Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codeine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

SEVEN KILLED IN DESTRUCTIVE BLAZE

Another Tragedy in Milwaukee's "Death Block."

Milwaukee, Oct. 28.—Seven firemen are dead and a score injured, while damage estimated at $500,000 was wrought by the fire that destroyed the building occupied by the Good-year Rubber company.

The dead and injured were buried under a wall which collapsed following an explosion after the fire had been burning for several hours. The dead and injured were: forty, pipe-fitter; John P. Henschel, thirty, driver; John P. Henschel, thirty, pipe-fitter; George Henschel, thirty-seven, aid to Assistant Chief; William L. Graff, thirty-four, pipe-fitter; Captain John Doyle, fireboat No. 29; Walter J. Freytag, twenty-three, fireboat No. 29.

The fire started in the basement, but despite the efforts of the firemen spread upward for two hours.

When the explosion came, which Fire Chief Clancy said he could not explain, it threw burning embers through upper floors and little remains of the property save smoking debris.

The block in which the fire broke out is known as Milwaukee's "death block," there having been no fewer than eighty-two lives snuffed out within its boundaries in the city's history.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at Once When Backache or Bladder Bothers—Meat Forms Uric Acid.

No man or woman who eat meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

WAISTCOATS LEND DISTINCTION TO SUITS AND GOWNS

The well dressed woman wears to tea in the afternoon a simple, smartly cut frock of satin, crepe de chine or duvetyn, plain or figured. If the dress be of plain material the omnipresent vest is brocade or figured, showing dainty Oriental color combinations, and if the gown is figured the vest is plain. There is scarcely a gown that does not show the vest in one form or another. It may be only a couple of inches wide or it may be the regulation waistcoat, but it invariably lends distinction. Dull blue duvetyn in 788 was touched to brightness by the vest of figured silk, duvetyn and the girdle of burnt orange satin. These rich, strong colors may be used boldly this season if handled cleverly so as to avoid crudeness. Often several of them are used on one costume with a most charming effect. The waistcoat may show in its brocade bits of blue, gold and cerise, and what could be smarter on a dark suit or gown?

The blouse of this model shows a drop shoulder, and the skirt is a two-piece peg-top. A model full of lace gives a finishing touch to the collar. To copy in size 36 4 3/4 yards of 36 inch material will be needed with 1/2 yard of contrasting material. No. 7788—size 34 to 42. Each pattern 15 cents.

EVERYBODY IS CONFIDENT

Predictions of Victory Come From Rival Camps in Massachusetts.

Boston, Oct. 27.—Predictions of victory in the state election Nov. 4 came from rival camps. Chairman Riley of the Democratic state committee issued a statement in which he said:

"Observers who know every side of the political situation unanimously admit that Lieutenant Governor Walsh will be elected governor by a plurality estimated at 40,000."

Governor Foss, who is running for reelection as an independent, announced:

"I never was more confident of victory in my life."

In attacks upon his candidacy by both the old parties Charles Sumner Bird, head of the Progressive ticket, declared in a statement that he saw signs of victory.

While the headquarters of Congressman A. H. Gardner, the Republican candidate, gave out no official prediction, strong confidence of success was expressed by his supporters.
