Greer Speaks To Luncheon

Mr. Greer held the closest attention of the club members as he discussed business conditions as they exist today and the gradual changes that are taking form in the bustness world, in the social world, and in our government. He told of the difference in attitudes of the corporations and individual businesses toward their employees.

A decided success was scored for the operetta "Cherry Blossom" which was staged Friday night at the high school auditorium. A magnificent stage setting brought much comment from the audience. The stage presented a Japanese background with a tea house covered with the purple wistera blossoms. Cherry trees in full bloom lent an additional glamour to the scene as well as added to the authenticity. Miss Edith Clare Mallernee singing the lead feminine role gave a lovely portrayal of her role. The tuneful songs and colorful chorus featuring 60 high school students together with the comedy lines made the operetta a decided
