Mr. Gordon Gardner is home again, having spent the winter running the engine on the "logger" to one of the camps nearby. Gordon is getting ready to build a new house on his farm here. He is preparing to put in a big crop this summer. Enough for one anyway. When does one and one make one?

Rev. Soper, the missionary from Bemidji, accompanied by Ira Cook, went down to Carl Kluck's Sunday the 30th and held funeral services over the remains of baby Kluck, who died March 29th and was buried at the cemetery at Puposky, March 31.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Randall entertained Rev. Courier, the evangelist, and his family last week.

Norman Gardner, Clyde Fuller and Philip McClellan while out looking for cows in the woods nearby encountered a big black bear and a couple of cubs. Quite an exciting adventure for the boys.

PUPILS CONTROL IN ALL RUSSIAN SCHOOLS

Boys of 16 Who Are Unable to Read Are Admitted to the Universities.

Pupils, instead of teachers, control the schools of Russia under the bolshevik regime, according to two Englishmen, one of them an experienced schoolmaster, who have just returned from Russia.

Boys and girls are herded indiscriminately and there is no discipline, say the Englishmen. Pupils control the teachers. In a Kolma school a youth of eighteen was appointed commissioner of the institution and was in charge of all teachers. On one occasion he closed the school for a week, as a protest against the action of the master, who had reprimanded a pupil.

Each class has its own committee and usually the most popular boy represents the others at the masters' council. These committees not only direct the masters, but control the distribution of food which is provided for the midday meal, and which is the chief cause for any school attendance at all.

Pupils do exactly as they please, walking into the classroom and leaving it while a lesson is in progress. No punishment of any kind is inflicted on the pupil, as each pupil is his own mentor as to right and wrong.

No home work is set, the pupil doing all his school work during the hours set apart for each session.

Attendance is not compulsory, or even regulated by rule, each one attending classes or staying away, as he sees fit. No marks for good work are allowed, and consequently none for the sluggard who makes no attempt at scholastic attainment.

The same chaotic conditions were observed by the Englishmen in the universities and other seats of higher education. Any boy of sixteen may enter without qualification, though he may be unable to read.

There is only one way to acquire wisdom, but when it comes to making a fool of himself a man can have his choice of a thousand different ways.

Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst features of acid-stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains—head-aches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lumbago, pains around the heart and in the chest—who never dream that an acid-stomach is the real cause of the trouble.

Naturally, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloat out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist. See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach miseries. Banish all your stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have a stomach. Then you can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort without fear of distressing after effects.

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health—if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food—if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor—do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day and see how much better you will feel.

PRINCETON GETS TRUCE FLAG

Graduate Will Give Banner Under Which the Yanks First Crossed Rhine.

Princeton, N. J.—Princeton university is to receive as part of its war relics collection the actual flag of truce under which the American staff officers first entered German territory beyond the Rhine.

Lieut. Alex L. Schlesinger, member of the class of 1912, now serving with the army of occupation, and who acted as interpreter in an armistice parley between German and American officers, has offered the historic souvenir to his alma mater.

With the gift of the flag, there is to be included a map showing the exact locality where the conference between the German and United States officers took place. This "white flag of truce" was carried across the Rhine and into the neutral zone at the Coblenz bridgehead, which was held by the Third United States Army corps.

To Start "Vampire Gallery."

Newark, N. J.—Camouflaged women with languorous ways who are flirting with Newark's mere men are to be "entombed and mugged." Judge Frank Boettner has decreed. The "vampire gallery" will be open to the public.
