DREAMS.

Our sweet illusions only die
Fulfilling love's sure prophecy;
And every wish for better things
An undreamed beauty nearer brings.

For fate is servitor of love;
Desire and hope and loving prove
The secret of immortal youth
And nature cheats us into truth.

O kind allurers wisely sent,
Beguiling with benign intent,
Still move us, through divine unrest,
To seek the loveliest and the best.

Ere long the fleeting glimpse of good
Shall rest in full beatitude;
And more than all to earth denied
Shall greet us on the other side.

—Whittier.

ENTERTAINED LADIES.

The ladies of the Reid Memorial Presbyterian church were entertained in a delightful manner yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. McKesell, 306 Randolph street. The afternoon was spent socially and with needlework. A musical program featured the afternoon. It was arranged for by Miss Ida McPherson, pianist, Mrs. G. F. Gault, vocalist, Miss Legg, and Miss Hagelman of Cambridge City. After the program a social hour followed. A luncheon was served.

ENTERTAINED GUESTS.

Miss Nora Holthouse gave a prettily appointed dinner last evening at her home in North Eighth street. Flowers and ferns were used in appointing the table. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Murray and children and Dr. Dunham.

ATTENDED DANCE.

A number of the young people enjoyed the assembly party given last evening in the Odd Fellow's hall by Mrs. Frank Crichton, after the class had received its instructions. Piano and drums furnished the dance music.

GET A TEN CENT BOX OF CASCARETS.

Insures you for months against Headache, Biliousness, Constipation or a Bad Stomach.

Put aside—just once—the Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oils or purgative waters, which merely force a passageway through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage or alimentary organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your inside organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver, and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, constipated tongue, indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

Among the dancers were Miss Blanch Bayer, Miss Mona Porter, Miss Cornelia Border, Miss Gladys Bailey, Miss Grace Kelly, Miss Russell, Miss Elizabeth Bailey, Miss Hazel Thomas, Miss Lucy Snyder, Miss Mary Canby, Miss Caroline Weaver, Miss Rose Ferling, Miss Florence Burgess, Miss Margaret Wickemeyer, Miss Meta Pfafflin, Miss Ruth Pennell, Miss Dorothy Land, Miss Ruth Thistlethwaite, Mr. Edward Hollan, Mr. Paul Miller, Mr. Chauncey Edgerton, Mr. Walter Stevens, Mr. Henry Glick, Mr. Carl Schermann, Mr. Frank Genn, Mr. Ernest Lehman, Mr. Grant Fry, Mr. George Weaver, Mr. Harry McLean, Mr. Paul McCarthy, Mr. Willard Kaufman, Mr. Hilton Long, Mr. Robert Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Craighead.

TO GOSHEN.

Mrs. S. E. Beery has gone to Goshen, Indiana, where she will remain over Sunday.

TO VISIT HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Morris, daughter of Miss Helen Morris, and Mr. and Mrs. Vandergrast and family, will motor here today from Shelbyville and spend over Sunday with Mrs. Buell at her home in North Ninth street.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION.

Mr. R. P. Peelle and Mr. King have gone to Cincinnati where they are attending the Cost Congress and Exposition of Printing machinery.

ENTERTAINED GUESTS.

Mrs. Charles Holtkamp entertained last evening at her home in North Third street, for her nieces, Mrs. Charles Mathews and little daughter, June, and Mrs. J. Campbell Gore of Cincinnati, formerly Miss Irene Ray, of this city, now visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Ray in North A street.

MEETS MONDAY.

A meeting of the Dorcas society will be held Monday afternoon with Mrs. Henry Kluter at her home in South Fifteenth street. All members are invited to attend.

IS HERE.

Mrs. Lois Farnham Horn of Bryn Mawr, near Philadelphia, arrived today and will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Farnham of North Twelfth street, for some time. Mr. Farnham's condition remains about the same. He has been seriously ill for some time.

A GUEST HERE.

Mrs. Carl Bernhardt of Indianapolis is visiting kinspeople and friends in this city.

TOURIST CLUB.

The initial meeting of the year for the Tourist club was held Friday evening with Mrs. Florence Lodwick at her home in North Tenth street. The program as announced yesterday was given without change. There were several guests, among them Mrs. A. F. Wyman of Florida, Miss Mary Wiggins, and Mrs. Bowser and Mrs. Heatwole with Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Lemon. After the program the time was spent socially. Refreshments were served. The club will meet again in a fortnight.

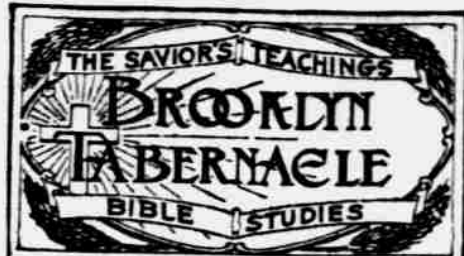

MET FRIDAY.

Mrs. J. M. Coate was hostess Friday afternoon for a meeting of the ladies' aid society of the First Presbyterian church. About twenty-two members were present. A short business session was held after which the hours were spent socially and with needlework. Mrs. Edward Meyers sang a beautiful solo.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Enos Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." THE BEAUTIFUL.

Beauty is God's handwriting, a wayside sacrament. Welcome it, then, in every fair face, every fair sky, every fair flower, and be sure that yet gayer meadows and yet bluer skies await thee in the world to come.—Charles Kingsley.

"IT IS I, BE NOT AFRAID."
Mark vi, 45-56—Oct. 6.
"Strapless Jesus a spoke unto them, saying, Be of good cheer, it is I; be not afraid."
Matthew xiv, 27.

TODAY'S STUDY shows us how interested people become in anything that will relieve them of ailments, which cause our race to be, as St. Paul described it, "a groaning creation." The crowds continued to gather wherever Jesus went, partly for hearing, partly from curiosity, and partly because the Message that He gave was one of consolation. He was not forever blaming them for not keeping the Law. He was continually expressing sympathy for their weaknesses, and encouraging them to "go and sin no more."

After the feeding of the five thousand, Jesus urged His disciples to return to the other side of the Lake. He dismissed the multitude and went into the solitude of the hills for prayer. It is noteworthy that nearly all of the Great Teacher's prayers are brief. Whenever He wished to make long prayers He went to the Father by Himself. Undoubtedly this would be a good example for all of His followers.

Long prayers are frequently a weariness to the flesh, and are likely to contain vain repetitions, or to be attempts to instruct the Lord "It is I; be not afraid!" which He understands much better than do His children.

Walking on the Sea.
The disciples experienced contrary winds. In the night they saw what they supposed to be a spirit manifestation walking on the water near their boat. They cried out, for all saw it, and then they heard a voice saying, "It is I, be not afraid." Jesus got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. To their amazement, for they had already forgotten the lesson of the feeding of the five thousand with the five loaves and two fishes.

In addition to seeing in this a further manifestation of Divine power, we may see a spiritual lesson. After the Master's ascension, the disciples were alone in the midst of a contrary people, and found progress difficult. This helped them to remember the Master's ability to come to them on the troubled seas, and how His coming brought peace.

St. Matthew gives an additional feature of this lesson not recorded by St. Mark. He tells us that when St. Peter learned that it was Jesus who walked upon the sea, he requested the Lord to sanction his walking on the water to Him. The Lord consented, and St. Peter had the courage to make the effort. Had his faith continued, doubtless he would have been sustained, but the Lord's rule with His people seems to be, "According to thy faith be it unto thee." We are not to encourage credulity in ourselves or others, but we are to remember that faith is very precious in the Lord's sight.

In St. Peter's case it was entirely proper that he should attempt to go to the Lord, because the effort had been sanctioned. But when he saw the boisterous waves his faith failed, and he cried, "Save, or I perish!" How true it is of all God's people that they would like to do some wonderful things, to show their faith in the Lord! And how like St. Peter's are their experiences! They would utterly fail did not the Lord interpose for their rescue.

St. Peter the Teachable.
Much has been said respecting St. Peter's rashness. The criticism is to some extent justified, but the Master loved him greatly on account of his zeal and energy. Although he was the oldest of the Apostles he was evi-

MOTHERHOOD SUGGESTIONS

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

An Appeal to Wives

You know the terrible affliction that comes to many homes from the result of a drinking husband or son. You know of the money wasted on "Drink" that is needed in the home to purchase food and clothing. ORRINE has saved thousands of drinking men. It is a home treatment and can be given secretly. Your money will be refunded if, after a trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only $1.00 a box. Come in and get a free booklet and let us tell you of the good ORRINE is doing.
A. G. Luken & Co., 628-630 Main St.

One of the most tenacious of them. Of his mistakes he made a mirror, and thus, learning to know himself, he was safeguarded through the many dangers natural to his temperament; and he stands forth in the Scriptures as one of the noblest of the Apostles.

There must have been a strain continually upon the Great Teacher and Healer, for He was continually expending His vitality. In healing the sick, virtue, or vitality, went out from Him, and all His public teaching cost vitality, especially when He addressed multitudes. Thus was fulfilled in part the saying of the Prophet respecting Him, "Himself took our sicknesses and bore our infirmities."

Nevertheless, we find Him ever alert about the Father's business, and instructing all who gave evidence of being, or of becoming, children of God.

When the ship reached shore the people recognized Him and began to carry the sick to where Jesus was. And whosoever he entered, into villages, cities or country, they besought Him that these might touch if it were but the corner of His garment; "and as many as touched Him were made whole."

Harpooning a Whale.
The method of catching whales in southern seas is vividly described by our consul general at Buenos Aires. He says: "The harpoon used in whaling is a deadly weapon of marvelous intricacy. It is shot from a cannon, which can be focused with great rapidity at any angle from its pedestal on the specially constructed ship. On penetrating the body of the whale the point of the harpoon explodes, and its four hooks spread out into the flesh, securely holding the shaft of the harpoon, which ends in a ring carrying a strong cable. Held by this cable, the struggling whale tows the boat after it at a terrific speed until forced by its wounds to succumb."

Fortune Exalts Day Laborer to Prosperity and Gives Clerk an Estate

Fortune played in the hands of two local Richmond persons lately. John W. Smith, 105 South Seventeenth street, returned yesterday from England where he accepted a large estate left him by a relative. Ed. Lucas, formerly connected with the Richmond Home Telephone company, is now in Chicago enjoying an estate which came to him two weeks ago.

A Quick Change.
One week ago Ed Lucas was digging pole holes and doing flunky work for the Richmond Home Telephone company.

Today he is in Chicago managing an estate estimated to be worth $75,000, exclusive of heavy property holdings in the Windy city.

He can enjoy all the sweets of life, excepting alcoholic beverages. He is prohibited from their use by a clause in the will which insists that the beneficiary be a total abstainer.

Lucas was called to Chicago a week ago to attend the funeral of his sister.

When her will was probated Lucas found himself the sole heir to her real estate and money. One large flat alone, Lucas has written to his friends here, is more than enough to give him a monthly income twenty times as great as the wages he received from the telephone company.

Lucas says he will lead the life of a retired gentleman in Chicago.

Smith's Fortune.
About two months ago J. W. Smith received a letter from a law firm in England apprising him that he was the sole beneficiary under a will. Smith did not believe the letter and replied that he had five brothers in England, all of whom would be entitled to a share in the estate.

On the day that he received a reply stating that he was the sole beneficiary under the English law, Smith left Richmond for England. He returned yesterday. He was out of the city today, but it was learned that the estate which he inherited is a considerable one. He is a railway postal clerk.
