SPORTING NOTES

SPORTING BRIEFS.

The White Sox were given a great reception at Joliet yesterday when the world's champions arrived for their game with the local team. After parading the streets they went to DeLwood park where nearly 3,000 people saw them defeat Joliet by the score of 10 to 0.

The reserves of the Chicago university team were able to make a touchdown on their heavier opponents. This is said to indicate the possibilities of the new rules and shows that a lighter team may with speed and skill defeat a team that is all beef.

Newton Bennington's Voorhees lowered the world record for six and a half furlongs to 1:17 1-5 in the opening event at Belmont park yesterday.

The event was a high weight handicap for all ages and Voorhees, not having shown speed in his previous race, opened at 55 to 1. He was backed down to 20 to 1 and got up in the last jump to beat the two-year-old Frank Lord a couple of inches. Klamasha, the favorite, finished third.

Carl Anderson is hot on the trail of all fighters at 148 to 150 pounds in weight. Last night his manager, M. C. Champaign posted a forfeit of $100 to bind a match with any of the fighters of that class. He is ready to sign articles at once for any of the clubs in the vicinity of Chicago. The money will be left up for a week.

Secret signal practice was the program for the Purdue football team last night. Yesterday afternoon on Squair field the team practiced behind closed gates, and later there was a scrimmage game between varsity and freshmen, in which the former eleven scored a touchdown. Hanna of the freshmen eleven made a drop kick from the twenty-five yard line.

Blaine Long, a crack halfback of the Indiana 1906 team, has thrown consternation in the criminal squad by deserting and joining the Wabash college squad under the Indiana coach, Francis Cayou. Long's action is bitterly condemned and if he ever plays against his ex-teammates there will be an attempt at a "killing." Blaine Long of Marion, has had considerable gridiron experience, first as a member of the Marion high school team and later as a back field substitute at Indiana University. He made his debut in a scarlet uniform last evening and showed up well in spite of the fact that he has been out of the game for two years. The Presbyterians came out of the grueling game with Illinois in fair shape and are going through a strenuous program of practice this week in anticipation of the game with Rose Polytechnic next Saturday.

Willie Hoppe of New York defeated Jacob Schaefer of Chicago at Madison Square Garden Concert Hall last night by the score of 500 points to 472 in their eighteen-inch ball-line, one shot in match for the world's championship trophy and $1,000.

The Michigan City football team, which in 1904 held the undisputed championship of northern Indiana, is being reorganized by "Boney" Harris. It is the intention of the management to retain the cream of the former team and to fill in the vacancies with some of the best talent in this vicinity. During the latter part of the season three games will be played with the LaPorte team, one at LaPorte, one here and the third on neutral grounds and in this manner the title for supremacy will be definitely settled.

MCGOVERN HOLDS CORBETT.

Terry McGovern surprised the pugilistic world by staying six full rounds in his fight with his old rival, "Young" Corbett. The fight was before the National Athletic club and was the third attempt of the shifty lightweight to defeat Corbett.

The bout was a hummer after the first round. Both men took chances and let loose blows which clearly showed their determination to end matters as quickly as they could. More than once the big crowd was brought to its feet by the apparent approach of a finish for one or the other, but each time a grand rally and the failure to deliver a punch by the other opponent enabled the spectators to see every second of the eighteen minutes of milling.

Widely circulated stories regarding Corbett's splendid condition were given the lie as soon as the one time champion stepped in the ring. He was hog fat and his stomach looked to be the best kind of a target for an opponent to fire at. McGovern looked good, being brown and rugged, but he also was carrying excess weight.

Bees in Store.

A swarm of bees on Water street took possession of a store in Auburn and furnished amusement to a large crowd of spectators that gathered on the opposite side of the street, says the Ulica Observer.

The bees resented any intrusion, and anybody who came within ten feet of the window and awning where they swarmed received a sting or two. Victims were plentiful, and the cruel spectators, out of harm's way, took glee at the victim's antics as one after another was driven up the street followed by a part of the swarm.

One man strolling leisurely along came into contact with one of the sharp points on the end of a bee, and his surprise was so vigorously evidenced that he attracted the attention of the entire swarm, and, thrusting his umbrella right and left, he beat an ignominious retreat, accompanied by a delegation of the insects. The sidewalk was covered with dead bees. The arrival of a thunderstorm effectively drove the bees to cover.

Alfred Vanderbilt's Banter. "On the Alfred G. Vanderbilt coach," said a Pittsburgher, "I rode from the Hotel Windsor to the Atlantic City horse show for the small sum of one dollar."

"Mr. Vanderbilt was in good spirits the day I was his paying guest. He bantered very gracefully the beautiful young lady who sat beside him on the box seat."

"I heard Mr. Vanderbilt say that women were never satisfied. No matter what you gave them, they always wanted something else, and if they couldn't get what they wanted by fair means then they got it by foul."

"He said that last fall a lady who had just returned from Newport sent for a fashionable physician."

"The physician, on arriving, found the lady reclining on a couch, one maid fanning her and another holding to her nose a gold bottle of smelling salts."

"What is the nature, madam, of your complaint?" the physician asked. "Oh, doctor," said the lady, plaintively, "I am suffering dreadfully from—er—oh, what was that illness anyway for which you sent my friend, Mrs. Golde, on a yachting tour in the Mediterranean?"

Chaffeur Among Mining Camps. A type of the twentieth century mining camp is the desert chaffeur who opened the trail of traffic between Tonopah and Goldfield, Nev., and later drove his machine on south to the camps of the Bullfrog district. He is distinctly picturesque and is as thoroughgoing a pioneer in his way as the freighter is in his.

The Jewish Question In Russia

By MAXIM GORKY,
Apostle
of Revolution

IN Russia the Jewish question is pre-eminently a POLITICAL one. The chief enemy of the Russian Jews is Russian officialdom, which holds EVERY Jew to be a revolutionist. This view has its irrefutable evidence in the history of the Russian revolutionary movement. The proportion of so called political criminals among the Jews in the Russian movement of emancipation is very great.

In Russia the Jews are revolutionists to a greater extent than anywhere else. Everything is done to stifle them, to kill their bodies AND THEIR SOULS, but the wonderful vitality of that race does not yield to the pressure of evil powers, and its intellectual alertness, its quick, warm impressiveness only ADAPTS ITSELF TO THE CONDITIONS.

It is impossible to enumerate all of the means the officials used in their efforts to suppress the Jews, but the results are the very opposites of what they aimed at. The Jews stand in the front rank of the intellectual opposition, and from the very beginning of the open fight with the Russian government the Jews perished by hundreds in the prisons, in Siberia and in the Russian fortresses.

Everything that concerns the Jewish question in Russia can be formulated thus: The Russian government persecutes the Jews so furiously BECAUSE IT REGARDS THEM AS ITS MOST ACTIVE OPPONENTS. This was not long ago confirmed by Sergius Witte, who in his address to the Jewish deputation literally said:

"If Jews should happen to get into the duma they must not discuss there the general politics of the empire, but ONLY THEIR OWN AFFAIRS."

But in Russia the foolhardiness of Sergius Witte as well as his insolence is well known to everybody. It is an old story.

Having its root in the politics of the government, anti-Semitism has not penetrated into Russian society because these two forces are IRRECONCILABLY HOSTILE to each other, and that which the one sanctions the other rejects. The intelligent elements of Russia are at present not infected with the poison of anti-Semitism; they know very well the role which the Jews play in the Russian revolution.

BUT I MUST SAY, TO MY GREAT SORROW, THAT THE RUSSIAN INTELLIGENT PUBLIC NEVER CONDUCTED ITSELF IN RELATION TO THE JEWS AS IN JUSTICE IT SHOULD HAVE DONE.

Charity Versus Philanthropy

By Archbishop McLENNON of St. Louis

PHILANTHROPY would take a man to the grave and there leave him. Charity goes with him not only to the grave, BUT TO THE RESURRECTION. We have many men now, especially in America, who will devote their millions to philanthropy, NOT TO CHARITY. Millions for universities, for settlements, for hospitals, for institutions that look only after the PHYSICAL—are given each year. Is poverty eliminated by these? Are the poor satisfied? They cry out: "You have given us money. We want more. You sit in golden palaces and discuss our condition. We want your palaces, NOT YOUR SYMPATHY."

We have to deal not only with the thousands of poor that are always with us, but with the poor of other countries that are coming at the rate of two every minute. Over there in their little homes they have heard of the land of freedom and of gold. They come, and THEY FIND NEITHER FREEDOM NOR GOLD. Down in the tenements into which their circumstances drive them they lose their happiness and their health.

For the good of the nation, for the happiness of those whom the name of America LURES FROM THEIR HOMES across the seas, I would tell those that come by the thousands:

"You shall not settle in New York nor in Chicago nor in St. Louis. GO ON YOUR WAY FAR OUT WEST. There are thousands of acres of land. There you can build up again homes such as you have known. There you can know again the grass and the growing vines and the broad, bending skies."

"THERE YOU CAN KNOW HAPPINESS; THERE YOU CAN COME CLOSE TO GOD."

People Should Elect Senators and Judges

By Chief Justice WALTER CLARK of North Carolina

THE senate should be made elective by the people, and in the election of a president the electoral vote of each state should be divided PRO RATA ACCORDING TO THE POPULAR VOTE. This would destroy the system of a few pivotal great states from which alone from the scheme of our government presidents might be chosen, which invite the CONCENTRATION OF MONEY to carry those states. For instance, you will find that for the first forty years of our national life presidents came only from Virginia and Massachusetts, while since 1860 they have come only from New York, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. In the interim, New York and Tennessee supplied the presidents for sixteen years. But it will never do to elect the president by ballot PER CAPITA from the whole Union AS ONE DISTRICT, because this would invite fraud and lead to civil war.

I think that the national judiciary should be shorn of much of its arbitrary power of vetoing the action of congress by declaring it illegal or unconstitutional. The power to take this action was never granted by more than three states in the convention of 1787. As a matter of simple fact, the judges have arrogated this power to themselves WITHOUT ANY WARRANT IN LAW. As matters stand they have the right by the irrevocable vote of five men to set aside the acts of president and congress.

THIS POWER SHOULD NOT BE GRANTED UNLESS THE JUDICIARY IS ELECTED BY THE POPULAR VOTE.

Strange Story of a Mexican Church.

An interesting story is brought from Celaya by an American lady, who vouches for the truth of it, which might furnish food for thought and investigation to the skeptical, who cannot accept as gospel all stories relating to the supernatural.

According to the story told by this lady there appears every night exactly at the hour of 12 on the grounds of the parochial church of Celaya, which is in the heart of the city, the form of a man dressed in priestly garb, who walks back and forth between the gate and the door of the chapel reading a strange book and murmuring strange sounds.

The gaze of this nocturnal perambulator is fixed steadfastly upon the book; in which, to all intents and purposes, he is intensely absorbed, and pays not the slightest attention to things mundane. It is said that rain or shine a midnight visit is never missed, and this has been kept up for months. According to the story no one dare approach the premises, and the peon class, the members of which are intensely superstitious, will not venture within a block of what they consider the haunted church.—Mexican Herald.

Had Faith in Dog's Future. A little four-year-old created a ripple of laughter by remarking to the teacher of her Sunday school class: "Our dog's dead. I bet the angels were scared when they saw him coming up the walk. He's cross to strangers."

Future Assured. It is claimed that few careers are open to deaf mutes. Let them become barbers, and their future will be assured.

His Ready Retort. "Jack Thompson is a very witty fellow."

"Well, he's a chemist; he ought to be."

"Now, what on earth has that to do with his wit?"

"Everything; chemists should be always ready with retorts!"—Tit-Bits.
