

NEWS OF THE DAY IN PICTURES

WARDEN'S DAUGHTER TO TALKIES

Associated Press Photo
Joan Marie Lawes, daughter of Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing prison, has been signed to play in moving pictures. She leaves soon for the coast with her father where her first picture will be made. She is eight years of age and an accomplished singer and dancer.

WILL CLAIM BRITISH TITLE

Reginald Beatty Wolsey, Waterloo, Iowa, elevator operator, and Mrs. Wolsey will go to England to present their claim to a baronetcy. Wolsey left England 33 years ago.

FIRST 'CHUTE JUMP HER LAST

Florence Palmer Davis, 19, mother of a two-year-old child, was killed at a Bloomington, Ill., airport when attempting her first parachute jump. The 'chute became entangled in the plane and she dropped 2,500 feet.

LIFE FOR INSURANCE SLAYER

Dr. A. J. Bass (left), Columbia, Mo., dentist, is shown leaving the court house at Bentonville, Ark., after receiving a life sentence for the murder of W. R. Pearman. Bass pleaded guilty to killing Pearman to collect his $200,000 life insurance.

DAVIS TELLS OF CAMPAIGN FUNDS Navy Honor Student

James J. Davis, successful candidate in Pennsylvania republican senatorial primary, shown outside senate committee room where he testified regarding campaign expenditures. Left to right: Senator Dill, Washington; Secretary Davis, and Chairman Nye of the committee.

WORLD FLIERS VISIT HOOVER

Associated Press Photo
John Henry Mears (left), former holder of the round-the-world air travel record, with Fred Melchior, who will act as pilot on his second world girdling attempt, shown as they left the White House after call on President Hoover.

HARRY K. THAW IN EUROPE

Associated Press Photo
Harry K. Thaw shown upon his arrival at Plymouth, England. He was refused permission to land in England and continued on to France.

SEEK MINNESOTA SENATE SEAT

Associated Press Photo
Gov. Theodore Christianson (left) is a candidate for the republican nomination for the United States senate in Minnesota. He will oppose Senator Thomas D. Schall (right) in the primary election.

Associated Press Photo
A. McDermott Jackson of Baton Rouge, La., regimental commander at Annapolis naval academy won highest student honors for 1930.

War Mother Ill

Associated Press Photo
Mrs. Florence Williams, 72, Portsmouth, Ohio, was reported seriously ill in France. She was one of Gold Star mothers visiting graves of American soldiers.

Curb Concert

Jacques Gordon, celebrated violinist, to decide an argument, enacted a beggar role on a Chicago corner. He gave a $1,000 concert on a $40,000 Stradivarius. Passersby gave him $5.61.

Resigns

Associated Press Photo
Dr. Hernando Siles, president of Bolivia, resigned recently and placed the government in the hands of the cabinet.

BYRD GREET'S BOLLING CREW AT BALBOA

Associated Press Photo
Rear Admiral Byrd is shown with members of the Eleanor Bolling's crew on deck just after the ship docked at Balboa, Panama Canal Zone, where the admiral waited to greet his comrades. Left to right are: Bernt Balchen, airplane pilot; Arnold Clark, Charles Kessler, Jack O'Brien and Admiral Byrd.

NATIONAL SPELLING WINNERS SEE PRESIDENT

Associated Press Photo
These three young ladies and the young man, the best spellers in the national spelling bee in Washington, were received by President Hoover at the White House. Left to right: Mildred Froning, South Bend, Ind., third prize winner; Helen Jensen, Council Bluffs, Iowa, first prize; President Hoover, Ruth Desjardins, Detroit, second place, and Winfield Yarnell, Carlisle, Pa., fourth place.

FIFTH GROUP OF WAR MOTHERS SAIL FOR FRANCE

Associated Press Photo
The fifth contingent of Gold Star Mothers as they sailed from New York on the liner President Roosevelt for France where they will visit their sons' graves as guests of the United States government.

Robbed

Associated Press Photo
Marion Nixon, film star, was robbed of jewels and cash by a robber who held up passengers on a Los Angeles-Chicago passenger train in California.

Engaged

Betsy Cushing, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Cushing of Boston, will marry James Roosevelt, son of Governor and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, in Brookline, Mass., June 4.

Held In Bank Theft

Associated Press Photo
James Thomson, young bank clerk, formerly of Centerville, S. D., was arrested in connection with theft of $84,000 from Chase National bank of New York.