One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. $12,500 for a Prescription.

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription, changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $12,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases. They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably. There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address JOHN J. FULTON COMPANY, 420 Montgomery St. San Francisco, Cal.

Use Vests as a Shield.
J. D. Ross, a lecturer on Persia, says that the vests worn by Persian ladies are more of a privilege than a punishment. Screened behind it woman may walk wherever she pleases and even her own husband dare not question her movements. Doubtless many Persian ladies make the most of their opportunities. The Persians, as a rule, do not think it right to take wine, but as nearly all their poetry is in praise of the flowing bowl it will be inferred that they frequently do violence to their conscience. Occasionally, however, they are seized with remorse; whereupon they destroy the wine of their Armenian neighbors.

Are We Smoking Too Much?
The tobacco bill of the American people has grown to an enormous size. The people of the country use more tobacco and snuff every year. While the men spend more money on tobacco, the women are doing a larger business with it than ever before. There were 310,654,639 pounds of tobacco and 18,840,747 pounds of snuff withdrawn from warehouses for consumption during the last fiscal year not counting 8,345,217 pounds with drawn for export, making a total of the two articles of 327,840,603 pounds used, against 328,464,426 pounds in the preceding fiscal year.

One Woman's Wisdom.
Green—"I don't see how Slicker's wife manages to get along with him."
Brown—"Why not?"
Green—"He's such a slippery chap."
Brown—"Oh, she walks over him rough shod."

Different.
"Did you say he was one of the luminaries of the legal profession?"
"No. I didn't say he was a luminary. I said he was one of the light quantities."

Transpired he had an able-bodied cow outside awaiting shipment to Fall River, and what he really said was "cow," instead of "two." I had sold him a ticket for the transportation of a cow.—Boston Herald.

Inaudible move day and night,
And noiseless grows the flower;
Silent are pulsing wings of light,
And voiceless fleets the hour.
The moon utters no word when she
Walks through the heavens bare;
The stars forever silent flee,
And songless fleets through air.
The deepest love is voiceless, too;
Heart sorrow makes no moan;
How still the sephyras when they woo!
How calm the rose full blown!
The bird winging the evening sky
Flies onward without song;
The crowding years as they pass by
Flow on in muteest throng.
The fishes glide through liquid deep
And never speak a word;
The angels round about us sweep,
And yet no voice is heard.
The highest thoughts no utterance find
The holiest hope is dumb;
In silence grows the immortal mind,
And, speechless, deep joys come.

Considerate Barry.
Little Barry, aged 6, and Mr. Russe, of much maturer years, had been great chums; so, when the latter died, Barry's parents decided to keep him in ignorance of his loss. A few days after the funeral, however, Barry's parents took him along to pay a visit to the bereaved widow, but before entering the house the youngster was admonished to refrain from mentioning "Buddy's" name—for such was Barry's nickname for his friend. Shortly after the formal greetings had been exchanged the tearful widow produced a tynpse of her late lamented husband; then, affectionately embracing the lad and pointing to Bud's picture, she asked: "Who is that, Barry?" to which the obedient child, in a sympathetic whisper, replied, "I'll tell you to-morrow."

Ticket for a Cow.
While I was station agent on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, a few years ago, a Portuguese and companion came to the ticket window one day, and the spokesman, Antonio Rose by name, called for a "teeket to Fall Reev." I sold him the required "teeket" but he still seemed to have something bothering him, and shortly came to the window again, and said something which sounded like "two." Thinking his friend wanted to go to "Fall Reev," I naturally thought he wanted the second "teeket," and forthwith sold him one. It transpired he had an able-bodied cow outside awaiting shipment to Fall River, and what he really said was "two," instead of "two." I had sold him a ticket for the transportation of a cow.—Boston Herald.

FRANK QUEEN PUB. CO. (Inc.),
ALBERT J. BORIS, PUBLISHER,
MAYAGUE, 47 W. 28TH ST., NEW YORK.

WE have closed a contract with the publishers of the Los Angeles Times which is of the greatest importance, as it enables us to offer our readers our paper and the Illustrated Weekly Magazine issued by them at a figure far below their regular subscription price and only slightly in excess of the charge we make for paper.

We wish to direct the readers' attention to the publishers' announcement which appears in this issue and request that after investigating the offer we make you write at once for sample copies, which will be mailed free of charge. A request written on a postal card, giving name and address, is all that is necessary, and the application carries with it no obligation to become a subscriber. It is practically certain, however, that if you inquire into the merits of our proposition you will gladly avail yourself of the opportunity to obtain such a vast amount of good reading matter as our offer permits.

The Times Magazine consists of 23 to 32 large pages which, if made into the magazine of average size, would require 120 pages. The contents is the work of the brightest writers in the newspaper profession and the articles embrace every subject likely to interest those who appreciate all that is good in journalism. The pictures are in keeping with the text and the political cartoons reproduced from all the large newspapers are eloquent stories in themselves. The magazine is published each week and can be obtained by subscribers of this paper at a price that barely covers the cost of mailing, and when the fact is borne in mind that the regular charge for the magazine is $2.50 per year, the favorable opportunity we have made with the publishers becomes apparent. Our arrangement makes it possible for us to offer you our paper and The Times Magazine at less than you could buy the Illustrated Weekly if you subscribed direct. Read the announcement first for a sample copy, then let us hear from you.
