bia's will to invade Panama as soon

DEAL ON FOR CEDAR SPRINGS

AND IT IS QUITE PROBABLE THAT IT WILL BE

CONSUMMATED SOON

Interested Parties on the Ground, and it Looks Much as if It Would Be a Go.

This morning's New Paris Mirror gives the following account of the deal for Cedar Springs property and hotel:

"Today a company of gentlemen from Anderson were at the Springs, among whom were J. C. Kreusch, a member of the company which is negotiating for the place, J. F. Freeman, who will run the hotel, if the deal is made, and J. C. Kreusch, who will have charge of the bottling of the water, and Philip Jeckel, an Anderson architect, who will prepare plans for the various improvements to be made. Mr. Underwood, of Dayton, a member of the present company, was also there.

"A Mirror representative talked with the gentlemen, who were quite frank in their statements, and Mr.
Freeman said that, while the deal had not yet been closed, it was very likely to be and that within a short time. In fact, he stated, that it was not unlikely that it would be consummated before the close of the day.

"So far as can be known—at the time of going to press, it seems almost certain that the property will be transferred at a very early date.
If such shall prove to be the case, extensive improvements will be made at once. The hotel will be made modern in all respects and additional buildings will be erected, and it is believed that it can be made the successful rival of any resort in the central states."

Prof. Orlando C. Charlton, professor of natural science in Kalamazoo college, was in Richmond a few hours this morning, visiting his cousin, Mr.
J. R. Hart, of the Palladium. Prof.
Charlton was en route to Hanover to attend the funeral of his brother, Prof. T. J. Charlton, which will probably occur tomorrow, in which case Mr. Hart will also attend.

BUSINESS DIFFICULTIES

NOT YET CLEARED UP BY THE MAIN STREET MERCHANT
—LIGHT LOOKED FOR
TOMORROW.

PRO PUBLICO BONO

Kingly Profits Demand Pricely Expenses—Money Talks—Let Profits Answer.

In an article written for this paper yesterday it was stated that one of the most prominent firms doing business on Main street was up to the question of changing their location, or even of leaving the city.
This is due, as was said then, to an inability of the owners of the building and the gentleman occupying it to agree upon the extensive repairs asked for and the conditions of the lease.

It must be admitted after all our prejudice against the man who has buildings for rent and who comes around with such fatal regularity for his pay, that he, too, has rights which, in fairness, must be considered. If he spends money like a prince in fitting up a property, he must be expected to reap profits like a king. Of course this firm is amply justified in asking such comprehensive repairs.
They are far-sighted business men and they are building not for today only, but for the future, and not far distant future either, when Richmond shall be the center of a net work of traction lines and shall be called upon to look after a trade which is now far beyond the fondest dreams of even these men, the most advanced of our merchants.

It is due the public to say that the owners of the building in question and the firm occupying it are showing indications of getting together on the basis of high-minded liberality. Still it may yet be too soon to say that the lavish expenditure of money demanded has been altogether agreed to by the somewhat conservative property owners. But, if the present plans are carried out, and it is now thought probable that they will be, this location, one of the very best in the city, will compare favorably in all its appointments with the best equipped metropolitan business houses. By tomorrow it is hoped there will be no longer any reason for talking in parables about this matter. It will be arranged satisfactorily by that time or the deal will be off, and, in either case, the names of the parties will be given.

Mystery is a commodity which newspapers seldom deal in and it will be a pleasure to clear this one up in the issue of tomorrow.

PROF. MORGAN DEAD IN KANSAS

HE PASSED AWAY AT THE COL-LEGE HE FOUNDED.

TAUGHT AT EARLHAM

A Number of Years—He Was Professor of Mathematics, Latin and Greek.

Prof. W. B. Morgan, one of the prominent educators of the state, is dead at Lowell, Kansas, where he was professor of mathematics in Lowell college. He was also the founder of the school, founding it after he left Earlham college in 1898. Prof.
Morgan is a brother of Mrs. Allen Jay. His funeral will occur at Lowell, Kansas.

Prof. Morgan came to Earlham college when that institution was a boarding school in 1847, coming from Raysville, Ind., overland, in a stage coach, over the national road. After teaching two years at Earlham, he went to Haverford college, and, after three years of study, took the master's degree. Afterward he taught in Westtown and Philadelphia. At the latter place he met and married Miss Sarah Henley. He returned to Earlham in 1855. Afterward he left Earlham for seven years, teaching in the University of Michigan, Purdue and Penn college.

The deceased was a very capable student of Latin and Greek, as well as mathematics. He was an exceptionally capable teacher on account of his accuracy of thought and correctness of statement. In character, he was steadfast and courageous, and would stand for the truth as he saw it.

He was also the founder of the Earlham observatory and Ionian society and gave to the latter the motto it bears today.

PATHETIC LETTER

Written to President Roosevelt by Senator Hanna.

Cleveland, Feb. 25.—Senator Hanna's last written words were in the form of a pathetic letter to President Roosevelt, in which he acknowledged in a way quite characteristic, the President's thoughtfulness in calling at his hotel. The letter, which was written by the senator on the afternoon of Friday, Feb. 5, follows:

My Dear Mr. President:—You touched a tender spot, old man, when you called personally to inquire after me this a. m. I may be worse before I can be better, but all the same such "drops" of kindness are good for a fellow. Sincerely yours, M. A. Hanna.

The next day a reply was received from the President, with a note stating that it was to be shown to the senator when Mrs. Hanna thought best. It read:

Dear Senator:—Indeed it is YOUR letter from your sick bed which is touching—not my visit. May you very soon be with us again, old fellow, as strong in body and as vigorous in your leadership and your friendship as ever. Faithfully yours, Theodore Roosevelt.

Senator Hanna never saw the reply.

will become the property of the in-

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT

MR. AND MRS. ULRICH KILLED ON THE PANHANDLE
CROSSING

BY CHICAGO TRAIN 19

The Horse Disembowled and the Buggy Reduced to Kindling Wood.

The Cincinnati and Chicago passenger train which leaves here at 11:15 a. m. struck a horse and buggy at a crossing in New Castle yesterday, demolishing the buggy and killing the occupants, David Ulrich and wife, of near Moreland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich went to New Castle in the morning to visit their daughter, Mrs. Frank Lockwood, in East Spring street. After spending the morning there they drove to the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Myers, on East Indiana street, which parallels the railroad on a high embankment.

About 12:30 they left the Myers home and were crossing the track 300 feet away when struck.

The occupants of the buggy were instantly killed. Mrs. Ulrich's body was hurled nearly 300 feet, and that of Mr. Ulrich about the same distance. Their heads were crushed to a pulp, the entire top of Mrs. Ulrich's head being torn off and the brain, intact, lay along the track.
Pieces of their skulls, entirely stripped of flesh, were strewn for a distance of a block.

The horse was disembowled, but walked around with entrails dragging on the ground until shot. The buggy was reduced to kindling wood.

An immense crowd soon gathered, among which were several hundred school children.

Johnson's ambulance was called and collected the remains. They were taken to the Johnson undertaking establishment.

This crossing in New Castle is like the Rich crossing in Richmond before a flagman was put there. Several accidents have occurred there, and several persons have met death.
