Coate, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Knode, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Comstock.

Mrs. Dudley Elmer and Mrs. Eliza-beth Williams will be hostesses for a luncheon-bridge at the Country club Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Florence Bond, of North Tenth street, will entertain a few guests at 4 o'clock tea Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen D. Hole are giv-ing a reception on Wednesday evening, Jan. 3, at 8 o'clock, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Purdy. The guests will be local alumni of Earlham college who have been graduated since Dr. Purdy became a member of the fac-ulty, together with their husbands and wives, local members of the board of trustees, and the members of the Earlham college faculty. No invita-tions will be issued.

Mrs. Harry Gennett and her chil-dren, Miss Alice Gennett, Harry Gen-nett and Ruth Gennett of South Twen-thy-first street, left Saturday morning for San Antonio, Tex., where they will spend the rest of the winter season.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Francis Martin and little daughter of East Main street left this week for Los Angeles, Calif., from where they will go to Santa Bar-bara, Calif., to spend some time.

Mrs. Galen Morrison of Cincinnati is spending the holidays with her par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stedler. Miss Willodean Stedler will return home with her Saturday to remain over the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lantz of Okla-homa City, Okla., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lantz and other relatives in this city.

Chester H. Edwards of Louisville, Ky., is the guest for a few days of Mrs. Mary Kaufman and Miss Marie Kauf-man of 2004 South A street.

Mrs. Anna White of Dayton, Ohio, is spending the week end as the guest of Mrs. Mary Hawkins of South Eighth street.

Miss Helen Smith and Miss Mary Hines of Indianapolis entertained over the week-end for Loring Miller of this city and Gregg Oliver of Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. Orel Erk and little daughter, Patty, have returned to their home in Cleveland, Ohio, after spend-ing Christmas with Mr. Erk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Erk of West Main street.

Edward Beetle of North E street is visiting Harry Kramer this week.

Mrs. W. O. Steddom and Miss Minnie Tingle arrived home Friday after spending the holidays in Terre Haute and Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Quigley will have as their guests for New Year's Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn of Detroit, Mich.; Miss Gertrude Fulton of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn of Columbus, Ohio; Miss Nelle Quinlivan of Columbus, Ohio, and Phillip Dunn of Wellsville, Ohio.

Mrs. E. R. Beatty of East Main street spent Saturday at Dayton, Ohio.

Miss May Laymon of South Fifteenth street, has returned from a short visit with Crystal Laymon at Dublin.

Miss Harriet Baldwin has returned from Muncie, where she spent the holidays at the home of her grandfather.

The annual New Year's eve enter-tainment of the Elks lodge will be conducted Sunday night in the club-house, with the famous Palais Gar-den orchestra furnishing the enter-tainment from 10 to 12 o'clock and playing an order of dances from 12 to 3 o'clock. The cabaret feature will be held in the card and billiard and poolroom, which has been at-tractively decorated for the feature. An elaborate buffet luncheon will be served here throughout the evening. Small tables and chairs have been placed in this room so that members and their families may enjoy the music and entertainment. Dancing will be in the lodge room. The club house is decorated in holiday style. Mem-bers are privileged to bring an out-of-town visitor. The lodge officers expect a very large attendance, as many members will take advantage of the opportunity to have their fam-ilies inspect the beautiful improve-ments which were made last fall in the interior furnishings of the club house. The Palais Garden orchestra is regarded as one of the finest mu-sical organizations in the midwest, with a wide reputation for its ability to entertain as well as to play dance selections. A conspicuous incident of the evening will be the greeting of the incoming year by a special fea-ture in which the orchestra will take the lead.

Open house will be held by the Tri-folium society New Year's afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the First Eng-lish Lutheran church. The program for the occasion has been arranged by Mrs. Oliver P. Nusbbaum, Mrs. Emmett Bartel, George Eggeneyer, Mrs. Her-bert L. Keck and Everett Ackerman.

Notable among the opening festivi-ties for 1923 will be the New Year's dance which will be given Monday evening at the Country club for mem-bers and their out-of-town guests. The affair is to be informal. Seider's or-chestra, of Eaton, Ohio, is to play the program of dances. Dancing will com-mence at 8:30 o'clock. Holiday dec-orations throughout the clubhouse will be in evidence for the function. The committee which arranged the Christ-mas dance will be in charge of the New Year's party. It is composed of Mrs. Ben C. Bartel, chairman, Mrs. Richard Study, Mrs. Joseph H. Hill, Miss Juliet Nusbbaum, Whitney Mc-Guire, and Earl H. Mann.

Among the many affairs which will be held to usher in the New Year will be the watch dance which Mr. and Mrs. Bert Koip will give Sunday evening at the L. O. O. F. hall. Dancing

ett, Mrs. David Roberts and Miss Georgia Healey.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crabb, of North Tenth street, entertained at six o'clock dinner Friday evening in honor of Miss Isabelle Crabb and Miss Margaret Joy, of Friends' university, Wichita, Kans., who are spending the holidays here. Covers were laid for Miss Crabb, Miss Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bertsch, of Centerville, Isaac Pryor, Miss Edith Haworth, Miss Mildred Crabb, Thomas Crabb, Miss Angela Crabb, W. L. Bailey, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crabb.

Mrs. Ed Klute entertained with one of the prettiest Christmas parties of the week Friday afternoon at her home on South Fourteenth street for mem-bers of the Happy Hour circle. Hand-some decorations in keeping with the Yuletide season were used throughout the residence, and a large, brilliantly lighted tree stood in one room. The afternoon was spent with sewing, at-ter which an elaborate Christmas din-ner was served by the hostess. The Rev. and Mrs. Frank A. Dersel, Mrs. Wallace Teegarden and Mrs. Baker were guests at the affair. The mem-bers present were: Mrs. John Ackerman, Mrs. Lee B. Nusbbaum, Mrs. Anna Helmbrink, Mrs. Will Lechr, Mrs. Joan Bartel, Mrs. Will Bartel, Mrs. Charles Haner, Mrs. Henry Heger, Mrs. Frank Haner, Mrs. Will Meerhoff, Mrs. John Hasemeier and Mrs. Ed Klute.

Miss Betty Kenney entertained a party of friends Friday afternoon at her home in honor of Miss Frances Kelly, of Hamilton, Ohio. The time was spent in dancing and later for-tunes were told by Mrs. Wood Bat-man. Those present were Miss Kelley, Miss Alice Porter, Miss Marjorie Mil-ler, Miss Madge Harris, Miss Maxine Jones, Miss Frances Smith, Miss Mary Meerhoff, Mrs. Wood Batman, and Miss Betty Kenney.

The American Legion auxiliary elected the following officers at its meeting Friday afternoon in the K. of P. temple: Mrs. Ralph P. Whisler, president; Mrs. Harry Burgess, first vice-president; Mrs. Frank Hale, sec-ond vice-president; Mrs. Charles N. Cook, secretary; Mrs. William Reed, treasurer; Mrs. Frank McCoy, histori-an; and Mrs. Frank Englebert, chap-lain. Chairmen of committees will be named soon at a meeting of the new officers. An interesting report was made at the meeting by Mrs. Frank McCoy on the Christmas boxes sent by the auxiliary to 13 local ex-ser-vices men in hospitals and ill at home. The next meeting will be held in two weeks in the legion room.

The Country club was the scene of one of the season's loveliest children's parties when children of club mem-bers were entertained at the annual holiday party given for them. Christ-mas decorations, trees, holly, and ever-green combined to form an effective setting for the party. Members of the December social committee acted as hostesses. Games and contests were played by the guests during the afternoon, a story was told by Mrs. J. Brandon Griffith, and pupils of Eliza-beth Kolp gave a delightful perform-ance of fancy dances in costume. A number of parents of the children also attended the party.

One of the largest and most beau-tiful affairs of the holidays was held by Poot C. of the T. P. A., when it gave its sixth annual reception and dance. The function surpassed former parties given by the post. Elab-orate decorations in keeping with the season converted the spacious rooms into a magnificent setting for the oc-casion. Dancing with music by the Evan Smith orchestra was one of the features of the evening, while cards were played by other guests. Refresh-ments were served throughout the evening. Between 200 and 300 per-sons comprised the assemblage which gathered for the event, which is con-sidered the chief one in the post's calendar.

The Quiet Stitches were entertain-ed Friday afternoon at the new home of Mrs. Sadie Thompson on the MIdleboro road. Mrs. Laura Eldridge was the assisting hostess. Decorations were carried out in the Christmas col-ors throughout the residence. Favors in the contests went to Miss Ardith White and Mrs. Beesie Robinson. An exchange of gifts was made by the guests. Luncheon was served later to 30 guests, the appointments being car-ried out in red and green. Club vis-itors were Mrs. Mary Jeffers, Miss Ardith White and Miss Nettie Bennett. Members present were Mrs. May Town-send, Mrs. Lily Baird, Mrs. Dora White, Mrs. Alice Roberts, Mrs. Elsie Hartman, Mrs. Anna Puthoff, Mrs. Belle Patti, Mrs. Beesie Robinson, Mrs. Nora Norris, Mrs. Regta Knollenberg, Mrs. Julia Roberts, Mrs. Flora Rupp, Mrs. Christina Hayden, Mrs. Mary Mull, Mrs. Laura Eldridge, Mrs. Jennie Diehl, Mrs. Zetta Dahlman, Mrs. Ger-trude Murley, Mrs. Sadie Thompson, Miss Inez Townsend, Miss Wilma Jef-fers, Miss Marjorie Robinson, Miss Rosaline Hartman, Jane and Margaret Fay Puthoff and Ralph Roberts. The club will be entertained Thursday, Jan. 11, by Mrs. Christina Hayden and Mrs. Mary Mull on the Gaar farm.

Richmond Council, 2956, S. B. A., will meet Tuesday evening in the Col-onial annex. The new social commit-tee is to be in charge following the regular meeting. A full attendance is urged.

The Monday Study club will meet with Miss Elizabeth Rosa and Miss Emma Rosa Monday evening at their home, 326 South Sixth street.

The Neighborly club will meet Wed-nesday afternoon with Mrs. Harry Shute at her home on the Garwood road. All members are requested to be present.

The Criterion club will meet with Mrs. J. E. Kirkpatrick at her home, 116 North Fourteenth street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Progressive Literary society will not meet next week. The society, instead of holding its gatherings the first and third Tuesdays in the month, will meet the second and fourth Mon-day of each month. The next Monday is to start at midnight. The Jesse Halberstadt orchestra will play the order of dances. The balconies will be open to spectators. Persons who have attended the Kolp dances in the past may attend. A large number of the younger set who are here for the holidays will attend, it is anticipated.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Koip of a dance to be held Jan. 17 at the Eagles' club for which the Joe Kayser orchestra will play the order of dances. Joe Kayser and his seven colleagues have scored unusual popularity in their former appear-ances here. The dance for which they play promises to be one of the out-standing events of the winter season.

The Young Men's Institute will open its social calendar for the New Year with a card party Tuesday evening, Jan. 2, at 8 o'clock in their club rooms, Fifth and South C streets. Awarding of favors and a luncheon will follow cards. Everyone is in- vited to attend. The party is the first of a series which the club is planning to give during the remainder of the winter. Euchre and sheephead

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Stahr, of Liberty, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nettie Stahr, to Mr. Albert Ellison, son of Mrs. Ellen Ell-ison, of Fairmont. The wedding was quietly celebrated Wednesday even-ing, Dec. 27, at 10 o'clock, in the South street. The single ring service was used, the Rev. S. L. Martin of-ficiating. Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Johnson were the only witnesses. The wedding comes as a surprise to the many friends of the couple. Mrs. Ellison is a member of the Delta Theta Tau sorority and has been an assistant at the Union theatre. Mr. Ellison is employed with the Liberty Light and Power company.

Miss Elizabeth Murray and Miss Helen McWhinney were hostesses for a pretty holiday function when they entertained at cards Friday evening, at the home of Miss Murray, on the National road east. Decorations at-tractively carried out in the Christ-mas colors were used through the rooms. Five hundred was played during the evening, favors going to Miss Esther Fouts and Cameron Cody. Later a luncheon was served to the following guests: Miss Edna John-son, Miss Catherine Kulte, Miss Wilma Sudhoff, Miss Gertrude Eggleston, Miss Katherine Binkley, Miss Jose-phine Hiatt, Miss Esther Reid, Miss Mary Louise Bates, Miss Esther Fouts, Miss Mildred Whiteley, Miss Doris Puckett, Miss Helen McWhinney, Miss Elizabeth Murray, Miss Louise Murray, and Messrs. Ralph Motley, Mark Heibrink, Robert Reid, Cecil Cureton, Harry Thomas, Carl Moore, Clem Meyers, Roland Cutler, Camer-on Cody, Roland Lechr, Linden Edger-ton, Roscoe Meyers, Clem Price and Paul Fouts.

Compensating Miss Alice Lemon, Miss Mary Frances Churchill and Miss Emily Roberts, who are home from school to spend the holidays, Miss Georgia Healey entertained with a theatre party Friday afternoon. Later a two-course luncheon was served to the party at a confectionery shop. The guests were: Miss Lemon, Miss Churchill, Miss Roberts, Miss Queen Webb, Miss Ruth Critchett, Miss Marcia Dennis, Miss Helen Elc-horn, Miss Harriet Ellis, Miss Lu-cille Loofburrow, Miss Edith Finning, Mrs. G. C. Healy, Mrs. Frank Critch-

ett, Mrs. David Roberts and Miss Georgia Healey.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crabb, of North Tenth street, entertained at six o'clock dinner Friday evening in honor of Miss Isabelle Crabb and Miss Margaret Joy, of Friends' university, Wichita, Kans., who are spending the holidays here. Covers were laid for Miss Crabb, Miss Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bertsch, of Centerville, Isaac Pryor, Miss Edith Haworth, Miss Mildred Crabb, Thomas Crabb, Miss Angela Crabb, W. L.
