Friday, November 6, 1914.

Your Uncle Joe Cannon goes back to congress.

And Nick Longworth comes again from Ohio.

Mr. Rye has been elected governor of Tennessee. And he is a Democrat and defeated Mr. Hooper.

[The Democratic majority in the House is reduced to about a majority of 23.

The people generally voted against the constitutional amendments. Just why we suppose they could scarcely say if asked to give a reason.

The cotton bond bill would have been defeated if left to a vote of the people. Some of our people are afraid of the very mention of bond of any kind.

This is fine weather for sowing oats. Plant oats and then plant some more oats and then plant some wheat and some more wheat. Then you can raise hogs and cattle and have something to live on and whatever you get for the cotton you do grow will be that much clear money.

This is no time for complaining and talking about hard times but it is a time for every man to do his duty and to help his neighbor. No use to be hard on any one who is trying to do his best. Let every one take his share of the loss like a man and we will all come out right.

The city council has done some good and much needed street improvement on Caldwell street from Johnstone to Boundary. While the work is under way it should at least be extended to Friend street in one direction and at least to the residence of Mr. C. C. Davis in the other direction.

Some one has suggested that what we need in Newberry is a first class and up to date roller mill. There are only two in the county and next year there will be a big wheat crop. We should be prepared to turn the wheat into first class flour. Why not build a roller flour mill in Newberry?

The Herald and News does not want to lose any subscribers, but the rule is cash in advance and every one is treated just the same. Our circulation man does not know any one. The names all look alike to him. Renew before your time is out. We want you to stay with us.

Don't forget to clean up the town and the streets and the private premises. We will have visitors in Newberry next week from every section of South Carolina. Then it is a good thing to clean up any way. Good for your own health and comfort. The city should set the example by cleaning the streets and alleys.

The county teachers are with us this week. The Baptist women next week. Who said times were dull in Newberry? We'll make 'em all have a good time and go away glad that they came. Newberry knows how to entertain the stranger within her gate and make him (her) feel at home.

The committee on securing homes for the delegates to the Baptist Union which meets here next week is still in need of homes for some one hundred of the delegates. This is a time for the good people of Newberry to exemplify their hospitality and maintain their reputation for entertainment. If you have already agreed to entertain, take a few more. All these fair mission workers must be entertained. Don't wait for the committee to call to see you but come up and tell them you will take an other delegate.

This is the largest body in point of numbers that meets in South Carolina. The attendance promises to be good.

It would be a good idea to observe clean up day every day in the year. In other words we mean that if every one would clean up his own premises every day, and he should do it, we would have a clean town all the time. As people will not do this it is necessary sometimes to have what is called clean up day, especially in the towns and cities. The schools have set apart some day very soon as clean up day in the schools. What we want to suggest is that the remaining days of this week be set apart as clean up days in the good city of Newberry. Not only by the individuals as regards their own premises but by the city as a whole. Let every one get the clean up spirit. Now is a good time.

Cotton was selling at 7.40 on Thursday. As soon as the cotton exchange opens and the regional banks get under way cotton will go to 8 or 9 cents and then some should be put on the market and some debts paid and money strated in circulation. Even 7 1-2 cents now is more than 8 1-2 seven or eight month from now. We mean better for the man who owns the cotton, because if he owes the money it will cost him more that that to hold the cotton that long. Besides the worry of having some one looking at him crossed eyed because he happens to owe a little bill. Just a portion sold now and loosen up business and the rest will bring more than enough to make up for the present loss.

Gov. Blease did not sign the cotton bond bill. Now they are saying this one got the advantage and the other one got the advantage. That Blease put it up to the legislature and that the legislature put it up to Blease. All playing politics. Well, if the legislature really wanted the cotton bond bill to become law they should not have waited to the last minute to pass it. If Blease had signed it promptly on Friday a lot of people would not have been able to know just what the bill contained. It is just about as well that it did not pass. We doubt if the people would have voted it any way. A lot of people are afraid of the very mention of bonds. The thing for every one to do now is to go work and do the best he can and the angels could do no more. We must at last work out our own salvation and it is not well to get in the habit of looking to the government to help us. It will all come right if we have courage and faith in ourselves and in our fellows. Faith—that is it—faith in our fellowman and faith in ourselves and faith in our God.

You Make Friends By Recommending a Reliable Kidney Medicine

Your representative called at my door yesterday meaning to leave a sample of your noted Swamp-Root and I am certainly pleased to see anybody connected with the firm who makes a medicine which has done so much for me and my family. A few years ago I was suffering from a terrible pain in my back and when I was up around the house I had to walk with my body bent nearly double. If you had placed a thousand dollars above my head I could not straighten up to get it.

Hearing of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root I sent you for a sample bottle and from the effects of that small amount I was sure it would help me so I bought one bottle and it has cured me.

Shortly after that my husband who was a coal miner, was suffering from kidney trouble and could not work and I sent for some of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. He was in a terrible condition, but as the doctors had not given me any relief, I had more faith in Swamp-Root and it was well founded, for it did the work and a ter taking a few bottles he was completely cured.

I daily recommend the use of Swamp-Root to my friends and neighbors.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. John Nordquist,
Galeton, Penna.

Sworn and subscribed to before me,
