NOVEMBER.

Calendar for November showing days of the week and dates.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 17, 1896.

METROPOLIS MISCELLANY.

Concert, to-night. A. O. W. meeting, to-night. Order cut flowers through J. Biehl.

The Embassy Ball, to-morrow night. Daylight is now shortening at the rate of three minutes per day.

This is the month for Thanksgiving, turkey and cranberry sauce. Regular meeting of the Woodmen of the World to-morrow evening.

J. H. Stearns is having an office built in the rear of his grocery store. The water pipes are being put in the new drinking fountain to-day.

B. Daily, of the post office news stand, assigned to-day, to W. G. Koogler. Anistacio Lobato was convicted of larceny, to-day, by the Territorial jury.

John Criles has accepted the situation as messenger boy, at the Postal office. Call on THE OPTIC if you want good job printing done at the lowest living rates.

The Las Vegas Cautauqua circle will meet with Miss Juliet Cochran, this evening. Passenger brakeman Uplinger and wife have moved from Raton to this city, to reside.

W. T. Reed found his lost Jersey cow locked in a pasture several miles north of this city. A new side walk is being laid from the San Miguel bank building to the Critch second hand store.

EVENT OF THE SEASON.

The "German" given as a farewell to Max Nordhaus, at the Montezuma Club Rooms.

The Montezuma club rooms known as they are for the number of brilliant occasions never looked so handsome as they did last evening, with the increased lights and handsome paper favors presented by the ladies.

The music was splendid, as of course it would be, since it was furnished by Hand's orchestra. The dancing of the "German" was begun shortly after 8:30 o'clock and was indulged in by about thirty couples.

The following is a list of the ladies present and the gowns they wore. Mrs. M. A. Otero, pale pink satin; Mrs. J. M. Cunningham, white organdie; Miss Sadie Holman, black organdie; Miss Minnie Holman, halitropo satin; Miss Mary La Rue, figured green organdie, over pink silk; Miss Etta Head, striped blue silk; Miss Margaret Head, striped blue silk; Miss Katie Reynolds, flowered organdie, over white silk; Miss Fort, white silk; Mrs. H. W. Green, striped organdie; Mrs. A. B. Smith, white dotted swiss; Miss B. Rothgeb, white organdie; Miss E. Rothgeb, flowered organdie over pink silk; Miss B. Atkins, white organdie; Miss Davis, green and pink; Mrs. A. A. Jones, light blue silk; Miss Belle Rogers, light blue silk; Mrs. E. E. Hamblin, back silk; Miss Nettie Richely, figured organdie over yellow silk; Miss Woods, light blue silk; Miss Stonerod, figured organdie; Miss Paulina C. Talley, white organdie; Mrs. E. G. Murphy, black silk; Mrs. O. G. Schaefer, red crepe; Mrs. J. Judell, brown striped silk; Mrs. E. J. VanFetten, pink china silk; Mrs. Harry W. Kelly, black silk; Mrs. Will H. Kelly, grey silk; Mrs. Frank Spinger, brown silk; Mrs. M. Brown, grey silk; Mrs. A. H. Whitmore, black silk; Miss Hattie Keilckerbocker, black crepe.

The Bet Paid. A few days before the general election, Henry Essinger, of the wholesale liquor firm of Essinger & Judell, of Las Vegas, and L. L. Lyons, representing the Colorado packing company, of Denver, made a bet of $10 on the general result, Essinger choosing McKinley, and as a side issue the loser agreed to be haltered up and led to a stall, in plain view of the public, like a horse, and fed on hay. The two well known commercial tourists met here yesterday, and like an honorable gentleman, Mr. Lyons admitted that he was on the wrong side of the fence, and requested Mr. Essinger to follow out the letter of the bet. At 10:30 yesterday morning, Mr. Essinger secured from Olmsted & Dixon a halter and a whip, the halter was placed over the head of Mr. Lyons and at the crack of the whip, the crest-fallen loser was marched to a box containing hay, and which was placed directly in front of Sturges' European, near the big red telephone pole. He ate hay for about five minutes, to the amusement of about 10,000 people (more or less), and then at the crack of the whip and the command of Dr. Essinger, he was driven to his room at the European. Mr. Lyons is a fat, chunky tourist, always with a jolly smile playing over his face, and he took his defeat and subsequent fun like a hero. Both gentlemen left the city last night.

TRACK AND TRAIN. J. E. Hurley went south on No. 1, last evening. Joe Burks is calling in the place of Paxton Woods, who is sick. Conductor "Fatty" Karens has returned to Las Vegas, after an absence of four years in Minnesota. A cow was struck at Barlen yesterday by a freight. The engine and eleven cars were thrown from the track. Harry Long, an intelligent and reliable brakeman, is now doing duty on the main line. He had recently been at Waldo. The Rio Grande division of No. 2 transferred around the wreck near Belen with but a couple of hours delay yesterday. The railroad boys are especially invited to attend the concert and ball, given by the Las Vegas Military band, to-night. J. D. Notgrass has reported for work relieving Conductor Ward, who in turn bumps Conductor Hubbard to the extra board. General Manager Frey of the Atchison, will leave Topeka in a few days going to Guymans for an inspection of the Sonora railway. George Stevens, an ex-fireman of the Atchison, at this place, after an absence of three years, has returned, and is looking for work. Up Hayes, who has been confined to the house for about three weeks with fever, is able to be about the house, though still quite weak on his pins. Second 34, near Benton, yesterday, had three cars off in the ditch on account of an axle breaking on a loaded car. It delayed several trains from two to twelve hours. Dan Trahey, an old-time railroad man at this point, who has for some time past resided in Vermont, is back in these parts again and will take a railroad position at Rowe.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair. DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER. MOST PERFECT MADE. A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 Years the Standard.
