

The Manning Times.

MANNING, S. C. SEPT. 15, 1909.

Publishes All County and Town Official Advertisements.

Advertisers will please remember that copy for a change of ad. must be in this office by Saturday Noon in order to insure publication the following week.

ST. PETER'S, NO. 54
A. F. T.
Wednesday Night, Sept. 22
Master's Degree.

At Weinberg's Grocery.

Takes advantage of the following special prices. This offer only good for a short time:

- 1-gallon cans pure Georgia Cane Syrup, only 60c per can.
- 1-gallon cans pure Georgia Cane Syrup, only 30c per can.
- 1-gallon cans pure Old-Fashioned Molasses, only 60c per can.
- 1-gallon cans pure Old-Fashioned Molasses, only 30c per can.

A full stock of Karo Corn Syrup in all sizes on hand; also other leading brands.

Weinberg's Grocery.

"Where quality reigns."

At Weinberg's Grocery.

Judge R. O. Purdy of Sumter, was in Manning Monday.

Cotton comes rolling in, because this market gives all that is coming for it.

A pretty girl is the very idea to have behind a gent's furnishing goods counter.

Miss Sadie Smith, of Laurens, is now in the service of the Rigby Dry Goods Co.

Mr. Julius Levy, a well known traveling man, died in Georgetown yesterday.

Miss Vallye Appelt hiked out for Chocoma College at Greenville this morning.

Senator J. H. Clifton of Sumter, spent Monday in Manning on professional business.

Mrs. T. B. Haynesworth of Florence is in Manning visiting her mother Mrs. Louise Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thomas of Charleston are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. S. Harvin.

There was a large congregation out to hear Rev. James McDowell last Sunday in the Presbyterian church.

Died at Pinewood last Sunday, Mrs. B. D. Griffin. The funeral took place in the Weeks family burying ground.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Coffey are in St. Louis, where Mr. Coffey is purchasing horses and mules for Coffey & Rigby.

Mrs. Beulah Dinkins and Mrs. Corinne DuRant of Rome, are in Manning at the home of their brother Judge Wilson.

Work is progressing on the sewerage, and it will probably be a paying investment to the stock holders of the M. P. C. Co.

The Jewish merchants of this town will have their stores closed Saturday the 24th on account of the day of atonement.

Died at her home in Society Hill, Mrs. Elizabeth Jamison aged 94 years. The deceased was the mother of Mr. Jamison of this town.

The family of the late John P. Strange has requested THE TIMES to thank the people of the town who were kind to them in their affliction.

Mrs. T. M. Mouson now prepared to inform the ladies that has look "just too sweet for anything," at the Jenkinson millinery department.

The Jewish day of atonement falls on Saturday next week, when the merchants of that faith will have their places of business closed. It is a day of fast.

Those who expect to qualify as teachers of the county superintendent in this week's issue of THE MANNING TIMES.

Rev. James McDowell is to preach in Bethel church next Saturday and Sabbath, the 18th and 19th instants. One of the churches he was recently pastor of.

Look at the label on this paper. It will tell you if you are in it for a building lot in the town of Manning to be given away by THE TIMES, this winter.

Misses Pet Wilson, Corinne DuRant and Joe Hall went to Sumter Monday, well, it is none of our business what they went for and therefore will not say.

Died on last Saturday in the Sumter Infirmary, Mrs. Mary Cato, youngest daughter of Mr. Caleb C. DuBose of Midway. The burial took place in Sumter Sunday.

If Manning's merchants would only secure the services of a first class dress maker, much of the dress goods trade now going to Sumter would remain where it belongs, at home.

Cotton is not bringing the price now that it did, but the farmers need not get alarmed, the price will come back, and go higher, in spite of the silliness of the suckers who bit at the 10 cent bait.

A new load of mules and horses will arrive Saturday. Come and see them before buying. Some nice mules and good heavy horses among them. F. C. Thomas, Ma. dnr, S. C.

It is again rumored that the Alcolu railroad is coming to Manning, and we think that the Aldermen will have to bring their road here just to put a stop to these persistent reports.

The gripe has embraced THE TIMES editor, and it is less inspiring than the embraces of those we have a greater fondness for. Therefore if this issue is not up to the standard, the gripe did it.

There is a young chap in town who does not seem able to understand why it was that all the girls he asked to go out with him Monday night had a previous engagement. Some of the girls should tell him to "smoke up."

There are times when a man's business is set for a trap to catch the people's noses in, so if there happens to be an outcry in the neighborhood, go to the trap, and you will find in all probability a new nose has been caught where it had no business.

Rutledge Loses Again.

The State board of canvassers sustained the action of the Clarendon board and reversed the action of the Rutledge board, which means that the advocates of Rutledge lose.

The return home of Mr. J. W. McLeod improved in health is a source of great pleasure to his friends, his presence upon our streets looks natural, and we hope he will continue to improve and stay with us a long time.

Get into the game THE TIMES is going to give away a town building lot to one of its subscribers this winter. Of course, the subscriber must be a resident of this town, and must have been a subscriber for not less than one year.

What a temptation it is to hurl a brick at some of the huns we occasionally see on our streets, were we not afraid of an irate husband because of making him go to the expense of buying another, there is one hat in town we would hurl a cart load of bricks at.

What is the matter with having the sidewalks of Manning paved? There are many of the summer towns in the State that would make us feel like we came up in the dark ages if we walked on a dirt road and had to walk on our feet after a rainfall.

Died at Paxville on the 5th, Mrs. H. C. King, mother of Mrs. Geo. H. King of Paxville, Mr. J. H. King of St. Paul and Melvin King of Sumter. The funeral took place at St. Paul on Monday.

Rev. Mr. Manney of Pinewood conducted the service.

Mr. C. Allen McFadden has gone to Chocoma Springs to attend a convention of farm demonstrators. Mr. McFadden will meet all of the demonstrators from all over the State, and the convention will be a school of instruction. Prof. E. J. Brown accompanied him.

With proud and stately steps several hundred colored Good Samaritans are parading our street today. We are told this convention will have about 800 delegates. The Mannings will entertain this large force of visitors with the town's usual warm hospitality.

Game warden, H. D. Plowden, destroyed a fish trap belonging to Mr. Frank Harrington in Brexington lake last week, and on Monday had issued a warrant for the prosecution of Harrington, under the fish and game laws. Mr. Harrington does not believe that Mr. Plowden has any warrant in law to destroy property and he proposes to give the game warden a run for his money. The case will be watched with interest as people want to know just how much their privileges are abridged through the influence of games and fish clubs.

Died in Manning last Thursday morning after a long illness, Mr. John J. Harrison, a highly respected citizen, aged about 66 years. The deceased was a Confederate soldier, entering the service at an early age with the Manning Guards and was wounded in the first battle of Manassas, a wound that with him his life. He was twice married, and had a constant sufferer during life. Mr. Harrison was for many years a conspicuous figure around the courthouse, having served for many years as jailer. He was a good citizen, and a fine father, and he and his wife had a large family of children. His sons are noted for their magnificent womanhood. On account of the condition of the body it became necessary to bury the body in the same casket as the interment took place in the Manning cemetery, with Masonic honors. Rev. F. H. Shuler pastor of the Methodist church of which the deceased was a member, assisted by Rev. James McDowell, an old friend and army comrade conducted the religious service.

Don't fail to see the greatest attraction ever booked for this town on September 24th, at Manning School Auditorium, "The College Singing Girls."

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Coffey are in St. Louis, where Mr. Coffey is purchasing horses and mules for Coffey & Rigby.

Mrs. Beulah Dinkins and Mrs. Corinne DuRant of Rome, are in Manning at the home of their brother Judge Wilson.

Work is progressing on the sewerage, and it will probably be a paying investment to the stock holders of the M. P. C. Co.

The Jewish merchants of this town will have their stores closed Saturday the 24th on account of the day of atonement.

Died at her home in Society Hill, Mrs. Elizabeth Jamison aged 94 years. The deceased was the mother of Mr. Jamison of this town.

The family of the late John P. Strange has requested THE TIMES to thank the people of the town who were kind to them in their affliction.

Mrs. T. M. Mouson now prepared to inform the ladies that has look "just too sweet for anything," at the Jenkinson millinery department.

The Jewish day of atonement falls on Saturday next week, when the merchants of that faith will have their places of business closed. It is a day of fast.

Those who expect to qualify as teachers of the county superintendent in this week's issue of THE MANNING TIMES.

Rev. James McDowell is to preach in Bethel church next Saturday and Sabbath, the 18th and 19th instants. One of the churches he was recently pastor of.

Look at the label on this paper. It will tell you if you are in it for a building lot in the town of Manning to be given away by THE TIMES, this winter.

Misses Pet Wilson, Corinne DuRant and Joe Hall went to Sumter Monday, well, it is none of our business what they went for and therefore will not say.

Died on last Saturday in the Sumter Infirmary, Mrs. Mary Cato, youngest daughter of Mr. Caleb C. DuBose of Midway. The burial took place in Sumter Sunday.

If Manning's merchants would only secure the services of a first class dress maker, much of the dress goods trade now going to Sumter would remain where it belongs, at home.

Cotton is not bringing the price now that it did, but the farmers need not get alarmed, the price will come back, and go higher, in spite of the silliness of the suckers who bit at the 10 cent bait.

A new load of mules and horses will arrive Saturday. Come and see them before buying. Some nice mules and good heavy horses among them. F. C. Thomas, Ma. dnr, S. C.

It is again rumored that the Alcolu railroad is coming to Manning, and we think that the Aldermen will have to bring their road here just to put a stop to these persistent reports.

The gripe has embraced THE TIMES editor, and it is less inspiring than the embraces of those we have a greater fondness for. Therefore if this issue is not up to the standard, the gripe did it.

There is a young chap in town who does not seem able to understand why it was that all the girls he asked to go out with him Monday night had a previous engagement. Some of the girls should tell him to "smoke up."

There are times when a man's business is set for a trap to catch the people's noses in, so if there happens to be an outcry in the neighborhood, go to the trap, and you will find in all probability a new nose has been caught where it had no business.

A Comrade's Tribute.

Editor The Manning Times.

It was with a sad heart, we went to the cemetery in Manning, Thursday evening at 5 o'clock to attend the funeral of our comrade, John P. Strange, who has been a great sufferer for several months, in fact he has never known what a well day was since he was seriously wounded forty-eight (48) years or more ago, at the first battle of Manassas, Va. It has been his good fortune to know Comrade Strange from boyhood days, we lived in the same neighborhood, he went to the same school, and in young manhood went to the war in defense of our country. He in the Manning Guards and I in the Spott's Guards, two companies organized at Manning in 1861, and both of us were in the Manning Guards by Capt. Brown Manning and the Spott's Guards by Col. H. L. Benbow. It was near the same spot that each of us received dangerous wounds a little over a year apart. He was first wounded by two noble soldiers, the Manning Guards by Capt. Brown Manning and the Spott's Guards by Col. H. L. Benbow. It was near the same spot that each of us received dangerous wounds a little over a year apart. He was first wounded by two noble soldiers, the Manning Guards by Capt. Brown Manning and the Spott's Guards by Col. H. L. Benbow. It was near the same spot that each of us received dangerous wounds a little over a year apart. He was first wounded by two noble soldiers, the Manning Guards by Capt. Brown Manning and the Spott's Guards by Col. H. L. Benbow.

It is alarming to see the Confederate soldiers passing away so rapidly; lately we have been called upon to mourn the loss of Danwold Holladay, Ben Bagget, Jim Hodge, John Barnes, Jack Col. Benbow, Edson Robertson, Tom Johnson, Sump Lowder and many others who have with us. These were good soldiers as ever assembled on a battlefield and I trust have gone where there is no more strife, but peace and happiness forever. Comrade Strange was with me in the sheriff's office for fourteen years and true and faithful in all he attempted to do. It was a great pleasure on this occasion to see as many of the old soldiers as we did, and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well.

It was beautiful to see the tender and sacrificing devotion of Comrade Strange's family. Two of his boys came as well as the wife, and the Rev. Jas. McDowell, who was chaplain in our army in Virginia, and who has been such a friend to the old soldiers for these many years and to have him offer a prayer that must have thrilled every heart present. May he be with many days yet to work for his Master that he has served so long and so well