

Local News

Items for this column will be gladly received by Mrs. Harvey, telephone 114. Readers owe it to their guests and to themselves to see that items of local interest are reported. Every item will be given proper consideration when the source is known.

Attorney and Mrs. E. E. McDonald left last night to spend the winter at Los Angeles, Calif.

Alvin Wilcox of Schoolcraft attended to business matters while shopping in Bemidji Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Winebrenner of Lake Plantagenet drove to Bemidji Tuesday and transacted business.

All makes of safety razor blades at Given's Hardware. 6d 12-30

Mrs. Ira French of the Bemidji College left this morning for the Twin Cities to spend a week visiting friends.

Alva Holliday of Yola drove to Bemidji Tuesday and attended to business matters, returning to his home Wednesday.

Mrs. John Abercrombie and Mrs. Emory Dunn left Wednesday for Minneapolis to visit friends and relatives for two weeks.

New Year's cards at the Bemidji Book and Stationery store, 403 Beltrami avenue. 3t 12 29

Mrs. Engham of Wadena was called to Bemidji Tuesday by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Congdon, Fourth street.

Fred Clark of Turtle River was in Bemidji Tuesday arranging to go to the university hospital where he will be under the doctor's care for some time.

B. W. Lakin visited friends and transacted business in Bemidji Saturday en route from Ft. Francis to Little Falls to spend Christmas with relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Stanton entertained at Christmas dinner Judge C. W. Stanton, Miss Leila Stanton and Mr. and Mrs. H. Mayne Stanton and family of Duluth.

We have a fine assortment of New Year's cards at the Bemidji Book and Stationery Store. Come in and make your selection while the stock is complete. 3t 29

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McTaggart and family entertained at their Christmas dinner and afternoon guests, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Olson and Miss Carrie Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richards and niece, Miss Florence Ritchie, left the latter part of the week for Minneapolis to spend Christmas and New Years with relatives.

D. S. Mitchell left Christmas night for the cities where he will transact business the greater part of this week, and will also visit his mother in Minneapolis while away.

Miss Ruth Rice, a student of Northwestern Bible school, Minneapolis, is spending her holiday vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rice and family.

NOTICE, ANNUAL STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING

You are hereby notified, that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Peoples Oil Company will be held at the offices of the company at Bemidji, Minn., the 11th day of January 1923, at 2 o'clock, P. M., for the election of Directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. P. D. Brett, Secretary

12-27 1-3 1-10

Family Reunions

This is the time of the year when all the loved ones gather around the home fireside and the opportunity for preserving that occasion should not be lost.

Make an appointment to have your family group photographed.

HAKKERUP

Your Photographer Phone 239

Linden Cavanaugh went to his home at Richville to spend the holidays with his parents.

Mrs. A. Kobe and two children left Tuesday evening for Kelliher to visit relatives until Saturday.

DANCE Saturday night at the K. C. Hall. Music by Schuck's Jazz Orchestra. Extra ladies 10c. 1t 28

Harry Inglehart of Richville was a Christmas guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Grinager and family.

Little Bobby Bush, who has been ill and confined to his home since Sunday was reported as better this morning.

H. F. Davis of Shevlin, who has been a guest at the B. W. Cooper home for a short time, left last night for St. Paul to consult specialists.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brakke had as their Christmas dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Courtney, Mrs. Belle Denley and son Merton, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Reeves.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Easton and little son, Jack, returned home on Tuesday evening from Ashby where they were week end and Christmas guests of relatives.

Howard Palmer left last evening to resume his work at Appleton after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Palmer, 507 Minnesota avenue for the past ten days.

E. B. Berman and Austin McIver left this noon for the twin cities by automobile. They expect to be gone several days on business and will return by train.

Mrs. Dr. Wilson of Duluth, who came to Bemidji to attend the funeral of her nephew the late Jack Currie, held Sunday afternoon, returned to her home yesterday.

M. R. Ripon, county superintendent of schools of the new Lake of the Woods county, was in Bemidji yesterday getting information which will be useful to him in his new office.

Raymond Nelson, who is teaching in Ridlake, Wisconsin, this year, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Nelson, 1301 Bemidji avenue.

Miss Mollie Olson of Valley City, North Dakota, is spending the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Nelson, 1301 Bemidji avenue. Miss Olson is a sister of Miss Nelson.

Miss Carol Anderson of Minneapolis and Edward Anderson of Stillwater are holiday guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, 1209 Dewey avenue.

Hans Anderson has again been chosen manager of the Troppman meat market. He was formerly connected with the Troppman market and patrons will be pleased to learn that he will again be in charge of this department.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Sund were between train guests at the C. A. Bush home the latter part of the week en route to Grygla to spend the holidays with relatives. Mr. Sund is a teacher at the Angoria school of Hibbing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Robinson and family entertained the following guests at 6 o'clock Christmas dinner: Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Matson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kobe, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Berry and his mother from Kelliher, B. M. Gile, and Miss Ursula Grest.

Mrs. Charles Glick, who lives on a farm near Bemidji was taken very seriously ill, Friday of last week and her husband accompanied her to Rochester that night. Word received yesterday by friends stated that she stood the trip fairly well and was under the care of specialists.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Ebert and family had as their Christmas guests Mr. Ebert's sister, Miss Josie Ebert, and cousin, Miss Silver both of Charles City. They left yesterday for Duluth to attend the wedding of a relative. Mr. Ebert accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cochran Sr., entertained at a family Christmas dinner the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Lee LaBaw and children, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Dyson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chittester, George Cochran, Jr. and Earl Cochran, who is home for his holiday vacation from the University.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Berry and son, Wayne, and his mother, Mrs. Berry, of Moorhead, who were week end and over Christmas guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Matson returned Tuesday to their home at Kelliher. Kendrick Matson accompanied them home and will be their guest this week.

EIGHT ARE KILLED WHILE TRANSFERRING WAR BOMBS Trent, Austria, Dec. 28—Seven workers and one soldier were killed when a number of Austrian made bombs, being transferred from the war zone blew up at Fort La Occhetta.

Society

ODD FELLOWS LODGE TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING

The regular business meeting of the I. O. O. F. will be held Friday evening at the K. C. Hall and all members are urged to be present.

BOWSERS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Bowser entertained at 7 o'clock dinner last evening at their home, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Arnold, Mrs. L. H. Bailey of Billings, Mont., Misses Dora Hazen and Lucille Young, Mrs. L. A. Ward and daughter Louise, and Eben Bowser of St. Thomas college.

BETHEL LUTHERANS WILL HOLD WATCH NIGHT SERVICE

Members of the Bethel Lutheran Sunday school are asked to note the fact that there will be no Sunday school service held at the church next Sunday. A watch night service consisting of a program and devotion at service, under the auspices of the Men's Society, will be held in the church Sunday evening beginning at 10 o'clock.

ENJOY SLEIGH RIDE

Two sleigh loads of young people numbering about 25, were entertained by the "Mystic Circle" last evening. For a sleigh ride during the early evening they were taken around town and to Lamoure, for about an hour and a half ride, then they went to the home of Miss Catherine McKee, 1215 Bixby avenue where they enjoyed dancing and games until a late hour. The hostess served a dainty lunch.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Centenary of the birth of Gen. William B. Tallaferro, a noted commander in the Confederacy. One hundred years ago today Jeremiah Morrow was inaugurated in the governorship of Ohio.

The Roman Catholic church today begins an observance of the third centenary of the death of Saint Ferdinand de Sales.

Dr. Ignacio Calderon, for sixteen years the diplomatic representative of Bolivia at Washington, sails from New York today for home.

A statewide movement in behalf of Americanization is to be inaugurated at a two-day conference to be opened today at Ann Arbor, Michigan. The Casing theatre in New York famous for two generations as the home of light opera, today celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of its first opening.

Today will be observed throughout the United States as Woodrow Wilson day by friends of Mr. Wilson and contributors to the Woodrow Wilson foundation.

The completion of the $250,000 Pacific Highway bridge over the Willamette River, said to be the largest reinforced concrete span west of the Rockies, is to be celebrated today with a grand fete at Oregon City.

A four-day program of exercises and festivities in connection with the inauguration of Governor Alfred E. Smyth will be opened at Albany today with a public reception and a parade of Democratic marching clubs.

Six hundred undergraduates from various parts of the world are to gather today in Toronto to attend the First National Conference of Canadian students to be held under the auspices of the Student Christian Movement.

TENSTRIKE

Mr. W. H. Rice of Bemidji visited with his sons here last Thursday. Miss Adair Huff of Bemidji spent the holidays here with her parents. Frank Coffey spent Christmas Day at the C. J. Wild home.

As was predicted two weeks ago, wedding bells did ring in Hagalari and the fortunate man was no other than Albert Almendinger. The bride is Miss Jane Matteson. They were married Tuesday of last week at the Presbyterian church in Bemidji. Herman Gregg turned out to be the best man and Miss Ida Schute acted as bridesmaid.

The Lutherans gave a Christmas program with a tree in their church Sunday evening.

The Presbyterian Christmas program was given in their church Sunday evening.

We wish to correct an error in last week's items:—The Odd Fellows will give their New Year's supper on Sunday evening, December 31st instead of Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Betz are the proud parents of a 9½ pound baby boy born Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jackson are the proud parents of a baby girl born Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rice spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ferrell of Bemidji.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Theriault spent Christmas with relatives in Blackduck.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Booth spent Christmas here.

Walter Woodcock of International Falls spent Christmas here with his family.

E. E. Robideau of the Crookston camp near Blackduck spent Christmas here with his family.

Harold Rearick of Duluth spent

Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rearick.

Mr. Frank Rasser has a pair of heavy bob sleds for sale. Here is a bargain for anyone wishing to buy sleds. His address is, Tenstrike, Minn., R. R. No. 1.

Elaura Montbriand, after a short visit here, returned to Bemidji last Friday.

Anyone who is indebted to A. S. Maule will be able to settle their accounts at the bank here.

Will Schulke was a Bemidji business visitor last Friday.

E. E. Cluff was a business caller in Bemidji Saturday.

TROPPMAN STORE NOW UNDERGOING REPAIRS

F. G. Troppman of the Troppman Department store is making some alterations in his big building on Minnesota avenue and Third street, which will materially improve the appearance of his meat and Grocery departments.

The partition between these two departments is being removed and the quarters enlarged in order to take care of a larger volume of business. Other changes and improvements are being contemplated by this store in the near future.

LEGION POST WILL NOT HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

Due to the holiday rush and the basketball game between the Firemen and Fosston at the new armory this evening, the regular meeting of the Ralph Gracie post of the American Legion has been postponed until two weeks from tonight, Jan. 11th.

WORLD RECORD BROKEN BY COW IN MINNESOTA

May Walker Ollie Homestead, a Holstein cow owned at Austin, Minn. has broken the world's record for butterfat produced. Her record for 365 days is 1,521 pounds of butter. The former record was 1,506 pounds produced by Duchess Skylark Ormsby, a Minnesota cow. This record has stood for several years.

TENSTRIKE

Last Friday evening a very large crowd attended the Christmas program given in the C. C. C. hall. The splendid program proved to be a success. The high school and eighth grade students opened the program with two Christmas songs. Then followed an operetta, "Colonel Grumpy's Christmas" by the third, fourth and fifth grades. Following this Lottie Slezak read "Wille and Annie's Prayer". "The Night Before Christmas" a play by the sixth and seventh grades was the next number. The last number of the program was "The Reunion at Pine Knot Ranch" a play in three acts given by the high school students. After this Santa Claus distributed candy and parcels to the children.

Last Saturday evening the Tenstrike basketball team defeated the fast Northome high school team by a score of 9 to 7. This is the second time that these two teams have met. Tenstrike winning both games.

Elko Theatre TOMORROW "ON THE HIGH SEAS" JACK HOLT, DOROTHY DALTON, MITCHELL LEWIS. "JUST DOGS"—2 part Comedy

Miss Adair Hefner arrived here from Bemidji Thursday to spend the holidays with her parents.

Miss Flossie Peterson is spending Christmas vacation with her parents at Aneta, N. D. Miss Sylvia Vig is spending her vacation at her home in Fosston while Miss Florence Cunningham left for her home at Thompson, N. D.

The C. C. Club will give a New Years dance in their hall on Monday evening, Jan. 1st. Good music will be furnished.

Estehr Quade was a business caller in Bemidji last Friday.

FIRE THREATENS BUSINESS DISTRICT OF ERIE, TODAY Erie, Pa., Dec. 28—A fire, which at 8 a. m. today caused damage of $100,000 is sweeping through the business section here. All fire apparatus in the city has been called out and city officials are discussing the need of sending to other cities for help.

CALUMET The Economy BAKING POWDER GOLZ GROCERY

ELKO LAST TIMES TONIGHT Shows at 2:30, 7:15-9:00 Orchestra Every Night 10c-25c THE AMERICAN BEAUTY KATHERINE MacDONALD Bryant Washburn, Nigel Barrie, Tom Forman in Geo. Kibbe Turner's Saturday Evening Post story— White Shoulders A story of a girl, whose hand—but not her love—was on sale to the highest bidder. SEE—The beautiful clothes, the auto races, the thrills and romance. Also—"FRESH AIR"—2 part comedy

GRAND Opening Sunday Thos. H. Ince Presents "THE HOTTENTOT" With Douglas MacLean and Madge Bellamy A RIOT! One of the great big hits of the year. That steeplechase! When your not laughing your yelling—yelling like—! And the story! A panic when a youth who can't even stick on a rocking-horse has to ride a four-legged thunder-bolt because his girl believes he is a famous steeplechaser. IT'LL HAVE YOU ON YOUR FEET—RIDING ALL THE WAY The gasps of an earthquake! The yells of a mirthquake Distributed by Associated First National pictures

GRAND THEATRE! Today and Friday Inspiration Pictures, Inc. Presents RICHARD BARTHOLMESS IN "THE SEVENTH DAY" By Porter Emerson Browne, directed by Henry King, director of "Tol'able David." A First National Attraction Mack Sennet Presents "WHEN SUMMER COMES" With Billy Bevan and Mildred June Distributed by Associated First National Pictures, Inc. FOX NEWS Grand Orchestra—Matinee 2:30, 7-10-9—10c & 30c

BASKETBALL TONIGHT FOSSTON vs. FIREMEN 8 P. M. SHARP Fosston defeated McIntosh at Fosston Tuesday night 25-19. McIntosh defeated Crookston at McIntosh last week. THIS WILL BE A GOOD GAME THURSDAY AT THE NEW ARMORY ADMISSION 50c PLUS WAR TAX