CATTLE UP 10 CENTS.

Good Steers 10 Cents Higher—Con sumption of Beef Curtailed by the High Prices.

Stock Yards, Chicago, April 15.—Supply of 5,000 cattle moved in fair season, though preference was again given heavy, light and medium weight classes. These sold strong. Receipts higher than Wednesday, showing 100 to 200 advance on last Monday. Heavy, high priced grades, however, were dull and unchanged from Wednesday's prices. High retail cost of beef is causing eastern demand for heavy classes. Tops sold at $8.40, while the yearlings made $7.90. Stock prices were firm, showing 10@15 gain on a week ago. Butchers went at 25c gain for the week. Calves met bid demand at Wednesday's rates, while feeders also sold at unchanged levels. Prices had the following range:

Medium to good steers	7.00@7.55
Inferior to fair steers	6.50@7.05
Fat cows and heifers	4.50@5.75
