

Valley Society

Telephone 7

Edinburg Society

(Continued from page 7)

by combinations of vivid red and blue and a paler shade. The decorative note was repeated in the score cards and tallies and the refreshment table.

There were four tables of players, with Mrs. A. C. Statham and John McWhorter making the high club score and Miss Emily Emmerling scoring high for the guests.

HARDEN EFFECT IS TRETT FEATURE

The Bluebonnet Bridge club members were entertained on Friday by Mrs. Ed A. Brown. The hostess cleverly arranged the card room so that by the use of spring flowers placed in baskets and vases at various points the effect of a garden was achieved. Mrs. E. S. Hearne made the high guest score and Mrs. John Rutledge for the club. Mrs. Peter Schnack made the most money in no trump.

Luncheon was served at the regular hour and the announcement made that for the coming summer months luncheon would be dispensed with and the regular meetings held at three o'clock in the afternoons.

FRIDAY NIGHT CLUB AT HAIGH HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haigh were hosts to members of the Friday Night Bridge club, using a color scheme of red which was carried out by a profusion of red carnations, which were featured both in the living rooms and at the refreshment and card tables. Mrs. J. E. McClellan made the women's high score and W. G. Killough scored for the men.

FIDELIS CLASS ENJOYS SUNRISE BREAKFAST

Members of the Fidelis Class of the First Baptist church held their regular monthly meeting at the East Canal, transacting their business and social affairs at an early sunrise breakfast which was cooked by the girls over a camp fire. They were chaperoned by Mrs. A. A. James.

HAPPY MEMBERS CIRCLE MEETS

Mrs. J. D. Warburton was hostess to the Happy Members Circle Friday afternoon at her home. A social hour was spent in handwork and conversation and a delicious refreshment course was served by the hostess at its close.

WELFARE SOCIETY PLANS SALE

Mrs. Joe M. Burns received the members of the Catholic Welfare Society at her home Thursday afternoon. A brief business session was held, during which plans were completed for the Easter egg sale to be held by the ladies, funds to be derived to be devoted to welfare work.

Five hundred was the diversion during the social hour, and refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Palmer, and her daughter, Mrs. Black of Los Angeles.

YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE TREASURE HUNT

Members of the Baptist Young People's Union gave a treasure hunt Monday, clues being given which necessitated trips all over the city. Misses Leona Watkins and Gladys Irwin, and Messrs. Robert Wells and Brooks Holt were declared the winners in the hunt, which was followed by a weiner roast. About forty two enjoyed the affair.

ALATHIAN CLASS PARTY GIVEN

Mrs. A. J. Bolsins, A. L. Janssen and George Watkins were hostesses to members of the Alathian Class of the First Baptist church Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bolsins.

Red roses and blue larkspur were used in the decorations and the Easter theme was used at the dining table where a salad course was served. Games and conversation formed the diversion of the social hour.

BIRTHDAY HONOREES AT PARTY

Mrs. Tom McKinnon and Mrs. Mattie Scarborough were joint honorees at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McKinnon in honor of the birthday of the two old ladies Sunday evening at the McKinnon home. The birthday cake held many candles. Mrs. Scarborough being eighty-three years of age.

Those present were the honorees, Miss Margaret McKinnon, Tom McKinnon, of Mission, and Herman McKinnon and the hosts.

Weslaco

GIRL RESERVES SELL DOUGHNUTS

During the week-end Girl Reserves sold and delivered doughnuts to Weslaco citizens.

This sale was conducted by the local Y. W. C. A. in order to raise funds for this year's Girl Reserve quota.

The sum of ninety dollars was received from the sale and prizes were given to those who sold the greatest number of doughnuts.

PRAYER WEEK PLANNED

The Valley association of ministers' wives and women of the Missionary society held its regular monthly meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Holland in Mercedes. In the absence of the president, Mrs. F. R. McIntire of Mercedes, Mrs. Oliver of San Benito, vice president had charge of the meeting.

The session opened with prayer by Mrs. Wm. LeMay of Weslaco.

Plans were discussed for a week of prayer April 13, to 20, and for Pentecostal Program in June.

A luncheon was served at noon after which E. T. Cornelius of San Antonio, superintendent of Mexican missions gave an address on "Our Mexican."

The next meeting will be held at Weslaco the second Monday in May.

EASTER BAKE SALE

The Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church had a large attendance at their regular meeting Monday at the Methodist church.

In the business session arrangements were made for an Easter bake sale April 18. An interesting program followed the devotional led by Mrs. Cooper.

HOME MAKERS CLUB MEETS

Mrs. J. L. Sutton was hostess to the Llano Grande Homemakers club at her home Friday, April 14.

A brief business session was held with Mrs. Sutton presiding.

During the social hour the members enjoyed a contest entitled "Refreshments Are Ready." Mrs. Cooper securing the greatest number of answers to the contest. Refreshments were served.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED AT PRETTY PARTY

The coming marriage of Miss Opal Pike to Mr. H. M. Perry, of San Francisco, Calif., was announced Saturday afternoon at a pretty party given in the Cortez Hotel by her mother, Mrs. A. S. Pike.

The afternoon was spent in playing bridge. Bowls of pink and white roses made the lovely decorations.

In the games Mrs. W. H. Mize scored high and Mrs. H. W. Gunderson low.

A delicious salad course was served to the following: Mesdames Raymond Stahl, C. Gerding, A. H. Ulrich, Ben Sanders, T. H. G. Cook, Gilbert Ramsey, Joe Mason, W. H. Mize, Y. P. Yarbrough, Rolland Carr, W. T. Kingsbury, Geneva Whitehead, J. Leo Curlee, I. R. Stahl Sr., H. W. Gunderson, C. M. O'Neal, I. R. Stahl, Jr., D. Hargrove, Misses Dimple Avery, Christine Yarbrough, Louise Kelley, Kathryn Erwin, Donna Clark, Adelle King, Thelma Gound, Jessie King, LeVern Cook, Nadine Weaver, Louise Cook, Frankie Thompson and Eul Jean Smith.

CRESSNERS ARE DINNER HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Cressner entertained a number of friends Tuesday with a dinner party at Val Verde honoring Mr. and Mrs. Blake Williams, who left Wednesday for Louisiana.

COMPLIMENTARY DINNER-DANCE

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Blake Williams, who left Wednesday morning for a several weeks trip to Louisiana, Mrs. T. G. Cressner entertained Tuesday evening with a spaghetti supper and dance at the Val Verde tea rooms.

Floral decorations were of Queen Anne's lace and African daisies, with colorful place cards carrying out the spring floral scheme.

Ten couples from Weslaco enjoyed this splendid hospitality.

PERSONALS

Mrs. E. E. Vaden was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. J. Bridgeport, who is very ill in Mississippi.

Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Mitchell, of McAllen visited their son Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Mitchell Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. George of Wheeling, W. Va., spent several days with Joe Allen and family.

Mrs. C. Gerding spent a few days last week with Mrs. D. Dyer of San Antonio, who is visiting in Brownsville.

Mrs. Dawn Reynolds of Battle Creek, Michigan, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Reed S. Lehman.

Mrs. G. H. Hoefler and Mrs. T. W. Glass leave Tuesday as delegates

CHERRY BLOSSOMS AND A GIRL

Washington in cherry blossom time intrigues Miss Marion Sterley, who journeyed from her home in Oakland, Cal., to see the historic trees turn the Tidal Basin into a Japanese fairland. Miss Sterley is one of the many thousands who have been thronging to the capital for a glimpse of the trees in bloom.

to the West Texas Missionary conference at Corpus Christi.

Others that are attending from Weslaco are: Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Albrighton, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thomas.

Mrs. Blake Williams and son, Junior, left Wednesday for a month's visit in Louisiana.

Miss D. Brandon of San Benito visited Mrs. B. Blackburn of Weslaco hotel.

M. E. Trout of Harlingen visited his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Reeves, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mize, Mrs. A. G. Center and Mrs. D. Foeckin left Sunday morning for San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walker from Decatur, returned home Friday after an enjoyable visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stone.

A cantata is to be given at the Methodist church, Easter evening at eight o'clock. The choir is to consist of twenty-four voices, and is to be directed by Mrs. George Hoefler, accompanying at the piano.

Mary Margaret Supphen of Edcouch visited Jean Van Vleet Sunday.

The Methodist Missionary society are to hold a food sale Saturday April 19.

G. E. Loop returned Saturday from Dallas where for a week he has been attending the J. C. Penney convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Potts of Pharr visited Sunday with the family of F. G. Wagner of Weslaco.

Mesdames R. Witt, E. I. Emmons and N. S. Allen returned home Thursday night from San Antonio

where they attended the annual session of the West Texas Presbytery.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Albrighton, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Davis and Mesdames T. W. Glass, Geo. Hoefler, and W. J. Thomas left Tuesday morning for Corpus Christi, to attend the annual session of Methodist Women's Missionary of West Texas Conference.

San Perlita

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Humble, accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mohler, all of Robstown, were visitors here Monday.

Homer Lee McKinney of Beeville was in San Perlita Monday.

Ross King of Lyford was here last week visiting his sister, Mrs. C. R. Johnson.

Mrs. Morris G. Fellows will be hostess to the Bide-a-Wee club Thursday afternoon.

Misses Gladys Shogquist of Raymondville and Ethel Armstrong of Sebastian accompanied by Lewis Prater and Joe Murphy of Lyford, were callers in San Perlita Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rube Parham and daughter Doris and John Campbell were among those who enjoyed an outing at Paso Real Sunday.

Dr. J. C. Strawn of Lyford was a caller here Monday.

Gold, valued at more than $323,000,000 has passed through the Seattle assay office in 31 years.

DISTRICT MEET OPENS FRIDAY

Delegations From Four Counties Congregate In Edinburg

(Special to The Herald.)

PHARR, April 10.—The entire program for the district meet of the Interscholastic League of Texas which is to be held in Edinburg of April 11 and 12, has been released by Supt. J. Lee Stambaugh, who is general chairman for the district.

The district is composed of Cameron, Willacy, Starr and Hidalgo counties and a good representation is expected from each of the counties. Those who are eligible to compete in the district include first place winners in debate, tennis, essay writing and rural pentathlon; first and second places in declamation, extemporaneous speech, and "3-R" contest; winners in senior track and field events are eligible in first, second, third and fourth place. The schedule for the District Meet is as follows:

Friday, April 11. Preliminaries in tennis at 8:30 a. m.

Girls' Singles—Cameron vs. Hidalgo.

Boys' singles—Cameron vs. Hidalgo.

Girls' doubles, Hidalgo vs. Willacy, Hidalgo.

Boys' Doubles, Hidalgo vs. Willacy, 1:30 p. m. Finals in tennis.

"3-R" contest.

Preliminaries in debate. (Little Theater Jr. H. S.)

7:30 p. m. Finals in debate (Little Theater Jr. H. S.)

Declamation Class A (College auditorium.)

Extemporaneous speech (College auditorium.)

Saturday, April 12. 10:00 a. m. Rural declamation. (meet in dean's office.)

1:00 p. m. preliminaries in track and field, Class A and B.

1:05 high hurdles.

1:20 100-yard dash.

1:35 low hurdles.

2:00 220-yard dash.

Saturday, April 12. 3:00 p. m. Finals in track and field.

3:15 120-yard high hurdles.

3:35 100-yard dash.

3:45 880-yard run.

4:00 220-yard low hurdles.

4:15 440-yard dash.

4:30 220-yard dash.

4:45 mile run.

5:00 mile relay.

2:45 pole vault.

Shot put.

3:30 Discus.

High jump.

4:15 Running broad jump.

Javelin throw.

District Officers

Director general, J. Lee Stambaugh, Pharr.

Director of debate, H. C. Baker, Edinburg.

Director of declamation, Thos. J. Yoe, San Benito.

Director of extemporaneous speech, Dean S. A. Caldwell, Brownsville.

Director of essay, Ernest H. Potter, Mercedes.

Director of athletics, Claude Dalley, Donna.

Director of "3-R" contest, Mrs. L. I. Wilson, Edinburg.

Contradicts Stagg

Among the dozens of students at the University of Chicago who are refuting the statement made by their coach, A. A. Stagg, at the prohibition hearings in Washington that drinking was not a problem on the campus, is Miss Marjorie Cahill, above, woman's editor of a student publication. She has been invited to testify before the judiciary committee.

Fire Wrecks Home

MERCEDES, April 10.—Fire, of an undetermined origin, totally destroyed the house belonging to Juan P. Garza, Wednesday.

The Mercedes fire department responded but was unable to combat the flames, being unable to get in reach of water. The house, of attractive modern construction, was unoccupied at the time. Loss was partially covered by insurance.

North Carolina farmers sold 20 million dollars worth of milk last year.

WONDERFUL NEWS FOR FITS SUFFERERS

New York, N. Y.—Most stubborn cases of epilepsy have been stopped by new remedy. Thousands of sufferers have been helped. If you have fits write at once to Renesol Laboratories, 509 Fifth Avenue, New York City, for free booklet. Dept. 1015. Adv.

MINISTERS HOLD MEET

(Special to The Herald.)

MERCEDES, April 10.—The Rev. E. T. Cornelius, chairman of the Southern District for Mexican Missions, was the main speaker at an all day session of the Christian ministerial association of the Valley, held at Mercedes, when more than a hundred ministers of the Christian churches of the Valley, accompanied by their wives and officers of the church, were in attendance.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with luncheon being served at the home of Mrs. G. A. Holland. Rev. J. Glenn of Tussing, chairman of the Mexican work in the Valley, also addressed the association. The association meets the first Monday in each month in the different towns in the Valley.

The session began at 10 a. m. with lun