Officials Visiting Local Business Club

Miss Mary Higgins, Ft. Worth, state president of the Federation of Business Women's clubs, and Miss Marguerite Warren, Belton, state program chairman, are in Brownsville today and Tuesday as guests of the local Business and Professional Women's clubs, having returned here from the Valley delegation attending the fourth district conference in Corpus Christi over the weekend.

The two state officials are to be at the Business and Professional Women's luncheon Tuesday and also at the Valley-wide luncheon in Donna Tuesday evening. They will spend Wednesday in Harlingen and Wednesday night in Raymondville with the Raymondville business club, and will return after their visit there to the north section of the state. Both Miss Higgins and Miss Warren are to speak at the Donna banquet.

Touring Valley

"We are making the Valley tour just to get acquainted with Valley clubs," Miss Higgins said. "The Valley clubs have an unusual situation, in that they are grouped so closely together and have a splendid opportunity for becoming personally acquainted with each other."

"That is the purpose of the district conferences," the president stated, in reference to the Corpus Christi meeting. "Representatives of all clubs in the district gather for the purpose of exchanging ideas and advancing the social and recreational aspects of the federation program. We are especially well pleased with the activities of the Valley Federation, and Valley clubs as a whole are a shade more active than the average business clubs of their size."

On Program

Valley delegates were prominent on the program of the Corpus Christi conference. Mrs. Blanche Fulgham of Harlingen, president of the Valley Federation, responded to the welcome given by Sidney Krings, manager of the Corpus Christi chamber of commerce, and Mrs. W. R. Jones of Brownsville participated in the round table discussions, using as her topic, "Personnel Research." Miss Elizabeth Collier of Edinburg, Miss Adele Ronecker of Harlingen, Dr. Luzia M. Truog of McAllen, Miss Shirley Meeker of Mercedes, Miss Bess Davey of Raymondville, Miss Mayme Coridon of San Benito, and Mrs. Addie Ulrich of Weslaco also discussed topics. Miss Julia O'Brien of Brownsville, fourth district chairman, presided. Miss Higgins' Corpus Christi address was on the subject, "Co-operation Among Women."

Clubs Make Reports At City Federation

Reports of club representatives covering all activities since the last meeting of the City Federation featured the second session of the organization held Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist church. In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. R. Jones, Mrs. Willie A. George presided.

Mrs. J. J. Kemmy reported for the Parent-Teacher association. A campaign to add books to the junior high library was the most important feature of P-T. A. work conducted recently and included in her report. Two sets of books, "Library of Original Sources," donated by Mrs. G. B. Stell, and "Practical Library," the

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and breaks the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
