THEATERS

AT REX TONIGHT
Today the Rex introduces Billy West to Bemidji theater patrons, he being on the order of Charlie Chaplin. "The Hero" is the title of the initial offering featuring West, and the film is said to be a scream from start to finish. This new star is being featured in the large cities and will be seen in Bemidji in the future as a Rex feature.

ing featured in the large cities and will be seen in Bemidji in the future as a Rex feature.

"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS"
When "Polly of the Circus" comes to the Rex tomorrow and Wednesday, theater patrons of Bemidji will have the opportunity of witnessing one of the greatest films ever produced and one of the most successful. It is a Goldwyn production dramatized from the celebrated novel by Margaret Mayo and presents Mae Marsh, the noted film star, as "Polly." It is the most famous circus romance ever written and made into a tremendous and costly production. The prices for this feature have been made as low as possible, admission being only 10 and 25 cents, where high prices have ruled in the leading theaters of the big cities.

"INTOLERANCE"
The most astonishing attraction of the current season is announced for appearance at the Rex, Thursday and Friday, when D. W. Griffith's colossal spectacle "Intolerance" reaches here. This is the wonderful new art form which Griffith has worked out since his success with "The Birth of a Nation." It tells four stories of as many different ages linking the modern with Paris in medieval days, Palestine at the dawn of the Christian era and ancient Babylon during the time of Belshazzar's famous feast and the downfall of that scene of early civilization. It is the largest theatrical undertaking ever seen and its impress has been felt around the world. Reserved seats on sale at Barker's should be gotten early.

AT THE ELKO
The big, true story of Russia, the Russian revolution and the fall of the Romanoffs is told in "Rasputin, The Black Monk," the new World-Picture Brady-Made which will again be the attraction at the Elko theater tonight, starting at 7:30 o'clock. A supreme cast headed by Montagu Love, June Elvidge, Arthur Ashley, Julia Dean, Irving Cummings and Herbert Wilke enacts the swift moving story in a masterly manner.
"The Valentine Girl," featuring Marguerite Clark on the Paramount program, will be the attraction at the Elko theater tomorrow. This is a charming photoplay with five reels crammed with intensely interesting action and flavored with the spice of Marguerite Clark's own touches of humor and occasional pathos. There will be a special matinee, starting at 4:30, for the children.

AT THE GRAND
When Susan Grandaise comes to the Grand theater tonight in "When True Love Dawns," the people of this city will have the opportunity of seeing the sweetest girl in Europe in one of the most delightfully brilliant and pleasing plays imaginable. Miss Grandaise is thoroughly charming and is one of the screen's most accomplished actresses. Her role in "When True Love Dawns" fits her perfectly.
Tomorrow the Winnipeg Juvenile Entertainers will furnish the program at the Grand theater, under the auspices of the Commercial club.

JUVENILE ENTERTAINERS
The ticket sale for the Juvenile Players will be on at the three drug stores. Evening prices are 50 and 75 cents with 15 and 25 cents for matinee. The matinee will start at 3 o'clock and the evening performance at 8:30 o'clock. School children will be excused for matinee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stohl of the town of Eckles were among the business visitors today.

The nicest courtesy you can show your out-of-town guests is to see that a notice of their visit here is inserted in the personal columns of the Pioneer. Telephone 922 or bring your item to this office.
