs. Allison's shop in North Eighth street, the collection was a choice one. She is showing a number of beautiful beaver hats with large brims and trimmed in plumes. One was especially pretty, being white edged with gray and trimmed in gray and white plumes. Some of the plumes were caught gracefully under the brim and extended to the shoulder. The hat was a beauty and no doubt will catch the eye of many women. She had many other pretty shapes in the beaver and velvet. Her street hats and tailored bonnets were also attractive. Miss Austin, Miss Porter and Miss Klute will have their openings later.

GIVEN A SURPRISE.

A pleasant surprise was given Mr. Claude Addleman last evening at his home in West Pearl street by the members of the Modern Woodmen degree team. The evening was spent socially after which a luncheon was served. Mrs. Addleman was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Roy Robinson and Mrs. Wangman.

HAVE RETURNED.

Misses Rose, Mary and Katherine Sharkey have returned from Chicago where they went on business and also to visit friends and relatives.

UNGUARDED TONGUES.

If the origin of the greatest troubles, the most disagreeable episodes, the most deep-seated and long-continued animosities in every town, village or community were traced it would be found in perhaps the majority of cases that light words, idle gossip, harsh wit and satirical speeches were the cause of more unhappiness and more hatred than all other causes put together. If it were considered how great is the injury done by evil speaking, malicious tattling and silly gossip all but the hopelessly malignant would exercise the greatest care over their speech which relates to the good names of others. It is a pity but men enjoy gossip just as much as women and it is not confined at all to the "weaker sex."

Thinking lightly one might suppose that ill deeds would reach further and strike deeper than ill words.
But it is not so. An ill deed may only scratch the skin, while ill words sink their barbs to the very heart.

Light and idle words have embittered many lives, wrecked more homes, and excited angrier passions than has the bullet, and is constantly the cause of the greatest heart burning, trouble, distress and despair to those innocent of wrong doing or wrong intent.

Jealousy, envy, malice are wilful murderers, but the light word, spoken without thought or evil intent, is a deadly blunderer that often strikes deeply and fatally in the back of a trusting friend.

There is nothing more detestable than deliberate slander that springs from envy and malice. Yet because it so often over-reaches and because it usually bears an unmistakable brand upon its face, it does less harm than does mere carelessness of speaking that good nature lends wing.

Impertinence and curiosity, an itch of talking and meddling in the affairs of other people, a desire not to seem ignorant of what is going on among other people, continually impel the idle and thoughtless to let slip from their tongues, poisoned words that their own judgment would not sanction were they consulted.

Gossiping and the habit of detraction come largely from the desire to talk when the mind is empty, and the persons and things with which shallow persons are the best acquainted are neighbors and their doings.

It is the man or woman of standing, who speaks carefully but now and then inadvertently drops an unkind word of another, who does most harm, for his or her utterances are taken as unquestioned facts. It is he who has character and reputation of his own who should be more careful of how he speaks of others.

SEVERAL PARTIES.

Within the next week or so several charming social events will be given in honor of Miss Myral Weeghman who is to be married Wednesday, October the second. The wedding will be a most charming event.

FOR CHICAGO.

Mrs. Frank Crichton left this afternoon for Chicago where she will take several lessons in dancing before opening her dancing classes in this city.

FOR DETROIT.

Miss Hilda Steweke has gone to Detroit, Michigan where she will visit her brothers, Mr. Walter and Mr. Otto Steweke.

RETURNED HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schattel returned home today from a two weeks vacation in Chicago, Milwaukee and Janesville, Wis.

TO NEW YORK.

Mr. B. C. Emerson of North Eleventh street, left this morning for New York on a business trip.

FELTMAN'S FALL STYLES ARE DIFFERENT

FEEL SHAKY, BILIOUS, HEADACHY, OR CONSTIPATED? TAKE CASCARETS

Sick headache! Always trace them to lazy liver, delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or a sick stomach. Poisonous, constipated matter, gases and bile generated in the bowels, instead of being carried out of the system, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, sickening headache.

Cascarets remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the bile and constipation poison move on out of the bowels. The effect is almost instantaneous. Ladies whose sensitive organisms are especially prone to sick headaches, need not suffer, for they can be quickly cured by Cascarets. One taken tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10c box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel bright and cheerful for months. Children need Cascarets too. They love them because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

FOR COMMISSIONER

Nelson W. Weaver, a farmer of Dalton township, has announced his candidacy for commissioner from the western district, subject to the Progressive nomination.

Few, if any, medicines, have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.

STEEPLEJACK WINDERS

A dispatch from Lawrenceburg says that George C. Winders, the Cambridge City steeplejack, who is well known in Richmond, fell from the top of a forty-foot smokestack he was painting and escaped with slight injuries. Winders was smoking a cigarette and the rope that held the small scaffold on which he was working caught fire and before he discovered it the fire burned the rope in two. Winders turned several somersaults while falling. Rolling another cigarette, he rigged up another scaffold and finished the work.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write our Association and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.
