New "Landed Gentry" in England. The advent of a new "landed gentry" in England since the war is made plain by "Burke's," an annual work of reference on that subject which has reappeared after a break of seven years. Over 100 names of old landowners have disappeared since the last edition, and their places have been taken by double that number of newcomers. In the preface, the editor remarks: "Much as the passing of old families from the land, or the diminution of their holdings, is to be regretted, the rise of a new class of landed gentry, possessed of means enabling them to develop estates which had become impoverished through the misfortunes of their previous owners, cannot be without benefit to the country."

LAVINIA

We have been so busy during the holidays that we almost had no time for anything but good times. A fine program at Bass Lake under the supervision of Miss Butler was enjoyed by a large crowd. The children deserve special mention for the work done in their parts. A number on the program which was especially enjoyed by all was a reading, "The Inventor's Wife," given by Mrs. Cora Landry. Mrs. Landry has been confined to her bed for some months and her presence as well as her number was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Robinson and family spent Christmas day at the home of Mrs. C. B. Cross.

V. A. Hoar spent Christmas and a week's vacation at home in Lavinia. Despite the terrible snow storm of Friday a good crowd enjoyed a New Year's festival at the school house Friday night. Nor did the storm interfere with the Ladies' Exchange. They were "on the job" as usual when it comes to eats, also washing dishes. With the music afforded by V. A. Hoar's phonograph a good dance was enjoyed.

Miss Lillian Hoar spent Tuesday with Miss Vivian Cross.

A good program and Christmas tree was enjoyed by a large crowd Christmas eve at Lavinia school house. The school children deserve much credit. Especially enjoyed were the two numbers, a reading by little Eugene Prather and a vocal solo by little Janice Hoar, the first attempt of both little tots. Old Santa was also good and found lots of good children. The acting of all the school was good.

Although we have often heard the expression, "Never again," from the Lavinia Ice company, the members are at it again this year. Wood Osgood is storing ice for Lavinia lake shore resorts.

Miss Alice Prather, who is attending school in Grand Forks is spending her two week's vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Prather.

William McVane spent Tuesday of this week in this vicinity. Bud LaDouceur piloted an exceedingly select bunch of merry-makers on a jolly sleighride Wednesday night. Miss Alice Prather was the hostess.

An Order for One Wife.

An English traveler and author in northern Walgeria became interested in a Home for Freed Slaves. Women and children were kept in the institution until they could be otherwise disposed of, which was generally by matrimony, in the case of the women when the author acted as a marriage broker. He says: "A Maussa soldier would come to me with a note from his commander certifying him to be a man of good character and able to support a wife or another wife, as the case might be."

"I then turned over a corner of the note and scribbled: 'To Lady Superintendent, Freed Slaves Home: Please let bearer have one wife.'"

We have begun the collection of data for publishing a report to the merchants of Bemidji and Northern Minnesota of all those who do not pay their bills, and the reason (if any) given. The report will also include the nature of the account.

All the merchants of Bemidji and adjoining territory are invited to place their accounts with us and also to subscribe for the report, which will be distributed among those who may have use for it, and to whom it will be of value in extending and refusing credit.

Embarrassing, Very!
Our neighbor was a queer old bachelor, and not having seen him out in his yard, I decided to investigate. I went out to the barn, and there in the shadows I saw a body hanging from the rafters! I was so excited I ran for help. In five minutes the whole town had gathered there. I led the way into the barn and found it to be my neighbor's scarecrow, stored for the winter. And to make matters worse, the old gentleman drove up just then and wondered at all the company. I had to explain, and the laugh was on me.
