

NEWS OF SOCIETY

The annual dinner at the country club last evening was unusually well attended and optimistic reports were given by the different officers and committee chairmen of the club. Charles McGuire, retiring president, presided at the meeting. A dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, at which covers were laid for 70 persons.

Officers elected for the coming year were Percy Sprague, president; Walter Engle, secretary; Harry Doan, treasurer. The president will appoint chairmen of the standing committees later.

Percy Sprague was announced as winner in the golf championship tournament and will have his name inscribed on the club cup which remains at the club. The president's cup was presented to Walter Engle, winner in that tournament. Mrs. Paul Comstock, the present woman champion of the club, responded to a call for a speech, urging more women to take part next summer in the tournament.

Mr. McGuire paid a beautiful tribute to Lieut. Spangler, member of the club, who died while in military service. Burton Carr also gave an appreciation of Lieut. Spangler for his patriotism and sacrifice he made. He made a motion that a tree in memory of Lieutenant Spangler, be planted on the club grounds near the tee south of the club house. The motion was unanimously accepted.

William Dudley Foulke gave a brief eulogy of former president Theodore Roosevelt. Mr. Foulke has known Roosevelt since 1884, he said, and he believes him to be the greatest leader America has had since Abraham Lincoln. He gave a number of reminiscences of his personal relations with Mr. Roosevelt when the latter was president and Mr. Foulke was a civil service commissioner in Washington.

Short talks were made by S. E. Swayne, James M. Carr, John M. Lantz, and George Seidel, former presidents of the club. Dr. Charles S. Bond and Rudolph G. Leeds responded to a call for a speech. The retiring officials were complimented upon their efficient work during the past year and the splendid financial condition of the club was gratifying to all members. Mrs. R. G. Leeds was complimented for her efficient work during the year as chairman of the social committee.

The total membership of the club is 285, according to reports last evening. The service flag bears 37 stars, one of which is sold for Lieut. Spangler. Total receipts for the year were $3,643.48. Harry Thornburg, retiring treasurer gave a detailed report of the club finances.

Ben Bartel, chairman of the house committee gave a short report of the condition of the house, value of its furnishings and articles which must be purchased during the coming year. Reports showed that the cafe of the club made a profit of $195.80 during the year.

The Loyal Helpers met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Harry Landis at her home. Twelve pajama suits for the Red Cross were completed yesterday. All meetings of the club will be held at the Landis home this year, the three machines having been moved there recently. The meeting next week will begin the pajama suit drive at 1:30 o'clock so that more work may be accomplished. Refugee garments, which are so badly needed by the Red Cross, will be made, and all women of the community are urged to assist in this work.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp will give their regular assembly dance this evening in the L. O. O. F. hall at 9 o'clock. The balcony will be open to visitors as usual.

Officers of the Woman's Relief Corps were installed yesterday afternoon in the post rooms following a chicken dinner which was served at noon. Mrs. Maud Vogelonsong was the installing officer, and Mrs. Mary White installed the officers. The officers were: President, Mrs. Emma Reed; vice president, Mrs. Laura Caxton; second vice president, Mrs. Hilda Ellis; treasurer, Mrs. Francis Davis; secretary, Mrs. Carrie Ponier; conductor, Mrs. Mary Roger; assistant conductor, Mrs. Flora Penor; guard, Mrs. Mary Mitchell; assistant guard, Mrs. Annie McDvitt; chaplain, Mrs. Nellie Meyers; first correspondent, Mrs. Harriet Wignore; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Mary Austin, and musician, Mrs. Maud Vogelonsong. The color bearers are Mrs. Della Fenis, Mrs. Etta Theurer, Mrs. Phenia Robinson and Mrs. Martha Reber. The corps will meet next Thursday afternoon for the regular meeting.

The U. C. T. social club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. George Hamilton at her home, 201 North Seventh street. Important business matters will be discussed and all members are urged to be present. Red Cross sewing will be a feature of the afternoon.

Eighteen members of the Do Your Bit club held an all day meeting yesterday with Mrs. Jennie Diehl at her home on the Middleboro pike. Lunch was served at noon. The day was spent in knitting for the Red Cross. The club decided to adopt two Belgian children. Mrs. Crump of Richmond, was a guest of the club. The meeting next week will be with Mrs. Jane Eldridge on the Middleboro pike, at which time both knitting and sewing will be done.

Miss Eva M. King will go to Dayton to spend the week end with Miss Lena Weisbrod.

WITH THOSE IN ARMY AND NAVY

This column, containing news of Richmond and Wayne county soldiers and sailors, will appear daily in the Palladium. Contributions will be welcomed.

Sergeant A. J. Hicks of the 19th Aero Squadron with the American Expeditionary Forces mailed recently the December 11th issue of "Flights and Landings," the official "Homeward Bound" edition of the Seventh Aviation Instruction Corps to the Richmond Y. M. C. A.

The "Flights and Landings" is an American publication edited by the enlisted men and officers of the Puy de Dome Section, France. It is published on Sunday of each week.

A strong editorial addressed especially to those men who will enter German territory appears in this issue of the paper as a general order and urges the men to enter the country not as despoilers but upholding the faith and honor of America.

Sylvester Lamb of Greensfork, has received word that his son Orville Lamb was wounded severely before the signing of the armistice. Two other sons of his were fighting in France. Charles Lamb was killed in action some time ago. Emmett Lamb writes that he is well.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Smith of 547 North Nineteenth street have word from their son, Ray J. Smith, of the U. S. S. Francisco, saying he has been in Portland, England, but is now in the United States.

"We were in the North," he writes, "laying mines. There were ten other ships with us and we had some exciting experiences, as three out of every six would blow up when we would sink them. They sure made some noise too, but we got a bunch of U-boats just the same."

"We started from Scotland on December 1 to Portland, England. On the five days of liberty, we were supposed to leave for the states on December 16, but there were sixty cases of 'flu' broke out on Monday and they were sent to the hospital so we did not get off until the 17th. Then when we got started out we hit a storm and got short of coal so we went for the Azores which took us five days. Then we had to land there until after Christmas and coal the ship."

"You need not worry about me now, as we are on this side and having a good time. I will not get a furlough until about July."

Cornel Wilwood Shultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shultz of Gaar Road has received his honorable discharge from the Balloon section at Port Omaha. Corporal Shultz is visiting in Richmond before returning to Sparks, Kansas, where he is in business.

M. B. Goldfarb, former recruiting officer here, wrote recently to Frank Wilson, superintendent of mails at the postoffice, saying that he would soon go aboard the U. S. S. Greer.

"I could see that by the ending of the war the Armed Guard would cease to exist. So I threw out my feet for a good ship and I think I landed it. I expect to remain on active duty in the navy until February 5, 1924."

"My ship, the U. S. S. Greer is now being built and will be commissioned near the first of the year."

"Am now at Newport examining and making torpedoes going to the ship. I am also picking men for my department. Take it from me, it is just like old times to monkey around one of these torpedoes."

"Our prospective captain is spoken of in highest terms by his old crew, so we are all looking forward to having a good ship."

Sergeant Jesse M. Baker, who has been stationed at Toul, France, is visiting Mrs. R. P. Strohm of North Third street. Sergt. Baker's home is at Sulphur Springs. He has been in service for a number of months and was sent to France in April. He was a member of the 74th Coast artillery, and saw action in France. He has been honorably discharged.

My skin has certainly improved since Resinol. Cleared those blemishes. Undoubtedly the only kind of beauty worth having, comes from a clear healthy skin. Red, rough, pimply skins—skins that itch and burn—those that are subject to abrasions of an embarrassing character, can usually be treated most successfully with Resinol Ointment.

Skin troubles are often the result of neglect. When your skin regains its natural beauty, keep it clear and healthy with Resinol Soap. At all druggists.

POPE GIVES WILSON MOSAIC REPLICA OF RENI'S FAMOUS PAINTING OF ST. PETER

"The Crucifixion of St. Peter" by Guido Reni.

During President Wilson's recent visit to the Vatican Pope Benedict presented him with a handsome mosaic reproduction of Guido Reni's famous painting, "The Crucifixion of St. Peter."

Many Vocations Are Represented in New General Assembly

(By Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 10.—From a vocational standpoint both the house and senate of the seventy-first Indiana general assembly, which opened Thursday, are composed of cosmopolitan memberships. The occupations of forty-three representatives and nine senators are not listed on the calendars thus far printed, but of the remainder, the members who practice law far outnumber those of any other trade or profession.

Among the trades the carpenters, plumbers, miners, locomotive engineers and telegraphers are represented by one or more legislators, while business and professional life numbers among its followers attorneys, manufacturers, bankers, farmers, merchants, real estate dealers, coal operators, editors, contractors, funeral directors, monument dealers and others. The numerical strength of vocations represented follows:

Occupation	Senate	House
Attorneys	20	18
Manufacturers	3	1
Bankers	1	3
Farmers	7	12
Merchants	3	4
Stockraisers	1	0
Real Estate Dealers	1	3
Telegraphers	1	0
Coal Operators	1	0
Editors	2	2
Contractors	1	2

Representatives Walter J. Behmer, Logansport, is the locomotive engineer; Charles J. Buchanan, Indianapolis, the only funeral director; Howard Cann, Frankfort, the monument dealer.

Celery King When Feverish

Don't make the mistake of bothering with uncertain remedies for Celery King, a purely vegetable formula made into a palatable tea, is nature's best remedy for constipation, upset stomach, coated tongue and sick headache. It's the same old remedy that thousands swear by and costs only a few cents for a generous package. Take it freely and give it to the little ones when cross and feverish.

er James I. Day, East Chicago, the carpenter; Charles A. Johnson, Gus City, minister; Richard Lowe, Cravensville, U. S. pension agent; John W. Vinesburg, North Manchester, plumber and well digger; John T. O'Neill, Terre Haute, miner; and J. Leonard Axy, Florenceburg, the only veterinarian. Representative Ira Kessler, Miami county, and David A. Rothrock, professor of mathematics in Indiana university are the two members of the teaching profession.

Until the year 1874 the Japanese used to vaccinate on the tip of the nose.
