He Wrote The Letter

Richard Carle of comic opera fame, lately engaged as cook a Swedish giantess who proved unsatisfactory. On departure she asked for a written testimonial, and Mr. Carle presented her with the following: 'To whom it may concern: I have lately had in my employ Hulda Swanson, who was engaged to cook for a family of three and do such things as would be possible when not cooking. Un-der this head might come a little dusting and dishwashing and answering the doorbell. Taking these things into account, I wish to say that Hulda is absolutely the tallest cook I ever saw.
