GOVERNOR APPOINTS BOARD VISITORS STATE HOSPITAL

Governor Manning Saturday morning named the following as members of the board of visitors of the State Hospital for the Insane as provided in the act of reorganizing the government of the institution: Rev. J. Dean Crain of Greer; (Hos. L. Connor of Eutawville and Dr. G. A. Neuffer of Abbeville.

Of especial interest is the appointment of the Rev. J. Dean Crain of Greenville county on this board. Members of the State Press association who attended the last annual meeting will recall the brilliant address which Mr. Crain made on that occasion. He is a mountain boy who educated himself at Furman university and afterward entered the Baptist ministry. Endowed with the native intelligence which is noticeable among the sturdy white which inhabit the mountain section, Rev. Mr. Crain has become one of the leading public speakers of the state. His friends throughout South Carolina, and especially those of the newspaper profession, will be pleased at this honor which has come to him. Governor Manning heard Mr. Crain's address at Chick Springs and there immediately sprung up between them a warm friendship.

AGED TAX COLLECTOR

Restored To Health By Vinol

Corinth, Miss.—"I am a city tax collector and seventy-four years of age. I was in a weak, run-down condition. My druggist told me about Vinol. I tried it and in a week noticed considerable improvement; I continued its use and now I have gained twenty pounds in weight, and feel much stronger. I consider Vinol a fine tonic to create strength for old people."—J. A. PRICE.

SHERIFF OFFERS $100 REWARD FOR NEGRO

Lancaster People Worried Over Condition of Mr. E. M. Watkins Who Was Shot by Negro.

The State.
Lancaster, Nov. 11.—Reports reaching here from a hospital in Rock Hill concerning the serious condition of E. M. Watkins, superintendent of the Lancaster cotton oil mill, who was shot here late Saturday afternoon by a negro named John McIlwain, are not at all encouraging. During his short residence of only about a month or so in Lancaster Mr. Watkins had won the admiration and friendship of the Lancaster people and was exceedingly popular with all whom he knew. It is said that the feeling in town against his assailant, McIlwain, is very intense and considerable apprehension has been entertained, in case of McIlwain's capture, that Lancaster would see a lynching spectacle, but the sheriff of this county, John P. Hunter, has the situation well in hand and says that he expects to get the negro and that he has no fears of a lynching saying that he does not believe his friends in Lancaster would attempt to forcibly take from him a prisoner in his custody and that if any should try to do so he would protect him with his own life. Sheriff Hunter has personally offered a reward of $100 for McIlwain's arrest and commitment in any prison in the United States. The negro is 21 years of age, of a dark ginger cake color, weighs 140 pounds, clean shaven, has sharp features and is slightly hump-backed.

MANXING MAY ASK ARBITRATION LAW

Chief Executive Warns "Both Sides" Against Violence—Is Hopeful of Settlement.

The State.
Governor Manning may ask the next general assembly to pass "a compulsory arbitration law in the form of a board of conciliation." He is not definitely committed to the plan, but is giving it careful consideration. That such a board is favored by the governor was made known in a statement issued last night, dealing with the textile strikes in the Piedmont section of the state. The governor in his statement declared the people "have the right to organize if they wish to do so."

The statement in full follows:
"From the beginning of the strike at Brogan mills I have been making an effort to get the two sides to an amicable settlement. I have been especially active along these lines during the last week, but apparently the situation is no nearer a settlement than before. Nevertheless I am not discouraged, but am still trying to find a common ground on which they can meet."

"At the Judson mill in Greenville prospects for a settlement are more favorable."

"In both mills the management ajiz
"In both mills the managing officers have conceded the right of the employees to organize."

"Thus one of the fundamental sources of disagreement has been removed."

"There is one thing which both sides should understand clearly. No violence will be tolerated."

"The sheriffs of Anderson and Greenville counties will be held sternly to their duty to maintain order. I do not anticipate that they will force me to take the preservation of order out of their hands, but if I am convinced that either of the sheriffs is not fulfilling his duty, I am prepared to act."

"There is right and wrong on both sides, and the bitterness is increasing. As good citizens of South Carolina, I feel that both sides should agree upon some plan that will terminate the trouble."

"Arbitration in such disagreements has been universally recognized as a safe basis. The public is everywhere much inclined to believe that the people who avoid arbitration put themselves in the wrong."

"The communities in which these mills are situated and the State of South Carolina are deeply interested in a just settlement being reached. Private differences of this sort will not long be tolerated by the people of the state. Some means must be devised to bring all parties to an amicable frame of mind."

"At present I am gravely considering recommending to the legislature a compulsory arbitration law in the form of a board of conciliation. I am not committed to this proposition, but am studying its workings in other places. All citizens will recognize that our people have the right to organize if they wish to do so. It will also be generally recognized that the lives and property of our people must be protected."

"I will stand to both propositions."

MEETS INSTANT DEATH IN JUMPING FROM BUGGY

Samuel Stockman Fatally Injured Near Scene Where He Killed Son-in-law.

Lexington, Nov. 13.—Samuel W. Stockman was killed this afternoon when he jumped from a buggy in which he was riding with J. D. Monts, a young white man, while the horse, which young Monts was driving at the time, was going at a pretty rapid gait, the animal having become frightened when a hold-back strap on the breeching broke, causing the buggy to run upon the horse. The force of the fall caused a fracture of the skull at the base and death was instantaneous. The horse ran for two hundred yards down the road before the young man could bring it to a stop. Young Monts stated at the inquest that Stockman requested him to make the horse walk and when he did so the harness broke, in the meantime J. E. B. McCarthy of Leesville, came along in an automobile. He was the first to reach the man and he was dead.

Sheriff Miller and Dr. G. Frank Roberts went to the scene for the post mortem. The jury of inquest returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death by jumping from a buggy, the result of an accident.

A strange coincidence in connection with the fatal accident is the fact that Stockman met his death within 400 yards of his old home and the same distance from the very spot where he shot and killed his son-in-law, J. Hampton Hartley, some eight or ten years ago. After two trials Stockman was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to serve a period of seven years at hard labor. He was given his liberty some three years ago under a parole of Governor Blease, and later a full pardon by the same governor. Since his release, Stockman had been living in Brookland. He came up to his old home yesterday to close up some affairs, he having recently sold the plantation. Today he conducted a sale of personal property and those associated with him say that he was in the jolliest and happiest mood they had ever seen him. He was not under the influence of whiskey, it was stated, and was on his way with the young man, who resided on his place, to board a train at Batesburg for his home. His son, however, was going to remain over for a day or two.

Stockman was about 62 years of age and leaves a wife and eight living children, six sons and two daughters. He is also survived by one brother, Burr Stockman, of near Prosperity one of the most progressive farmers of Newberry county, and several sisters. The deceased was a member of Cedar Grove Lutheran church.

Thanksgiving Day and the Orphan.

President Wilson has appointed November 25 as the national Thanksgiving Day. It has been our annual custom on that day, or the Sabbath following to remember the orphans. We hope that every reader of these lines will gladly do so. You have a wonderful amount to be grateful for. Put your gratitude to the proof. Send to the orphanage of your church, your thank offering. Presbyterian people in Florida, Georgia and South Carolina will remember that they are united in supporting the Thornwell orphanage, Clinton, S. C., which is the property of those three synods. The children are all orphans, some three hundred in number. There are 17 cottage homes, each occupied by some 15 to 25 children, with a good motherly woman in charge. The children are regularly in school for forty weeks each year, and are taught some trade or occupation, by which they can earn an honest living. Usually they leave the home at the age of 16 to 18, unless an earlier discharge is found advisable. Their support depends upon gifts of good men and women. Especially at Thanksgiving times, they ought to be remembered. There are 180 children from South Carolina, 70 from Georgia, and 28 from Florida. The rest came from seven other states.

Contributions should be sent simply to Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton, S. C. Checks and postoffice orders should be sent to the same address.

Why of course—
The fodder's in the pumpkin and the frost helps out the dew,
But what I want to ax is, What's a feller gwine to do
When old New Year, lyin' waitin', his er double-fisted blow,
And there's nary a drop to follow where the good one's used to go
It's depressing. —B.

CRITICISES ACTION OF THE GOVERNOR

Capt. Wagener Charges That Calling Out of Militia in Charleston Was Not Necessary.

To the Editor of The State:
I read your article in The State, this morning's issue, headed "The Governor Was Not Partisan," and you find fault with Mr. Grace's letter which was published several days ago.

In reply to your statement I beg to state I have been a resident of this city since 1848, excepting the four years I was in the Confederate army, and I have never known that this city was more orderly and better policed, and I positively assert there was no reason whatsoever for calling out the four companies of the National Guard and three companies of the naval reserves and issuing 6,000 rounds of ammunition and in addition ordering the sheriff to swear in a large number of constables, armed with clubs and pistols and who were partisans. You mention the Fourth of July parade. You of course know that the militia at that time was not armed with ammunition.

You also state at the time the shooting took place that though the police did not take part in the shooting, but they did not preserve the peace. In answer to the above I beg to state in what manner could they have preserved the peace more perfectly, as they did at once arrest the Hyde party who did the shooting and disarm them. It was commonly known that one of them was a constable sworn in by the sheriff and the other one of the managers of the Ward 10 poll, which box has not been counted. As to blaming the governor, I do not wish to make any remarks, but I positively assert there was no reason whatsoever for the governor to call out the militia and arm the National Guard and naval reserves, and order the sheriff to swear in a large number of constables. It is a blessing that no more citizens have been killed or wounded. To have two governments in a city is surely dangerous, and if the governor had been requested by some of our people to do as he has done, the governor might have asked the mayor and obtained his opinion, but Mr. Grace had to be defeated at all costs. I may ask the question, Why was the militia supplied with ammunition? To shoot whom?

I must confess that while I have known Mr. Hyde pleasantly for many years, I do not like the manner he is declared mayor of this city. I voted for him four years ago, but in this late so-called election I voted for Mr. Grace, because he has proved to be a good mayor and has worked for the interests of the city and was largely instrumental in the progress of the city.

As I stated above, our city is now and has been very orderly for years and there surely was no necessity to undertake such dangerous proceedings as to arm the National Guard and naval reserves and order the sheriff to swear in a large number of constables, and in addition promise to send more troops if necessary, and all, as I understand, because some people had requested it.

F. W. Wagener.

Charleston, November 8.

COTTON CONSUMED DURING OCTOBER

Total Supplies Considerably Larger Than at the Same Time in 1914.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Cotton used during October was 500,635 bales, compared with 451,899 bales in October last year, the census bureau today announced.

Cotton on hand October 31 in consuming establishments was 1,345,749 bales, compared with 1,156,223 a year ago, and in public storage and at compresses, 4,171,747, compared with 3,777,469 a year ago.

Linters consumed during October, and not included in above figures, 68,944 bales, against 30,102 a year ago. Linters on hand October 31 in consuming establishments 130,631 bales, compared with 65,174 a year ago, and in public storage and at warehouses 71,372 bales, against 41,758 a year ago.

Spindles active during October were 31,379,385 against 30,461,320 a year ago.

Cleveland School.

The Cleveland school opened its fall session last Monday morning with a large attendance. Miss Janie Chalmers of Newberry is principal and Miss Alpha Maddox of Barker's Creek is assistant. This was one of the first schools in the county to adopt compulsory school attendance under an act passed at the last session of the general assembly.—Honea Path Chronicle.
