Gems In Verse

Democracy, those men have done these things... That paint their navies with a brutal face.

THE inmates of the State Reformatory got out a weekly edition of a bright sparkling journal called the Reflector.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is endeavoring to accomplish by the possible means of the ballotbox and courts, what the people might attempt to accomplish in a few years more by a revolution to overthrow the powerful and law breaking combinations of capital.

OUT OF the thirty-four entries in the big Marathon race at Chicago last Saturday, only fourteen of the young men came in at the finish.

Hammond Needs Markets.

One of the leading caterers of the city recently complained of the impossibility of securing any of the less frequently used delicacies that are so necessary for a well balanced bill of fare in the better eating houses in the city.

the time, but it is possible for a merchant to get such dainties once in a while and make a specialty of supplying the market with this class of goods.

Between Trains

Where there's a thirst there's a way.

It is pretty tough on some of the steady hostlers to have to go against the "fixed baronets" they serve across the state lines.

If necessary we will run a special column next Thursday giving the names of the boys who were hurt on the day before, and also of those who were so "awful dry."

will ride on the steamer Roosevelt to Michigan City July 14. Every Democrat gets into Bryan's wagon, but of course, its different with the ships.

When the City of Traverse under command of Admiral Bad White and the John Sterling commanded by Admiral Tennes hook up in a desperate naval battle, it is hoped by certain persons that the engagement will take place close enough to the Indianan shore so as it can be seen without a telescope.

There were signs on the streets last night which might be taken to indicate that there were a few wet spots in this vicinity yesterday.

There seems to be no lick on the Queen of Norway, notwithstanding the fact that her name is Maud.

Prosecuting Attorney Dave Boone is all to the Jeffersonian simplicity when he is stripped for action outside of the court room.

He was yellow mud to the forelocks and murky grease to the bared elbows; he was clad in blue denim overalls, a cap that was strictly on the bum and two day's growth of beard when a reporter for a Chicago paper in search of something he had in his mind to point a moral or adorn a tale accosted him about a block from his residence a morning or two ago.

"Say, old man," said the reporter, "can you tell me where States Attorney Boone lives?"

"I think he lives in that house yonder," answered Boone, pointing the way.

"What kind of a guy is he?"

"Oh, I don't know. He's all right I guess. It depends on how you tackle him. What did you want to see him about?"

The reporter waved his hand as much as to say, "I don't see what difference that makes to you," and stepped off briskly in the direction of the house.

"Well, where do you think I can find him?"

"Here," answered Boone, laying a soiled finger on a soiled chest.

The reporter cast a comprehensive glance at the make up and exclaimed, "Well, I'll be —"

WHITING NEWS.

Wm. A. Curtis, master mechanic of the Standard Oil Co's refinery at Whiting, is in Cleveland, Ohio, whence he was called by the death of his brother.

Mrs. F. N. Gavit, with her son Al, and daughter Ruth left Saturday morning for Saginaw, Mich. to spend a couple of weeks.

The old hotel and saloon at the corner of Indiana boulevard and 119th street, is soon to be reopened under the management of Otto Bauer of South Chicago.

Charles Rife of Hamilton, Ohio, is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Geo. W. Jones, his uncle and aunt, of Fishrup avenue, for a few days.

WITH THE EDITORS.

A very vigorous Allen has been recorded by William Allen White. He says Kansans are fined for living in the west. That's nothing. Here in Indiana we're fined for living at all.

In the midst of the disclosures of corporate greed, lawlessness and corruption which are shocking the public it should not be forgotten that Thomas W. Lawson was the John the Baptist of the new dispensation.

One of the chief topics of conversation on the street is the fast baseball game between the Hammonds and the Senecas, played on the local diamond yesterday.

Every player on the Hammond team is a hero in the eyes of the fans today, and the brilliant victory over the team that has twice forced the Hammonds to lower their colors is the source of a great deal of satisfaction.

There were one man on base when Fowler caught one of Boyle's choice ones right on the nose, and sent it sailing away off into left field and then went racing around the bases for a home run, while the Senecas were making desperate efforts to recover the ball and get it home.

White at short distinguished himself and made a splendid impression by his fast infield work.

SPORTING NOTES.

Although the School Loses Many Stars by Graduation, There is Still Much Good Material to Form Nucleus for a Well Balanced Team.

When Blair, Bellman and Rohde were graduated from the high school this spring it looked as though the hopes for a good track team next year were pretty slim.

There is Summers who has just done himself proud by winning the mile race at the A. A. U. meet at Chicago yesterday, who will be in school for three years more and will be a formidable man to defeat in all of the long distance events.

Hunter, in the sprints, showed good form this year and with practice will prove to be a good man in these events.

Another claimant to honors in the dashes is Hansen, who demonstrated this year that with proper training he could go some.

In the weights Bauer is a comer. He has a good strong frame and with consistent training, ought to represent his school creditably in these events.

Bellman's place in the high jump and the hurdles will be taken by Elliott who may prove his equal when he has had more experience and develops physically as he surely will do as he gets older.

The discuss which has become one of the popular events in high school track meets, will be placed in the custody of Mueller and Stevens

EXCURSION TO LAPORTE

Hammond Base Ball Association to Assist in Celebration of Independence Day at that City.

The Hammond Base Ball Association is to assist in the Fourth of July celebration at LaPorte and, in consequence, is to run an excursion to that place on the Fourth.

The celebration at LaPorte is to be an old-time affair, some of the features of which are to be a merchant's parade, a balloon ascension, horse and foot races and all kinds of amusements, including a ball game between the Hammond team and the crack LaPorte nine, which recently gave the Gunther's of Chicago a 1 to 3 rub.

Special arrangements have been made with Lake Shore for extra coaches on their trains that all may be comfortably accommodated.

Tickets will be on sale at Milligan's cigar store and the Wells-Fargo Express office on and after June 30th. All are invited and a good time is guaranteed.
