IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally If You Eat Meat Regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

AT THE THEATERS

GRAND TONIGHT.

The Grand theater offers Belle Bennett, Triangle's distinguished and beautiful emotional actress, in "The Last Rebel" for tonight's feature attraction. Miss Bennett plays a dual role. She appears as a girl of the south in pre-war days and later as the granddaughter of that girl in modern times. Handsome Joe King also plays the supporting lead in a dual role.

A two-part Keystone comedy is also on the program.

GRAND WEDNESDAY.

The manner in which a mountain girl redeems a man is interestingly told in the new World-Picture, "A Woman of Redemption," which will be shown on Wednesday at the Grand theatre. June Elvidge is the star in this production and John Bowers is seen opposite her as leading man. The story is laid in the southern mountains and is replete with exciting and interesting events. "A Woman of Redemption" is corksing good screen entertainment.

REX TONIGHT.

"It was 'Scandal's' popularity that caused Miss Weber to favor stories which contained a message. The discovery that such pictures present a powerful appeal to the mind while also appealing to the heart caused her to specialize upon pictures of this type. "The Price of a Good Time," "Idle Wives" and "Even As You and I" are examples of how she has succeeded.

"Lois Weber, who also enacts one of the central roles in this production, based her story upon an argument advanced by one of the editorial writers in the country. According to this man, if you could stand behind one of the club windows of any city you could hear more poisonous and dangerous gossip in half an hour than you could hear at at sewing circle during the whole afternoon.

"In 'Scandal Mongers' at the Rex tonight Miss Weber shows the result of carelessly uttered gossip; the mesh of circumstances which ruins the lives of William Wright, his wife, Robey Gordon, and his wife, Daisy, Gordon's sister, and John Austin. Also a comedy, "Water on the Brain."

REX TOMORROW.

Jack Mason thought he was wooing a stenographer, and the camouflaged stenographer's mother thought she was investing in a regular gold mine. Neither was right. Holly Brandon was a rich girl, or was until the maternal investment. But she liked the persistent miner well enough to go west to see him again.

Mrs. Brandon's mine, however, was about as valuable as a shell crater. Thinking Mason's mine like hers, she compelled Holly to marry a rick crook. But unknown to them it was a crook who performed the ceremony, and when Jack found this out,—well, Hindenburg's Spring drive had nothing on the whirlwind dash of this young avenger for the girl he loved and the man who had robbed him of so much.

That lad of yours, over seas.

All that is humanly possible is being done to see to it that he is well fed, well clothed and efficiently equipped. Organizations like the Y. M. C. A., are looking to his physical comfort, healthful recreation and clean fun. If he is sick or wounded the Red Cross will provide for him with tender, loving care.

Yet there is one thing that will bring a smile to his face and a joy to his heart that none of these can give; that only you can give—your photograph.
