HARVARD, PRINCETON WITH CHANCES EVEN, WAGE BATTLE TODAY

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Nov. 11 .- Eastern football begins to reach its climax today at Cambridge, Mass., when the first of the "Big Three" contests is played between Harvard and Princeton. The outcome generally is regarded as a toss- up with few of the experts wil:ing to risk their reputations by predicting the winner.

On previous form, Harvard appears to shade the tiger, but in the human fighting equivalent there is no choice. The Crimson, among its victims numbers Holy Cross, Dartmouth, Centre and Florida, while Princeton's main record was established by victories over Colgate, Maryland, Swarthmore and Chicago.

Yale, the other member of the "Big Three," will toy with Maryland today in preparation for its tussle with the Tiger next Saturday. Maryland, one of the "big little fellows," already has been beaten by Princeton, Penna., North Carolina and Virginia Poly, so little trouble is aticipated by the Blue
