Horned Sheep.
In their wild state all sheep were furnished with a pair of horns, but the number never exceeded two until some curious specimens were discovered in several isolated sections of Asia. These species had from four to six horns, the upper set being the largest, the other two being graduated with the smallest ones just above the eyes. Curiously enough, the two lower sets always curve upward, while the large pair curl downward, as do the horns of our domesticated sheep.

Huck Finn Was Considered 'Harmful.'
It is interesting to remember when one sees "Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" listed as one of the 30 books necessary for all-around culture by the New York public library, that when the book was new, some 25 years ago, the Boston public library and others about the country refused to place the book in the circulating departments. The reason, as published, was that the book would be harmful to the youthful mind.—Milwaukee Journal.

Could Alleviate That.
"This patient also claims to have a broken heart." "Well, we can help that, too. Give him that pretty nurse." —Louisville Courier-Journal.

OHIOAN HEIR TO 3,600,000 LEV

Patrolman Joe Bokau, who came here from Bulgaria but is now a member of the American Legion at Toledo, has been notified that he is sole heir to an estate of 3,600,000 lev. Before the war this would have amounted to $750,000 in American money, but at the present rate of exchange is $40,000. Patrolman Bokau says, "I fought for this country, and I'll stay and enjoy my $40,000 here."

You'll Come To Maynes For Your Groceries

A great many folks have stopped "shopping around" for GROCERIES. Experience has taught them the best and cheapest place to buy. If you are still "shopping," why keep it up until you are thoroughly satisfied as to choice. We predict that, eventually, you will end up by buying your GROCERIES of SCRIMSHER AND MAYNE

During harvest time in particular, you'll want to trade where your dollars will go the farthest. You don't want to trade at three or four different places either. A combination of low prices, tested quality of merchandise and a service always designed to satisfy YOU, makes our store particularly appealing at this time.
