NEW GEORGIA SENATOR IN WASHINGTON

AS SUCCESSOR TO FIRST WOMAN SENATOR

Senator-elect Walter F. George, his wife and son, Marcus George, in Senator-elect Walter F. George of Georgia has taken his seat in the U. S senate, succeeding the eighty-one-year-old Mrs. W. H. Felton, the first and only woman to date to be seated in the highest lawmaking body in America. George was elected to fill the unexpired term of the late Senate: Watson However, before his election Governor Hardwick had appointed Mrs. Felton, temporarily, and George consented to step aside for a day at the opening of the present special session so that Mrs. Felton could be seated.
