

A WEEK OF BILLS

Supply Measures Will Attract Current Attention of the Senate.

PENSION BILL DELAYED

This Measure Held for Possible Additions Made Necessary by Additional Legislation.

Postoffice Matters Will Engage the Further Attention of the House.

Washington, March 21.—The present week in the senate will be devoted almost entirely to appropriation bills, beginning on Tuesday with that for the District of Columbia and following with the Indian and pension bills. Neither the district nor the Indian bill has been reported from committee, but both are promised early in the week and they will take precedence over the pension bill notwithstanding the latter is now on the calendar. The pension bill is held for possible additions made necessary by additional legislation, but its consideration will not be long delayed.

It is not expected there will be any effort to increase the amount carried by the bill on account of the recent executive pension order. Whatever sum may be required to carry the order into effect will be incorporated in a general deficiency bill. Unobjected bills on the calendar were taken up today and further consideration may be given to Senator Fairbanks' bill providing for a new department building in this city.

IN THE HOUSE

Adjournment Taken Today in Honor of Dead Representative.

Washington, March 21.—The postoffice, the military academy and the sundry civil appropriation bills constitute the work mapped out for the house this week. Today the house adjourned early owing to the death of Representative Thompson, of Alabama, who died in this city Sunday of pneumonia. The postoffice bill is pending and several knotty questions, such as rural free delivery salaries, railway mail subsidies and railway mail service, are likely to prolong its consideration for several days. The military academy bill is not expected to consume much time. The sundry civil bill probably will be ready the latter part of the week, and its consideration will extend into the following week. Present indications are that no other matters of importance are likely to be injected into the proceedings of the week. The postoffice report will be cared for hereafter by the McCull committee which is to sit in open session during the week.

THEY WANT HELP

White Residents of the Philippines Have Grievances.

Victoria, B. C., March 21.—Wm. M. Swarthout, editor of the Manila Times, president of the Merchants Publishing company, of the Far Eastern Press club, and of the Manila Press club, was a passenger on the steamer Shawmut, arriving here Sunday, bound for Washington, to lay the grievances of the white residents before congress. He says the great question there now is the scarcity of labor, the Filipinos declining to work at any price. Mr. Maculloch, head of the biggest printing and publishing firm in the islands, also was on his way to San Francisco seeking labor. He says his business has been practically suspended owing to the impossibility of obtaining laborers at reasonable rates.

Poses as a Martyr.

Salt Lake, Utah, March 21.—President Angus M. Cannon, of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion, referred in the Mormon tabernacle Sunday to his confinement in the state prison for polygamous cohabitation some years ago, described himself as being "imprisoned for the testimony of Jesus."

Eruptio...

Dry, moist, scaly tetter, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from humors, either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous.

The thing to do is to take

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Which thoroughly cleanse the blood, expelling all humors and building up the whole system. They cure

Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured J. G. Hines, Franks, Ill., of eczema, from which he had suffered for some time; and Miss Alvina Walter, Box 212, Algona, Wis., of pimples on her face and back and chafed skin on her body, by which she had been greatly troubled. There are more testimonials in favor of Hood's than can be published.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

COMPLICATIONS CREATED

Ruling as to Legislative Districts Brings Out Inquiries.

Indianapolis, March 21.—Some queer complications are arising out of the rule laid down by the Republican state convention to provide that in joint legislative districts the counties having representatives of their own shall only be entitled to delegates for their excess vote above the senatorial or representative unit. When there are counties in a district that are without representation of their own the rule is a good thing as the big counties can't "hog the ring" so to speak. The peculiar and interesting complications arise in joint districts like Boone, Hamilton, Madison and Montgomery counties. Boone, Hamilton and Montgomery each have a representative. Madison has two. So the excess vote rule applies to each county. The trouble arises out of the fact that in Boone and Hamilton the excess gives them but one vote. Montgomery is entitled to three but Madison, the big county, has enough excess to give it six votes. Here will be a joint convention of four counties with but eleven delegates and the big county against which the rule was aimed, having all the advantage. The state committee receives a number of letters each day asking for a minute construction of the rule.

The candidates have another month to work for places on the Republican state ticket as the convention will be held the fourth week of next month. There is much interest in the contests but it may be stated fairly that the interest is not so deep as it was four years ago when there were six active candidates for governor. There has not been the usual talk of deals this time but perhaps it is a trifle early for that. Hanly is still a strong favorite in certain quarters for governor and it looks as if he is increasing his hold upon the situation yet in politics "there is many a slip 'twix the cup and lip" so what looks like a sure thing now may be battered down at the convention. The friends of Wm. L. Taylor are confident that he is gaining ground every day and that he will be a power at the convention. The followers of Warren G. Sayre and of Judge Penfield also express every confidence in the outcome of their respective candidates.

Can Hearst land the Indiana delegation to the St. Louis convention? The question is being regarded very seriously by politicians. That the editor-candidate's strength has been underestimated is now being reluctantly conceded by members of the regular Democratic organization who thought they would have smooth sailing in lining up the Hoosier delegation for Parker or Gorman. The fact that such men as Chas. F. S. Neal, J. Oscar Henderson and Daniel W. Sims have identified themselves with the Hearst movement has caused more than a ten-day's surprise, as it was very naturally expected that they would line up with the old crowd. There is not the slightest doubt but that most of the party leaders in Indiana are against Hearst but the New Yorker doesn't seem a bit disturbed as he is going right ahead with his plans to capture the state delegation.

An amazing feature connected with the visit of the Hearst boomers to Indianapolis was the antics of the horde of political grafters that infests the city. There are a lot of this class of men here who are simply waiting around eager to devour anyone who comes along with the cash. The much heralded "cheek and checkbook" campaign that Hearst is conducting appealed to their hearts and they fairly swarmed about the Claypool hotel where Hearst's agents were stopping. They were for Hearst as a matter of course, but they were after the money good and strong. The statement by Hearst's agents that no money would be expended except in legitimate organization may cool their ardor.

There may yet be a large field of candidates for lieutenant governor before the Republican state convention. It was stated here today by a prominent politician that Walter Ball of Muncie has fully determined to enter the race. He wanted to become a candidate sometime ago but decided not to be. It is said, however, that friends have induced him to change his mind and that he is about ready with his announcement. He will only have a month in which to work but his friends are sure he can accomplish wonders in that time. The first district may also present a candidate as it is said that a boom is being started for John W. Brady of Princeton.

Now a Matter of History. Lafayette, Ind., March 21.—In a few weeks the old Wabash and Erie canal will be a thing of the past so far as Lafayette is concerned. The high water has washed away the Wildcat dam and it will not be rebuilt. This will mean the passing of widewater, a portion of the old canal used as a meeting point for boats.

The Irish Proposition. Manchester, March 21.—John Redmond, addressing an Irish demonstration here, said that the first business of the party was to strike down the present government and then to see that no government was put into office which would not grant home rule to Ireland.

Farmer Caught by Train. Vincennes, Ind., March 21.—Ignatz Roeloff, seventy years old, a retired farmer, was killed by an Evansville & Terre Haute fast train at Emison.

CHURCH WAS OFFENDED

Because Notre Dame Didn't Like Treatment of Gustavus Adolphus Indiana Is Now Out.

Peculiar Situation Presented in the Coming College Oratorical Contest.

Indianapolis, March 21.—After nine hours of wrangle the state oratorical association of Indiana decided that the oration of Luther Feeger of Earlham was discourteous to Notre Dame and could not be delivered at the interstate contest unless numerous changes were made in it.

The speech was given by Feeger at the state contest held in this city last February and won the state contest, which entitled him to contest in the interstate event. The subject is "Gustavus Adolphus," and contained, it is said, attacks on the Catholic church which are said to be untrue to history, and on this ground Notre Dame asked Feeger to change his oration. Feeger refused to do this, stating that the time was not sufficient. B. V. Kanaley, the Notre Dame representative on the state oratorical board, asked that a special meeting of the association be called to consider the matter. This was done, and representatives of the seven Indiana colleges in the association met in this city to take up the question.

When the final vote was taken all the institutions, with the exception of Earlham, voted that the change must be made before the speech could be delivered. Feeger stated that he would not make the required changes, and in this case the representatives decided that Indiana would not be represented in the contest.

CRACKSMEN ROUTED

Sensational Battle With Burglars In Amboy Bank.

Amboy, Ind., March 21.—In a running battle with burglars Cashier Ora Atkinson, of the Miami County bank at Amboy, was shot in the right hip and painfully wounded after the cracksmen, who had blown open the safe, were driven away, leaving $40,000 in booty behind them.

T. M. Warren saw two men working in the bank as he was returning from a train and called the cashier, Ora Atkinson. They armed themselves and went to the bank, arriving after the burglars had made two explosions, blowing off the outer doors of the safe. They fired on the burglars and frightened the cracksmen away just as they were about to open the shattered door of the cash box. The burglars fled in return as they fled and one shot struck Atkinson in the hip, wounding him quite painfully but not fatally. It is believed that one of the safe blowers was wounded, but they made their escape with $20 taken from an outside cash drawer.

Boys Declare Against Cigarettes.

Kokomo, Ind., March 21.—After a prolonged crusade, Professor R. A. Ogg, superintendent of the Kokomo schools, has banished the cigarette from the public schools. Kokomo now has an army of 3,000 pupils pledged against the use of tobacco in every form. Prof. Ogg has made a study of the evil effects of cigarette smoking among children and, aided by the faculty and board of education, began a war of extermination against the weed. As a result of several courts of inquiry about a score of tobacco dealers were arrested for selling to children in violation of law. The boys were made to tell where they bought tobacco and it is now an impossibility for boys under sixteen years of age to buy tobacco in this place, and the cigarette habit is entirely broken up in the schools.

Killed by Companion's Gun.

Norristown, Ind., March 21.—Bert Williams and John Windsor, both of Greensfield, were duck hunting on Brandywine creek, five miles west of this city. Windsor's double-barrel gun was set ready to fire, and in going over the fence both of the barrels were discharged, striking Williams in the region of the heart, killing him instantly. He was twenty-five years old, unmarried and the support of a widowed mother.

Prisoner Made His Bow.

Shelbyville, Ind., March 21.—Judge Morris brought Wilber F. Sanders before him and sentenced him to from two to twenty-one years in prison, charged with murdering the infant babe of Eva Cochran. The prisoner thanked the judge for the sentence, made a bow and left his presence in charge of Sheriff Luther.

Fled to Indiana.

Madison, Ind., March 21.—In a quarrel over exchanging tobacco Sunday at Lee's Landing, Ky., Henry Stucker, Jr., was shot and killed by Richard Crofton, an engineer. Crofton fled to Indiana.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 21.—George Sanders, aged fourteen, was instantly killed by a Vandavia train at West Terre Haute.

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE SHOOTING GALLERIES AND OTHER PLACES USED FOR SHOOTING PURPOSES IN THE CITY OF RICHMOND.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Richmond, that it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to keep, possess, maintain or carry on within the City of Richmond, the business of conducting or operating any shooting gallery, shooting range, or other place used for the purpose of shooting in, upon or over the same at a target or targets, mark or marks, birds or glass balls, or other object or objects, for a fee or reward to be charged therefor, in which shooting gallery, shooting range, or other place, any gun, rifle, pistol or other firearm or firearms, loaded, or in any way charged with gunpowder or other explosive material may or shall be used or fired, without first having obtained from the City Clerk a permit authorizing the establishment and use of such shooting gallery, shooting range or other place as aforesaid.

Section 2. That all such shooting galleries and ranges in the city limits shall be enclosed within brick walls not less than nine inches thick, nor less than ten feet high, and so guarded as to make it secure from glancing balls or any other device used for shooting, to pass through or over said walls to endanger the person or property of any one in the locality where said gallery or range is erected.

Section 3. That when any person or persons shall desire to establish or maintain a shooting gallery, shooting range or other place described in the first section of this ordinance, he shall file with the clerk his written application for a license specifically describing the location, room, premises wherein and whereon it is proposed to conduct the business aforesaid, and the clerk shall prepare and issue to such person or persons a permit authorizing the establishment and use of such gallery, range or other place, upon the payment of the following amounts, to-wit: For one week, $2.00, for two weeks, $3.00, for one month, $5.00, for each and every month or fraction thereof after the first month, the license shall be at the rate of $1.00 per month.

Section 4. That any person or persons violating any of the provisions

THE MONEY QUESTION

This is a question of interest to every one. Some have plenty while others have not enough. It is our business to supply those who have not enough with the necessary amount to meet their needs. Our terms are so easy that it is not necessary to worry about the money question. If you have furniture, piano, fixtures, horses or vehicles, come to us and secure the amount you need. We offer you the following weekly plan which pays out in 50 weeks:

- 60c is a weekly payment on a $25 loan.
- $1.20 is a weekly payment on a $50 loan.
- $2.40 is a weekly payment on a $100 loan.

Other amounts in the same proportion. If it does not suit you to pay weekly, we have other plans we would be glad to explain. We also make salary loans on easy terms.
