LETTER FROM J. G. MILLER.

C. H. GREEN, Esq.—Dear Sir: Since I addressed my fellow-citizens of Howard, at Fayette, on Monday last, I have learned that notwithstanding the explicit avowal of my decided opposition to the Wilnot proviso, and the declaration that if elected, and the question was unsettled, I would vote against it, and oppose its passage by every means in my power, I have been represented as being in favor of that obnoxious measure. To those who heard me upon that occasion, it is unnecessary to say that such statements are untrue. But I beg leave to say, that I may not be misunderstood or misrepresented, that I am now and have ever been opposed to the Wilnot Proviso, in every shape in which that question has been presented, and if elected, will continue to give it my active opposition.

Very respectfully,
Your friend,
And ob't servant,
JOHN G. MILLER.

COLUMBIA CONVENTION.

NOMINATION OF A. McKINNEY—His Declaration.—The Benton Convention met at Columbia on Monday last. Twenty delegates were in attendance, representing six counties, viz: Cooper, Moniteau, Cole, Howard, Monroe and Boone.
JOHN MILLER presided over the Convention, assisted by WM. CANOLE, of Howard; and L. J. EASTIN, of Boone, acting as Secretary.
Gen. G. W. Miller, Lt. Gov. Price, and L. J. Eastin, addressed the Convention, and are represented as having been very bitter against the Green faction. Strong resolutions were passed, and earnest protestations made in behalf of their nominee.

ABRAM McKINNEY, of Randolph, was unanimously nominated for Congress. Mr. McKinney was at Fayette, attending the Circuit Court now in session, and although not officially informed of his nomination, declines the greatness of the partiality of his friends would thrust upon him. Whether the company he was in at the head quarters of the clique, had anything to do with his declaration or not, we leave others to form their own opinions, but it looks to us a little suspicious.

CANDIDATES.—In Carroll county we learn that Dr. D. H. Dewey, (Whig) is a candidate for Representative.—Creel has no opposition for re-election as Sheriff.

In Lincoln county, Wharton R. Barton and Captain Phillips are rival candidates for the Circuit Clerkship, vacated by the resignation of Judge Flood. Col. A. W. Flournoy, (anti-Benton), is a candidate for re-election to the State Senate.

Rev. W. D. SHUMATE, Agent for the American Colonization Society, will address the citizens of Glasgow and vicinity on the 2d Saturday in June, in the Methodist Church, at 11 o'clock. A. M. and at the Christian church, at 3 P. M.

ACCIDENT ON THE PLAINS.—Rev. John Jamison, of the M. E. Church, is on the road to California. Recently, on the plains, he was accidentally shot with a pistol, the ball striking him under the chin, and fracturing the lower jaw. He is fast recovering.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The Whigs of the First Congressional District held a Convention to nominate a candidate, at Cape Girardeau, on Tuesday, the 28th ult.

Gen. N. W. WATKINS, was chosen President; and JOHN LEACH, of Saint Louis, and JOSEPH W. RUSSELL, of Cape Girardeau, acted as Secretaries.

A. B. Chambers, of the Republican, John F. Darby, of St. Louis, and S. A. Caruthers, of Madison, were put in nomination, and the following ballots were had.

First Ballot—Chambers 9, Darby 3, Caruthers 14.

Second Ballot—Chambers 14, Caruthers 13.

Third Ballot—Chambers 14, Caruthers 13.

Fourth Ballot—Chambers 14, Caruthers 13.

Fifth Ballot—Chambers 14, Caruthers 13.

Sixth Ballot—Chambers 14, Caruthers 13.

Seventh Ballot—Caruthers 12, Darby 15.

And on the last ballot the vote stood, Caruthers 8, Darby 18.

On motion of Col. J. W. Russell, of Cape Girardeau.

Resolved, That JOHN F. DARBY, Esq., be declared unanimously the Whig candidate for Congress of the First Congressional District. Said resolution was adopted by acclamation.

The following resolutions were introduced by Mr. Smith of St. Louis, and adopted.

Resolved, By the several delegations of this Convention assembled, that the report of the Committee of Thirteen in the U. S. Senate, setting forth the present distracted and alarming state of our national interests, and urging the preservation and perpetuity of our glorious confederacy, in opposition to discord and disunion, meets our hearty, cheerful, and undivided co-operation, as the best remedy to insure continued prosperity to our common country, and cause peace and harmony to triumph over the present disaffected materials that form a part of the American Congress, and we sincerely trust that the same may be adopted speedily, and become the sentiment of all parties.

Resolved, That our Senators and Representatives in Congress, are hereby requested to sustain, by all proper means and measures, the passage of the same.

Resolved, That the conciliatory, compromising and patriotic spirit that animated Henry Clay, that great champion of compromises, to throw himself for the third time in the breach to secure the Union from threatened thraldom and dissolution, and preserve unbroken, untouched, sacred and eternal, the constitution, as a crowning glory of his matchless and distinguished life.

The nomination of Mr. Darby was warmly greeted by the St. Louis press. He will make an able representative, and should receive a cordial support from the Whigs of the District.

WHIGS OF RANDOLPH, AWAKE!

HUNTSVILLE, Mo., May 30, 1850.

DEAR SIR:—Without any caucus or convention, the Whig ticket for this county I believe is complete for the coming contest in August. Nicholas Dysart and Benjamin Haley, two good and true Whigs, are out for the Legislature. The Democrats have been working the wires for some time past to effect a compromise, and run a Whig and Democrat. They found the old saying was a true one, that a house divided cannot stand. They are so split among themselves that they feared they could not rally the different factions, and unite their force upon any two Democrats; hence their willingness, and their magnanimous generosity, in being satisfied to send a Whig and a Democrat to represent Randolph county. But the Whigs are too old to be caught in any such trap; they have battled too long, and under such adverse circumstances, that they are not willing now, when they see a small glimmering of hope rising to their vision, to yield half their ground, when such flattering prospects are ahead for the whole. The Democrats have but one candidate out yet. They have been waiting patiently to see if their bait would not catch fish. Col. M. Horner has declared himself a candidate, so I understand; a very clever man by-the-by, but must too much of a Democrat to represent Randolph this time. I suppose now that the Whigs have candidates in the field, they will look around and bring out another man. Col. H. is anti-Benton, strong; and so will their other candidate be, I predict; and if I am not very much mistaken, there are at least a few Democrats in the county yet who love old Tom too well to support any man who denounces him, and supports the Missouri resolutions.

Hardin Taylor is the Whig candidate for Sheriff, and a very popular man, and deservedly so—he will make a strong race. Isaac Wilcox, a man universally liked by all who know him, I expect will be the Whig candidate for Assessor. He is adverse to running, but his friends seem to think they cannot let him off. With such a ticket, the Whigs in old Randolph are bound to be successful. They are all men of integrity and moral worth, and can and will unite the whole Whig force, and that is all that is necessary for success.

Bean and Hancock Jackson, are the candidates for the Senate in this District, and from all the indications at present, Bean will win the race.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

RANDOLPH.

Wm. H. Switzer, Esq., has been appointed by the Governor of the State, as Notary Public for the city of Brunswick, Missouri.

WASHINGTON, May 29.

SENATE.—Mr. Clay presented a petition from citizens of Berks County,

By Telegraph, for the St. Louis Press. WASHINGTON, May 28.

SENATE.—The Senate proceeded to consider Mr. Bradbury's resolution relative to removals from office.

Mr. Webster moved that the subject be postponed until Thursday next.—Mr. Hale wanted to know if Mr. Bradbury would object to going a little farther, say to the year 1841, and request an account of removals made then.

Mr. Torney addressed the Senate in relation to removals recently made in Tennessee, charging the President with having violated his pledges by removing high-minded, honorable and competent men from offices of trust and profit in that State, to the injury of their feelings and reputation.

The resolution was then postponed till Thursday.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of the Compromise bill. Mr. Underwood, having the floor, addressed the Senate, contending that those who had gone before him had assumed wrong premises when they assured us that Congress had no power to legislate for territories; he proceeded to argue that Congress possessed that power in various ways, and that it was given by implication in the constitution. He also argued the propriety and philanthropy of permitting the diffusion of slavery.

When Mr. Underwood concluded, it was proposed to take the question upon Mr. Davis' amendment.

Mr. Berrien remarked that the Senate was not present, and hoped that before so important a question was taken, some intimation would be given of the time.

Mr. Dayton had supposed that there were other Senators who designed speaking on the amendment. He intended, at some stage of the bill, to address the Senate on the general subject; there were, however, many absent who would desire to be present when the vote was taken. He hoped then, that the taking of the question would be postponed.

Mr. King pressed an immediate vote, and desired to address the Senate upon the general subject after the amendment had been disposed of.

Mr. Chase moved to amend Mr. Davis' amendment by adding the following "provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as authorizing or permitting the introduction of slaves or of holding persons as property in said territories."

Mr. Dayton moved the postponement of the further consideration of the question until to-morrow at 1 o'clock. Negatived.

Mr. Clay said, he understood the purpose of Mr. Davis' amendment to be this—a provision excepting from restrictions upon the Legislatures of Territories the power to pass a law for the protection of the rights of property held or introduced into a territory conformably to the constitution and laws of the U. S. He had no particular objection to that amendment, because it only asserts an effect which would follow without its introduction.

Mr. Davis denied that he designed or desired his amendment to carry any implication as to what were the rights of the South under the constitution; he never had and never should permit Congress to measure those rights; he simply desired Congress to abstain from touching those rights either way.

Mr. Hale spoke.
Mr. Dodge, of Iowa, followed and denounced the doctrine held by Mr. Hale and by those who think with him; he declared his opposition to the Wilnot proviso in every shape and form.

After some debate between Mr. Dayton and Mr. Berrien, in relation to the effect of the pending amendment, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House went into committee of the Whole, and proceeded to consider the special order of the day, being territorial business bill, making further appropriations for public buildings in Minnesota and Oregon. After some remarks by Mr. Sibley the bill was laid aside to be reported to the House, as were also the bills providing for the construction of certain roads in Minnesota, as also the Senate bill authorizing the President to enter into treaty with the Indians of Oregon for the extinguishment of their claims to lands west of the Cascade mountains, and regulating trade with them.

The bill to appoint a surveyor general for Oregon, and to grant lands to actual settlers in that territory was debated without being disposed of.

The committee rose, when the bill making appropriation for public buildings in Minnesota and Oregon was passed. After which the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, May 29.

SENATE.—Mr. Clay presented a petition from citizens of Berks County,

Penn., asking a modification of the tariff, so as to afford adequate protection to the coal and iron interests; he remarked that he had heard with regret that their interests, as well as other manufacturing interests in various parts of the country, were greatly suffering; of one thing we might be assured, that until this agitation of slavery was disposed of, in one way or the other, none of their interest could receive any attention on the part of Congress; he moved that the petition be laid on the table. Agreed to.

Mr. Seward moved for the printing of the correspondence between the Executive department and Generals Persifer F. Smith and Riley, in California sent into the Senate a few days since. Agreed to.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr. Jones, it was ordered that when the House adjourned to-day it be till 8 o'clock, when the adjournment be made till Monday next for the purpose of having the hall put in summer trim.

Bill for constructing certain roads in Minnesota was passed.

The bill authorizing the President to negotiate a treaty with the Indians of Oregon for relinquishing their claim to lands was taken up and passed. The House then went into a committee of the whole and resumed the bill to create the office of Surveyor General of public lands in Oregon, to provide for surveys and make donations to settlers of public lands; the amendment pending was to confine donations of land to free whites.

Mr. Giddings earnestly opposed it, and spoke of the intelligence and patriotism of many blacks. Mr. Fitch said, whether it was adopted or not, it would make no difference, as the people of Oregon had excluded negroes, because they amalgamated with and led the Indians to mischief.

Mr. Sackett contended that the legislature of that territory had no power to exclude any colored people, and if congress sees fit to make a grant of land to whites, the blacks had a right to a grant for their benefit.

Mr. Conrad thought that Mr. Giddings was in some degree concerned with the negro race, he was of opinion that it would benefit both races to diffuse over the country on the Pacific.—Mr. McMillan replied to Giddings and said, it was true that Virginia blood was of noble character whether in view of white or black (laughter.) if he (Giddings) goes to Virginia, he will be invited to associate with that race of which he is the peculiar friend. Several others made remarks, when the amendment to insert free white was agreed to, 67 to 51. The House then adjourned.

PITTSBURGH, May 28.

A Miss Barkley a young girl of 17 years of age, committed suicide at 5 o'clock this morning by hanging herself.

CINCINNATI, May 28, P. M.

The General Assembly of the Old School Presbyterian Church adjourned last night, sine die—it will meet next May in Saint Louis.

NEW YORK, May 23.

Little has been done to-day to indicate the effect of the Foreign news; the market is generally unsettled, and it is difficult to give accurate quotations. The prices of breadstuffs favor the seller. Provisions unchanged. A fair business doing in Pork at $10 50 14 to $10 62 1/2c. per bbl for mess, and $8 75c for prime. Lard is steady, sales of Ohio at 6 3 1/2 to 7c for prime and extra.

The demand for Tobacco is on the increase, Kentucky quoted at $6 to 6 50 for inferior, $7 to 8 for middling, and $9 to 10 for selection.

WASHINGTON, May 29.

The Charleston Courier publishes a letter from Havana, which states that some convicts whom Lopez liberated at Cardenas refused to join him, and the departure of the expeditionists was hastened by their observing the people of the country flocking in with hostile demonstrations. The government has declared the island in a state of blockade; but it is believed that merchant vessels in lawful trade will not be exposed to any inconvenience.

In the fight at Cardenas, a company of lancers who charged on Lopez's troops were all killed. Lopez had possession of Cardenas 18 hours, when reinforcements of troops from Matanzas arrived. The fighting then commenced in earnest. The expeditionists had 30 killed and wounded, and the Spaniards from 100 to 150 killed and wounded. They continued fighting and retreating until the expeditionists gained the steamer Creole and sailed.

The vessel was followed by the Spanish steamer Pizarro. Lieut. Jones, of Alabama, one of the wounded who received a ball through his right side at Key West. The letter giving an account of the landing and fight says, that when the expeditionists were within six yards of the Governor's house they were received with showers of bullets from the tops of the houses, windows and piazzas which wounded Cols. Wheat and O'Hara and many men, but none mortally; the expeditionists returned the fire with great spirit. The battle lasted one hour, when a white flag was shown from the Governor's house. Soon after several citizens renewed the firing, when the expeditionists set fire to the Governor's house, compelling him to surrender with his staff and 100 men in all, who were placed in the barracks.—The expeditionists remained in quiet possession of the city till evening, with the exception of Gen. Lopez and staff and Captain Logan, of Ky., with 25 men, who went on board the Creole. At this juncture, 200 lancers and cavalry made their appearance, and the fight was resumed which lasted nearly an hour; 12 of the expeditionists were killed and wounded, including Capt. Logan, who died subsequently on board the Creole. The Spaniards lost all except 12 so says our dispatch. Capt. Smith was slightly wounded. Quarter master Loxley, of Miss., who was wounded has since died; Maj. Hawkins, of Ky., is seriously wounded, one of Lopez's staff is wounded and another missing.

Lawyers as well as editors regard California as the land of promise. We notice that the somewhat noted Wm. Claude Jones of versatile genius late of Springfield Mo., and Phil. L. Edwards, a talented lawyer of Ray County, are both among the departed. Edwards has been on the Pacific slope before, and Jones has always been rolling about the country.—Brunswick.

Col. Benton can now revisit the state with safety, as the redoubtable Claud seems to prefer digging after gold to his "heart's blood."

Celebrated as the Arabs were, centuries ago, in the healing art, many of their preparations were of great worth and amazing virtue. H. G. Farrell's celebrated Arabian Liniment is a composition of balsams, from rare plants and aromatic gums peculiar to Arabia, and it was by the use of the articles composing this great medicine, that even the wild Arab of the desert performed such miraculous cures. It is equally good for man and beast; therefore it is hailed as the greatest blessing of the age. See advertisement.

FROM DR. WILSON.

I have been the family physician of Mr. Wiseman for the last twelve years; during that time Mrs. Wiseman has been suffering from diseased lungs, and finally all the symptoms of pulmonary consumption appeared. All the usual remedies failed. At this time she commenced using Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar. It acted like a charm. In a few days she declared herself nearly well. I have no doubt of its virtues, and would cheerfully recommend it to persons afflicted with diseased lungs. Yours, &c., R. H. WILSON, M. D.

THE largest, best appointed, and most perfect company ever organized, and all the stars in the country, native and foreign, will exhibit in Glasgow, on Saturday June 8th, 1850 for one day only, presenting a series of Arena novelties in a style of grace, beauty, skill and daring so infinitely superior to any attempts heretofore made that a true description of their excellence would scarcely be credited. Among the most celebrated members of this Unparalleled Mammoth Troupe, who will appear in a great variety of Hippo-Dramatic scenes, Corporeal wonders, Equestrian Acts, Herculean feats, Olympic games, Acrobatic poses, and other pleasing novelties are—

MR. LEVI J. NORTH, MR. A. LEVI, LL. SIG. LUI GERMANT, MR. T. NUNN, MADAM T. NUNN, L. BELLE CAROLINE.

Mons. J. Le Roy, Mr. A. Levi, Mr. B. Burnish, Mr. T. Nunn, Mr. John Harper, Mr. M. Carlin, Mr. John Harper, Mr. T. O. Prince, Mr. Strasser, Mr. Herr Hess, Mr. Diavolo, Little Willie.

MADAME ISIDORE ELLA.

And the two superior wits and "droll" Clowns, BILL WORELL & PUSS HORNER.

The Musical department is under the direction of the great Signor Messmer known in Europe as the "Cornelia King."

In addition to the feats of this illustrious company another great feature is the performance of Mr. North's wonderful dancing horse Tammany. The grace, style, and time of his dancing, the manner in which he executes a Polka, Cracovienne, Mazurka or other fashionable dances, strikes every beholder with astonishment and his apparently reasoning and imitative faculties, are always received with deafening applause.

The horses, trappings, decorations, properties and outfit are as good as the most liberal expenditure could procure.

The Pavilion is large, comfortably seated, and well arranged. Gentlemen and polite ladies are constantly in attendance. Order and decorum strictly enforced, and no intoxicated persons admitted.

Doors open at 2 in the afternoon, and 7 in the evening. Tickets to Dress circle, and Gents Boxes 50 cents, Children 25, Servants 25.
