Personal and Social News.

BY MR. WARREN CLEMENTS.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Tuesday.

Aftermath meets with Mrs. Noah Hutton, north eleventh street. Merry-Go-Round holds afternoon and evening meeting at the home of Mrs. Ira Wood, northeast of the city. May Festival Chorus rehearsal in I. O. O. F. hall.

Christian Culture Class of the Christian church meets in church parlors.

Ladies' Auxiliary of South Eighth Street Friends' church holds an all day meeting in the church parlors.

C. W. B. M. of the Christian church meets with Mrs. W. S. Kaufman, south seventh street.

The last of the series of fortnightly whist parties at the country club was given last night. Mrs. John Nicholson, Miss Mary Shiveley and Miss Julia Hollingsworth being the hostesses. The attendance was quite large, nearly all of the members being present. Drive whist was the feature of the evening. Mrs. John Nicholson and Mr. Jonas Gaar winning the first prizes. Mrs. Jonas Gaar and Mr. Clarence Collins the second prizes. The consolation being awarded to Mrs. Cheney, of New York, and Mrs. Yarrington Barnes. The out-of-town guests for the evening were Mrs. Cheney, of New York, and Miss Ella Miller, of Terre Haute. Elegant refreshments were served. This series of whist parties have been given fortnightly during the past winter and the parties have proved very delightful social affairs.

The musical given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Downing, on north twelfth street, to the Ticknor club and guests was a success, both socially and musically. About forty persons were present, including a number of guests of the members. The out of town guests were Mrs. Miles C. Bland, of Cleveland, and Miss Mary Murdock, of Lafayette. The first half of the program was "American Music," that being the regular subject for the evening, and the last half "German Music." The selections from the great composers were delightfully rendered by Mrs. Downing, Mrs. Howard, Willard Rupe and Frank Braflett. The instrumental duets by Mesdames Howard and Downing were exceptionally fine, while Frank Braflett's singing was never excelled by him, and the violin solo by Willard Rupe was exquisitely played. The program was as follows:

Valse Caprice, American—Nevin.
Dreamy Days—Ashford.
At Parting—Rogers.
Oh, That We Two Were Maying—Nevin.
Narcissus—Nevin.
To a Water Lily; Shadow Dance—Mae Dowell.
The Last Hope—Gottschalk.
—German—
Gondoliera from Suite III.—Ries.

Light refreshments were served by the hostess after a most enjoyable evening. The next and the closing meeting of the year will be next Monday, when the club is invited to a 1 o'clock luncheon and afternoon and evening meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Kibbey, northeast of the city.

The entertainment given last evening at the Pythian temple by the Ladies' Aid society of the Second Presbyterian church, assisted by the Young Men's club, was entirely successful in every respect. The attendance was large and the net proceeds, which will be announced in a few days, amounted to a tidy sum. The Aid society and the young men deserve great praise for their efforts in making the entertainment such a success.

The high school orchestra furnished the music throughout the evening, and received many compliments on the excellence of its playing. The first part of the program, arranged by the Young Men's club, was as follows:

Dialogue—Five young men.
Recitation—Miss Mabel Wilcox.
Two pantomimes—Young men.
The latter part of the program, under the auspices of the Aid society, was under the leadership of Mrs. Thomas Jessup. The Peak sisters, with humorous recitations and songs, furnished the entertainment.

The Young People's society of the First Baptist church will give a social this evening at the church. A good program has been prepared, and every one is invited to come and enjoy it.

Mrs. Ralph Paige was the hostess for the meeting of the Magazine club yesterday afternoon at her home, on north twelfth street. The program opened with an article read by Mrs. Ostrander on "Some Famous Hymns and Their Authors," which was, perhaps, the best and most interesting article read before the society this season. The names of the most famous hymns, as given in this article, were "To Deum," "Rock of Ages," "Paradise, O, Paradise," and "From Greenland's Tey Mountains to India's Coral Strand," which are as popular today as they were at the time of their writing. Mrs. Ostrander told the occasion of the writing of many of these famous hymns and of many other points of interest regarding them. The paper was greatly appreciated by the members who heard it.

This was followed by an exceptionally entertaining paper on "School Children the World Over," in which was given an excellent account of the manners, customs, methods of attending, coming to and going from school as well as a fine account of the ways of the studying and reciting of the school children in the different lands. The paper dealt mostly with the school children of Korea and Japan, since the customs of these countries are perhaps the more widely at variance with those of the United States than the customs of other foreign countries. After the readings of the papers a general discussion was held by the members. The roll call was responded to with short but interesting items on current events by the fifteen members present. The hostess for the next meeting will be Mrs. Harry Weber, of south thirteenth street.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glander, when their daughter, Laura, was given in marriage to Frank Prevo, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dean, of Richmond, Ind., were among the out of town guests.—Dayton Press.

.....
About twenty young people pleasantly surprised Taylor Shriver last Saturday evening at his home, on south eleventh street. The evening was spent in games and dancing, after which a light luncheon was served.

.....
The Young Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. The afternoon was very delightfully spent in needle work. After the routine business of the afternoon a social hour was enjoyed.

.....
One of the most beautiful early summer weddings, that of Elizabeth McCormick and John Baggott, will be solemnized on April 12th. The bridal party will include Miss Marie Dormody, of Marion, John Nokely, of Richmond, Ind., and several others.—Dayton Press.
