The management of the Majestic theater has secured for reproduction at tonight's and tomorrow night's performances the famous, historic production of Sir Walter Scott's "Lady of the Lake." These films have been secured and reproduced by the stars of the Vitagraph company and are the best now placed before the show going public. The fact that this special feature film will entail some additional expense, has compelled the theater management to announce that a slight additional charge will be made for admission tonight and tomorrow night. The price will be fifteen cents instead of ten for adults and the regular 10-cent price will hold for children. Mr. Woodmansee said, "We either had to raise the price slightly and give our patrons the advance up-to-date pictures, or wait until the pictures were older and for rent at a cheaper rate." Without doubt this playhouse will be crowded at each performance and Mr. Woodmansee urges that all who wish the best seats should come early.—adv.

Several Bemidji people went to Cass Lake in autos Saturday evening to attend the home talent vaudeville given in the Lyric theater for the benefit of the Commercial club. During the week, vaudeville numbers had been put on in connection with the regular moving pictures but on Saturday night the features included the numbers given during the week with several new ones added. Miss Dorothy Humes was in charge of the program and not only directed but took an active part. Each number was enthusiastically received and the Bemidji people at once suggested that a similar week be given in Bemidji this fall. The numbers consisted of a chorus song, "Skeleton Rag," a duet by Miss Humes and Miss Donna Lyan, of Bemidji, "I'll Meet You at Half Past Two," character songs by Miss Humes, "Nobody Loves Me," by Dana V. Wardner, "Rum Tum Tiddle," by a chorus, "Boogie Man Moon," by the Misses Pearl Williams, Madeline Smith, Adele Raboin, and Marie Christensen, an Indian dance by Miss Humes, Miss Lyan and Miss Margaret Parshall, and an ensemble chorus number, "Oh, You Circus Day." The grizzly bear dancing in the last number was encored several times. Every seat in the house was sold. Those who made the trip were Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Lyan and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. White in the Lyan car; Mr. and Mrs. George French and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Riddell in the French car; Miss Ruby Henrionnet, Roland Henrionnet, by Russell, Maurice Ryan and Harold Dane in the Henrionnet car; Mr. and Mrs. George Kretz, Mrs. George T. Baker and guest, Miss Grace Baker of Fenton, Michigan, and Mrs. G. E. Carson in the Kretz car; Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Sanborn and Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Stanton in the Sanborn car.
