Honor Among Brigands.
A recent fight with brigands in badlands resulted in the death of a soldier. The brigands sent $2,500 to his widow. Bushrangers who held up a favorite Australian official discovered later the identity of their victim. They returned his horse, with his wallet tied about his neck, and his money and watch inside. Even the Chinese pirates have some honor, a consul reports, and will pay for the life of vessels which they have commanded for their expeditions.

Somewhat involved.
"Don't you love me?"
"Yes, dear, but I'm already engaged."
"Break your engagement."
"Oh George, that wouldn't be honorable. An engagement is a sacred thing and not lightly to be entered into or broken off. Besides—"
"Well!"
"Well, I'm engaged to two men, and that makes it even worse."
