BLOOMFIELD.

Bloomfield, Oct. 24.—The membership of the A. O. U. W. lodge is increasing rapidly. Each week large classes of candidates are being initiated. On last Friday night eleven initiations were made at the local hall, and Saturday evening the lodge and candidates visited the Ottumwa lodge and the work of fifteen new members was done by the Ottumwa team. Seventy-five applications have been made and at least sixty will be taken in a short time. On Friday evening, State Auditor B. F. Carroll will be present and also E. F. Rekopf, the grand recorder of the order, of Des Moines, and Saturday evening, Nov. 4 a banquet will be held in the hall. The Misses Steckel, after spending the summer in the west, returned on Saturday, having been absent for eight months.

Robert Prevost, of Moulton, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. T. J. Prevost.

Mrs. Ringhaus, of Centerville, spent Sunday at the Steckel home. She intends spending the winter in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stein and family of Ottumwa, spent Sunday with E. Leeb and family.

Miss Inez Scarborough, after spending a week with her parents, returned today to the Iowa Wesleyan university to resume her studies. The Fabius township Sunday school convention was held at Monterey with a good attendance and an interesting program. The special music of the day was furnished by a quartet composed of N. S. Miller, M. F. Penrod, Prof. H. C. Brown and John Collins. The teacher question was discussed by F. M. Hinson, H. C. Brown and others. "The Use and Abuse of Sunday School Helps," was the subject of talk by C. L. Marmon. The meeting resulted in the adoption of resolutions to organize a Sunday school at that place, which will be the first held in two years. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Mrs. Mary Stober. Vice President—Abner Brown. Secretary—J. G. Morgan. Normal secretary—Ira Foster. Home department—Mrs. Byron Lamb. Temperance secretary—Mrs. Sam T. Jeff. Primary secretary—Mrs. Chas. Lamb. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Toombs spent Sunday with relatives in Moulton.

J. W. Thomas, of Conesville, has rented the Wm. Baumgarten farm west of the city and will move there about the first of the year. The business was transacted through S. L. Berry, who also rented the James Hull farm to L. P. Bresden, of Conesville.

Captain J. O. Warrington left Monday for Keokuk. They have been drawn as jurors in the federal court.

The marriage of Everett Kinnman to Miss Lure Pirtle, of Savannah, took place Sunday at the home of the officiating pastor, Elder M. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Kinnman will make their home on a farm near Savannah.

Leigh Sproles, of Cincinnati, Ohio, after spending a week with Miss Helen Davies, departed Sunday for his home accompanied as far as Ottumwa by Miss Davies. J. O. Linaberry having completed his work as court reporter in Centerville, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Mary Young, and left Monday for Ottumwa to report for Judge Elchelberger.

Mrs. T. J. Prevost left Monday for Monterey, California, where she was called to the bedside of her son, Ira Prevost, who is very low with consumption, and is not expected to recover.

Mr. Prevost went west some months ago hoping to improve his health, by a change of climate.

Bloomfield, Oct. 21.—C. A. Hazlewood, traveling salesman for a fruit house in Ottumwa, returned home on Thursday evening, quite sick, as the result of an accident sustained on the Milwaukee railway running into Trenton, Mo. The accident was caused by the engineer's failure to see a danger signal until the train which was running at rapid speed, was too near to be drawn up slowly and bringing it up with a jerk. Mr. Hazlewood was thrown from the seat. His injuries although not serious are painful and will confine him to his room for a few days.

Andrew Taylor left Thursday for Sloat Springs, Ark., to settle the estate of Samuel Steele, after which he will continue the trip to Los Angeles, Cal., where he will make his future home, having sold his interest in the John H. Taylor farm to his brother, Lee Taylor.

S. O. Meredith, formerly of this city, when deputy treasurer under John Bond, has been elected cashier of a new bank to be established in Queen City, Mo., on December 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Guernsey have received news of the birth of a baby girl at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. B. Kelly, of Bisby, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCharran have received news of the birth of a grand son at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. I. Tins, of Chicago.

A good deal of steam is consumed in calling for it.

MUNTERVILLE.

Munterville, Oct. 23.—Paul Martin Lindeen, the little son of Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Lindeen, died Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 17, at the age of 3 years and 5 days. Short services were held at the residence last Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after which the funeral cortege proceeded to the church, where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. Gunberg, of Ottumwa. The Sunday school sang the hymn which the deceased used to often sing at his young age. "Gather All the Little Ones to Jesus." The church choir rendered two selections as follows, "Just Beside the River Angels Wait," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The remains were then viewed by the audience, after which they were borne to the Munterville cemetery by four boys, Ed Johnson, Carl Gustafson, Earl Gustafson and Earl Burgeson, and lowered in their last resting place as the choir sang, "Nearer My God to Thee." Little Paul leaves his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Lindeen and two sisters, Mabel and Gertie, to mourn his loss, together with a large number of relatives and friends who all join in sincere sympathy with the family in their sad bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson and his brother, Julius Fromm, of this place.

Miss Finlay Maxwell and son, Albert are in Mystic this week.

HAYESVILLE. Hayesville, Oct. 23.—Rev. Pettit Allred his appointment here last Sunday evening. Quite a large audience was present.

Noah Jacobs and family have moved from Kansas here. Mrs. Emma Beasley is visiting with relatives in Des Moines. Mrs. Jessie Richardson visited with her mother, Mrs. John Palmer last Monday. Mrs. Herman and daughter, Miss Blanche, visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fredrickson Thursday evening. During an electric storm Monday evening, Ed Veller's barn was struck by lightning and burned. Between four and five hundred bushels of grain and some hay were burned.

Eddyville Tribune Changes Owners. Eddyville, Oct. 24.—(Special)—Postmaster W. W. DeLong who has owned and published the Eddyville Tribune for the past eight years has sold the paper, plant and business to C. Sturgeon of Maxwell, Story county. The new owner took charge Monday.

DARBYVILLE. Darbyville, Oct. 24.—A. J. Swenson is laying the foundation of his new residence on the site of the old one, which was recently burned.

O. G. Woodward, general merchant of this place, was in Centerville on business Saturday.

All the coal companies at this place are doing big business this week. Mr. Fromm, of Arizona, is visiting
