A crowd of one thousand people saw the Richmond Champions wall-pole the Anderson Reds last night at the Coliseum by a score of 6 to 1. The game was interesting, but there was never a shadow of a doubt as to the outcome. The rooters were frequently given opportunities to cheer clever plays on the part of the locals.

Mansfield was in the game up to his ears and Brother Wodtke was ridden, sat on and chased about the floor from 9 to 10:15 o'clock. He not only lost several pounds from overwork, but a large share of his temper.

Both teams put up a great defensive game in the first period and not a score was made. The only foul of the game was made by Doherty in this period, the big blonde catching the ball in his hands to the delight of Arlie Latham, who sang out, "Ah, ha, Mr. Doherty, your caught with the goods."

In the second period Cunningham, jr., and Bone each scored twice for Richmond and Mercer made Anderson's only tally on a line drive which rolled out, but promptly showed back. After eight minutes of play in the third period Young Cunny turned a line drive of Poe's into the cage in a clever manner. After this goal George Jr., left the floor and Old Cunny replaced him. Before time was called the veteran tallied on a beautiful angle shot. This ended the scoring.

James Sebern, of the Elwood polo rink, is off on a mysterious jaunt of some sort and the impression prevails that he is in Dayton, Ohio, endeavoring to secure a rink in the Buckeye city. If this is done it is more than likely that a polo team will be formed there and that admission to the Western League will be asked, probably this year. Mr. Sebern, before leaving Elwood, would make no statement further than the effect that he would organize a semi-professional team and would meet teams from Indiana and other Ohio cities.

C. & O. Canal Sale.
Annapolis, Md., Dec. 23.—The board of public works will decide today upon the bids for the state's interest in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. This matter was scheduled to come up several days ago, but action was deferred until the attorney-general's advice could be secured on a point suggested by the State treasurer as to whether or not the purchaser of the state's interest would succeed to the exceptions from all taxation of the canal company's charter.

Dodge May Go to New York.

Galveston, Tex., Dec. 22.—The writ of habeas corpus recently issued interfering with the carrying out of the court's decision that Chas. F. Dodge be taken back to New York in connection with the famous Morse-Dodge-Morse marriage suit is returnable today and it is probable that after all he may be returned to New York. Dodge has made a desperate fight against leaving Texas, and he has friends who have fought to have him retained here as hard as he has fought to stay. His health is very poor and for sometime he has been confined to bed. At one time it was reported that Dodge said before he would be taken back to New York to testify concerning his marriage with Mrs. Morse, he would commit suicide.

THE DOORKEEPER.

The name of Milton Garrigus, Past Department Commander of the G. A. R., has been announced for the position of principal door-keeper for the Indiana House of Representatives. The Captain is too well known to need much introduction. His success is pretty well assured being the only candidate announced up to this time. His many friends in this part of the state are hopeful of his success. J. W. T.

SANTA CLAUS LETTERS RECEIVED

MANY CHILDREN WRITE MISSES TO GOOD ST. NICK

ASKING FOR AMANY GIFTS

All Will Be Remembered on Christmas Morning—Lots of Things Wanted.

The following letters, written in childish scrawl, addressed to Santa received yesterday, simple and rudely constructed as they are. These poor little tots, facing a cheerless Christmas, appeal to the reader with more force than the strongest editorial that any editor could pen. Their parents are too poor to buy them any thing but the bare necessities of life, so these little ones turn to the mythical god of childhood confidently and ask of him to remember them on the anniversary of Christ's birth. Those who can resist these touching appeals have hearts of stone. Remember the Palladium's Christmas fund to purchase gifts for poor children closes Friday morning so send in a little money without delay to help along a cause which is nothing if not worthy. We print two of the letters received:

Dear Santa Claus—I thought I would drop you a few lines hoping to get a present. My father is dead and my mother is living. I am 11 years old. My name is ——. My address is ——. P. S. I forgotten to say I am a boy

Dear Santa Claus—I would like to have a box of candy and nuts if you please. My father is blind and not able to buy anything and would you send him a pair of socks and my mother a pair of gaiters. I would like to have a little violin too. Dear Santa you will have to come in the door as we have no chimney.

P. S. I am 8 and 1/2 years old. The name and addresses to the letters are not given as they were received in confidence. The Palladium will recommend to the committee in charge of the fund that these two little boys be given Christmas presents.
