TEN ON THE GROUND

AND THEY ALL LOOK LIKE WELL TRAINED 2-YEAR-OLDS.

The Coming Champions Swap Pipe Stories of the Past-Friend Looks Like a Four-Mile-and-Repeat - Other Gossip.

"Notwithstanding the weather conditions that have prevalled for the past twentyfour hours, several of the Blues reported for the regular spring practice vesterday morning," said Old Sport last night. "I was on the ground myself, but I can give you every assurance that the snowy sheet that covered Manuing's lot was not marred in its virgin whiteness by the cruel foot of any member of the coming champions. The boys passed the time telling pipe dreams of the past winter and the condreams of the past winter and the contracts they were offered by the Bush league, but were prevented from accepting on account of their filial affections for the greatest baseball town in the West.

"It was a sight good for sore eyes. The boys have evidently been taking care of themselves all winter. There is not a tired looking chap in the lot, and there is a commendable absence of hog fat. Ganzel, Eagan, Krueger, Miller, Hausen, McVicker and Pardee formed the nucleus of the colony, with a few fans that would be attracted to the baseball park if there was a foot of ice on the lot instead of an inch or two of snow. Stricklett, Hoffmejster and Friend were added to the colony last night, and if appearances go for anything the fans are going to have a lot of really nice things to say about Danny before the season is over. Danny has his weaknesses like a lot of other good fellowa, but this year he is going to play ball and make the opposition look like seiling platers when he is on the rubber.

"Pardee and Eagan are a likely pair and it will be a match between the two as to which wins the most games. There is a good natured rivalry between these two cracks, and they are going to make the batters guess all season. Viox will be on hand in a few days and Rothfuss, as already stated, will be on hand by Wednesday. The others are expected to come in on the early trains in the morning. But the whole battalion should be on hand by Thursday. In the meantime those who have already arrived will play tag in the old Exposition building until the weather man lets the sun shine.

"The National League magnates are still playing their great game of bluff and it is a question whether one in the lot has better than a bobtall flush, though it may be made apparent that there are several royal flushes in the Brush-Robison-Hart-Von der Horst syndicate. However, it is about time there was a showdown and the deal between Robison and Loftus be a known fact. It goes without saying that the want of ball players in the Western League will be i tracts they were offered by the Bush league, but were prevented from accepting of Dubuque.

"From present prospects, it does not look like we are going to have baseball weather by next Saturday; however, the weather man may get over his fit of madness and give the sun a chance to get in a few rounds and the fans will be happy."

Great Western Race Track Trust.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Romancers of the turf have started a story of a proposed great Western race track trust. The plan is to form an incorporation, heavily bonded, to take in all the principal race tracks in the territory over which the turf congress exercises jurisdiction. Every track will have a representative in the directory. The owners of race horses will be compelled to take out a certain amount of the trust's stock before they can race. The minimum amount of stock to be taken by one owner is to be set at a figure that will work no great injustice. For every additional horse controlled by the owner, a certain amount of stock must be taken. The idea is to "freeze out" the owner who is pothunting for feed bills and a stray greenback. Byers Had a Cinch.

NEW YORK, April 2.—George Byers, of Boston, got the decision over Charlie Goff, of Oregon, in the second round of what was to have been a twenty round bout at the Broadway Athletic Club to-night. They met at 150 pounds. In the second round Goff landed a straight left on the mouth and swung over Byers' head. Byers swung left to mouth and right to ribs and a moment later put a solid left hook to the jaw scoring a clean knockdown. Goff rose groggy and Byers started in to finish him, knocking Goff down twice more, when Referee Tommy White stopped the fight and awarded the decision to Byers.

continuous performance of 30 frames by a score of 2.35 to 2.315. The absence of the hilarity that usually follows a winning by the Freezeouts was noticeable. Roeder had to remain to look after the alleys or he would have been with the others when they sought the cold atmosphere and the streets where the snow was not polluted by the vulgar foot of man.

The Freezeouts were noisy enough and did a lot of jollying at the end of the fifth frame when they led the picked team by 20 pins, but their hilarity was counterfeit after that, for the picked team was 35 to the good at the end of the tenth, 51 at the fittenth, reaching the high-water mark at the end of the twentieth with III, which dwindled to 31 at the end of the game.

Cheek led the winners. He did not take the lead until the third frame, but he managed to keep at the head of the procession to the end, and that without a double to his credit, but, say, how he did make that spare ball do duty. Treiber was second man with an even half thousand. He caught his gait in the tenth and surprised the audience with a triple, and then fell dead. Laidlaw's swift ball falled to connect and he was only able to bunch his strikes once, but all through the work of this usually excellent player was mediocre. Wilson managed to keep from being low man by C. Clark getting an attack of charley horse. The race for last place was not decided until the last trame, when Clark got a spare and Wilson made a double.

Clark got a spare and Wilson made a double.

Baker led the cold boys, but he failed to do anything worthy of note until the twenty-seventh frame and then he rolled for keeps, scoring a quad. His spare work was not up to his usual average. Cook scored two doubles to held him out and landed in second place, with the blonde gentleman from the East end pressing him close. Taylor and Tustin rolled like a couple of fellows who wanted to save the boys from setting up too many pins. There was not a ball rolled by either that merits mention—but let's draw the curtain and hide the carnage. The score:

Cards of Invitation to Opening Game With Baltimore Will Not Be Sanctioned by New York.

BALTIMORE, April 3 .- There will be no cards of invitation issued to the Baltimore public for the opening game of the season of 1839. This is the flat sent out by the management of the New York club. Sec-retary Bormann, of the Orloles, wrote to Mr. Freedman, president of the New York club, on March 24, asking permission to issue 1,500 invitations to Baltimore enthus iasts and their friends to attend the initial game on April 15, between the Baltimore and New York teams. H. A. Bonnell, secand New York teams, H. A. Bonnell, secretary of the Giants, telegraphed to-day:

"No arrangement will be made.' For many years the Baltimore management has extended this courtesy to the public, and the custom is said to obtain in all the league cities. Baseball people here are very much chagrined at the action of the New Yorkers and it is likely they will issue the cards as usual and pay to the New Yorkers their pro rata, the same as though they were paid admission tickets.

OUT IN THE SEVENTH.

Spike Sullivan Lands a Right Hand Smash on "Mystery" Kerwin's Jaw and Ends the Story. NEW YORK, April 4.-At the Greenwood Athletic Club to-night "Spike" Sullivan defeated George ("Mystery") Kerwin, of Chicago, in seven rounds.

Each man was in perfect condition. The moment the men stepped into the ring they got together. Kerwin letting his arms fly like flalls, without any attempt at science. This puzzled "Spike" a good deal, but he got his man's measure and soon was plainly a winner, hitting Kerwin freely. The latter wasted his strength and weakened greatly. In the sixth and seventh rounds Sullivan sailed in and finally, with a right hand smash on the jaw, knocked Kerwin helpless, after fifty-five seconds of fighting in the seventh.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.-C. P. Hunt-ington, president of the Southern Pacific Company, has arrived in this city, and will occupy his mansion on California street until about May 1. He is accompanied by his wife. The main object of Mr. Huntington's visit to the coast is to attend the an-nual meeting and election of the Southern Pacific. In an authorized interview, he said he hoped the reorganization of the Central Pacific would have a beneficial ef-fect on California business. He added: "As to rates, and improvements of the road, we expect that the facilities will be somewhat improved, which will naturally accelerate the movements of tonnage. But do not know whether the rates can be "I had strongly hoped that we could make an arrangement with the government for a long extension of the time of the repayment of the money loaned the company."

The opposition met with in California, Mr. Huntington stated, had prevented this extension; he continued:

"As to what we propose to effect by the purchase or consolidation with the Southern Pacific of lines in California that are leased to the parent organization I have to say that it is a matter we have not yet fully decided upon."

He stated that the sale of Mrs. Stanford's Central Pacific stock would make no difference in the management of the read. Work on the coast line extension would be pushed, he said. Being asked if he favored a compromise with the state railroad commission, he said: "That is a matter largely with our legal department, though as for myself, I shall oppose any compromise which gives the right to any tribunal to reduce the rates of fares and freignts so long as they are not above what will give a fair return for the money invested in creating these properties."

They are all right, but do they act right? They generally go and get a laxative (bowel cleaner) to purify their blood. Does their blood run through their bowels?

Science has to-day furnished proofs that all the purifying that your blood needs, in fact all that can be done, must be done by your kidneys.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys strain or filter out the impurities in the blood—that is their work.

Purifying your blood is not a question of taking a laxative or physic.

Does your blood run through your bowels?

What the bowel cleaner does is to throw out the poisons which are already in your blood causing your present sickness, it leaves there.

There is no other way of purifying your blood except by means of your kidneys.

That is why bowel cleaners fall to do their work—they fail to help the kidneys.
