BEFORE THE INDIAN

RACE OF MEN LIVED HERE BE-FORE THE RED MEN

LIMIT WITHOUT

Laved Along the Missouri River and What Became of Them is a Mys-Paraphernalia Behind Them .-

Houses Built Partly Within the Ground.

A strange prehistoric civilization has been discovered on the western bank of the Missouri River, and Harvard University authorities have announced that they will soon conduct extensive research work in an effort to establish something definite con-

ity, and who, last summer, sent a proposed last year. large collection of srude implements of agriculture, chase, and warfare to | ial report," says the comptroller genthe Peabody Museum, at Harvard. eral, "heretofore made to your hon-Prof. Stern was formerly connected orable body that the appropriations with the Gilder archaelogical survey asked for, $2,578,439, exceed the of the western bank of the Missouri estimated revenue of the State, under River, and it was his personal ac- a levy of six and one-fourth mills, by quaintance with the field which de- $456,256.00, and if you make all cided Harvard to undertake the exploration.

remains that Dr. R. F. Gilder, well propriations. For section 2, article known archaeologist, who has spent 10 of the constitution requires a levy eight years on a survey within 25 sufficient to pay the ordinary expenmiles of Omaha, recently announced ses of the state, together with any that in his opinion the population of existing deficiency in income to meet the Missouri Valley is not so great nor so dense as was that of the civfitzation which passed away thousands of years ago.

Both Prof. Stern and Dr. Gilder were struck with the absence of anything showing, or even indicating, the fate of the people who so thickly inhabited this country. They simply disappeared. But they left their paraphernalia behind them. Their crude agricultural implements remained in the corners of their houses which finally rotted and fell in, but they were not destroyed by force. The pots and rude cooking utensils were, in many cases, left boiling on the fires which burned in the centre of the lodges. Their bone fishhooks were left hanging to the walls. Their instruments of war-their clubs. their bows and arrows and their spears-remained in their accustomed places. Their little ornaments of personal adornment stays in the family cache, and even their articles of feed were left in the burrows used

The thousands of people seem to for a moment and then failed to rewhere they went, and they have not a single tradition as to who they were. They lived in the Missouri Valley ages before the red man came.

The ruins which the Harvard men will excavate and explore are scattered up and down the Missouri River for miles and miles. They consist altogether of "house sites". The houses were partly within the ground tragedy, which wiped out the nation, the supporting timbers rotted, the dirt fell down into the excavations. covering everything the fleeing people left behind. In time dust and dirt sifted in and filled these house deep.

In numbers these old ruins are almost without limit. According to that the entire cotton crop this year Dr. Gilder, every hill between Sioux City and Kansas City is simply a vast house site. And in every one explored there are the same indications of a hasty flight and a great tragedy.

These ruins do not appear on the Iowa side of the Missouri, but are confined altogether to the Nebraska side. However, there are remains of an entirely different people and another civilization on the Iowa hills. That the two races lived in entirely different ages is shown by the fact that none of the implements common on one side of the river is found on the other side.

In many respects these ancient people were entirely foreign to any other whose remains have ever been found in America. This is shown by the implements left behind when they took their flight. Among these is a beautifully carved head with disthe rectangular ear guards worn by ever before found on the American continent. Of it James Mooney; of the American bureau of ethnology, said: "It is the greatest archaeological find in America in a century. and nothing like it has ever before been found." Harlin I. Smith, head of the archaeological survey of Canads, who saw the little head some time ago, announced that he was entirely unable to classify it, and that certainly it belonged to a culture of which archaeotogists and anthropologists in America knew absolutely nothing.

COCOA NUTS HELD WHISKEY.

Texas Farmer Tells How He Evaded

Oklahoma Law.

A man has appeared in Texas as a capitalist and with the expectation of becoming a decent citizen. He says he made his fortune bootlegging whiskey into Oklahoma by means of cocoa nuts. In Kansas City, St. Louis, Fort Smith and other convenient points he bought cocoa nuts by the carload. He removed the "eye" from each with a knife and emptied the nut of its milk and substituted liquor. The "eye" was then replaced and seafed with a wax annoying letters from Mary Stream-

TAXES MAY BE HIGHER

STATE LEVY MAY BE INCREASED TO EIGHT MILLS

Sources of Income Will Yield Only

$1,821,875, While $456,256 More Than That Is Being Asked For.

The state revenue for 1913 from taxes, estimated and based upon the Bold Kidnapers Almost Succeed in present assessment of $291,500,000 tery.—They Disappeared Leaving at a rate of six and one-fourth mills on the dollar, would be $1,821,875 To this add the estimated income from other than taxes, of $300,308, and we have a total estimated revenue of $2,122,183." This statement is made by A. W. Jones, comptroller general, on the financial situation, in a statement to be sent to the general assembly during the

The comptroller general says that the levy of six and one-fourth mills would be one-half a mill more than cerning the race which antedated last year, and is rendered necessary both the Indians and the forerunners to carry out the plans for building of the red man in the Missouri Val- the new State Hospital for the Insane He says that if a half a mill is levied The work will be under the per- for this particular purpose, every sonal direction of Prof. F. H. Stern, year it will give about $150,000 a of Harvard, who, says an Omaha year and that it will take about six dispatch in the Washington Post, has years to pay for the buildings, which already spent some time among the are estimated to cost about $1,000,prehistoric town sites in this vicin- 000, or the amount of the bond issue

"It will thus be seen by the Specthe appropriations asked for, it will be necessary to make a rate of eight So numerous are these prehistoric mills on the dollar to raise the apthe appropriations or the expeses. brought over from the preceeding year. It therefore seems that appropriations should not be increased more than absolutely necessary untilthe system for the assessment of property has been so reformed as to equalize the burden. "In any event, before the taxes of expenses. the tax books escaping taxation, which if discovered and taxed, would belp in the bearing of this burden and place the state's operation on a cash basis and avoid the paying of unnecessary interest and expenses on

COTTON GINNING REPORT.

Crop Nearly Million and a Half Behind Last Year.

The ninth cotton ginning report of he census bureau for the season, is- up the occupants. Before any one sued at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, could recover, a policeman had takhave simply gone out of their homes announced that 13,091,264 bales of en charge of the two men and the cotton, counting round as half bales, girl, who was found on the floor of turn. The Indians do not know of the growth of 1912 had been gin- the wrecked taxi, her arms pinioned ned prior to Thursday, January 16, and a blanket thrown over her. to which date during the past seven years the ginning averaged 95.3 per cent, of the entire crop.

Last year to January 16 there had been ginned 14,515,799 bales, or 93.3 per cent. of the entire crop; in 1908 to that date, 12,666,203 bales, or 96.8 per cent, and in 1906 that date 12, 176,199 bales, or 93.8 per ef elay, and when, after the great cent. Included in the ginnings were 78,892 round bales, compared with 97,654 bales last year, 111,079 bales in 1910, 146,378 bales in 1909 and 232,510 bales in 1908.

The final ginning report will be issites until they were almost level m., and will announce the quantity the old houses are indicated by a February 28. Up to January 16, slight depression, only a few inches 1912, South Carolina had ginned 1,-192,267 and 1,536,085 up to Jan-injury. uary 16, 1911. The indications are will be over one and a half million bales less than it was last year.

SLAUGHTER OF LEPERS.

Chinese Officials Shoot and Burn Band of Outcasts.

Thirty-nine lepers recently were put to death in an atrocrous manner by order of the provincial authorities of Nauting, province of Kwang M. Too sufferers from the dread disease first were shot and the ntheir bodies sible for the death of two million wers burned in a huge trench. A water fowls in 1910 and nearly as Catholic mission had sought permis- many during the past season. sich to build at its own expense a sion to build at its own expense a of the Biological Survey at Washinglazaretto for the lepers, and the pro- ton and through its offices Dr. Buckvincial authorities, pretending to ley of the Pathological Division of consent, dug a pit, in which was the Bureau of Animal Industry was placed wood, soaked with keposene. At the point of the bayonet the lepers epidemic. All those who have given then were driven into the pit and the matter attention now concur in tinctly Egyptian features, including shot and the pyre was lighted and Dr. Buckley's conclusion that sultheir bodies burned an the presence phuric acid discharged into the them, entirely foreign to anything of a large crowd. The authorities marshes by industrial plants has deoffered rewards for the discovery of stroyed the birds. This discovery other lepers and this resulted in the paves the way for legislation which shooting of one more man afflicted with the disease.

BEES TRAP A BURGLAR.

On His Way to Rob Farmer, Thief

Stumbles Over Hive.

Driven into spasms of agony by the stings of a hive of bees, an armed burglar, trapped in the yard at the home of John Sampson, a tarmer of Fallington, Pa., yelled at the top of his voice and surrendered were driven away.

"For God's sake, save me! Please do something! I came to rob your house, but fell over the hive and these devils attacked me."

After making this appeal the robher dropped his revolver and lan- this sum. Then follow claims for tern. Sampson picked them up, orieted the bees and led his pris- Many European countries and most oner to the town jail. It was ne- States of the Union are represented. cessary to call a physician to relieve ne victim's agony.

Wrote Him Many Letters.

Alleging that he had received 700

AN HEIRESS STOLEN

YOUNG LADY IS BOLDLY TAKEN FROM HER HOME

JOURNED IN A TAXICAB

Daring Plan, But is Foiled by the Driver, Who Heads the Automo bile for the Police Station, and Kidnapers Are Arrested.

Facing a sentence of life imprisonment at Allentown, Pa., for the attempted kidnaping of an heiress to millions. Samuel Sinclair Jr., and R. Walter Star Jr., have put forward a novel plea for their defense. Sinclair, the principal in the bold plot. insists that the alleged kidnaping of Miss Anna A. Steckel, the daughter of a retired millionaire business man of that city, was not a kidnaping at all, but an elopement plot which was to result in him marrying the pretty society girl. The indignant denial entered by Miss Steckel against this story is blandly explained by Sinclair who says that the girl got 'cold feet" and is now trying to place him in prison to save herself.

"Elopement, nothing!" declares the aged father of the girl. "I saw my daughter being cragged out of her own home by these two men, and when I protested the only answer I received was to 'shut up'. I am too old to have offered any violent objection to the kidnaping, but I will spend half my money to have them properly punished'

The attempted kignaping of Miss Steckel was one of the boldest crimes of its sort the east has record of for a number of years. She was returning to the palatial home of her father from a shopping trip, and when she turned in at the gate noticed a taxicab standing by the curb, but thought nothing of it. She opened the front door and stepped into the vestibule when she was grabbed by Sinclair and Star.

Thinking the whole affair a joke at first, for she knew the two young 1913 are available, the state must men, she began laughing, but the borrow $500,000.00 to meet current mirth turned to shrieks when she found herself being dragged down "The state has taxable property of the walk toward the waiting cab. mouth, and thus gagged she was thrust into the waiting automobile.

> The chauffeur, who told the police that his cab had been engaged "for a wedding," became suspicious at the actions of the men, and when the men followed the girl into the car and told him to drive on, he determined to turn the entire party over to the police. He drove at break-neck speed, and, in turning a corner, crashed into a monument, disabling the car and badly shaking

The two young men in the case are members of promment Philadelphia families. Sinclair, the leader in the alleged kidnaping, had been a suitor of Miss Stecker's for months, but his love making had been discouraged by the young lady and his presence in the house barred by her father. Star declares he knew nothing of any kidnaping, but believed he was to help in an elopement. The pretty victim in the case was handled so roughly by the men in at- and agricultural doctors wait until tempting to keep her quiet, that she is still in bed. She constantly asks tion to apply the remedy. These sued Thursday, March 20, at 10 a. for a guard to protect her, now that the two men in the case have been better condition generally fail. with the surrounding ground. Now, of cotton ginned prior to Friday, set at liberty on ball, declaring that There is want of wise co-operation, she fears Sinclair will make another attempt to get her or do her bodily efit of all.

WASTE OF ANIMAL LIFE.

Sulphuric Acid Poisoning Cause

Death of Fowl.

the enormous mortality among wild have revealed the fact that sulphuric made. acid poisoning, and not a contagious disease as was believed, was respon-

The Association solicited the aid sent to the scene of the supposed should be immediately enacted to prevent this great waste of valuable animal life.

TITANIC HORRORS RETOLD.

Claims Amounting to Over Five Million Dollars Filed

Stories of death, suffering and perof utter financial destitution and re- the oath since the inauguration of citals of loss of costly gems and Governor George W. Flick thirty laces and gowns are to be found set | years ago. law in the 279 claims thus far filed with the United States commissioner | wives. Gilchrist at New York for damages due to the Titanic disaster. The total amount is $5,500,000. Death claims constitute the larger part of loss of baggage and personal effects.

Mexican Rebel Outrages.

Rebels have raided the ranch and mills of J. M. Gleason, an American, near Chiantempam, in the state of Tiaxicala, Mexico, killing four of the which left no sign of an opening er, a Staten Island school teacher, employees. Several women were abthen shipped to Oxiahoma and sold during the past four years, Dr. Henry ducted. The manager of the ranch, having been made. The nuts were Goodwin, a prominent Staten Island who is Mr. Gleason's son, and his for $1 a piece. He made enough physician, obtained a summons Fri- wife and child, escaped with difficul- to be snipped back to the native land

RAILROAD CAR THIEVES

ED BY GOV. BLEASE.

Was Caught in a Band of Railroad Thieves at Allendale Where They Were Robbing Cars.

A dispatch from Barnwell says W. T. Scott, a white man, said to be from Atlanta, and five negroes, were arrested in Barnwell, where they were lodged in jail charged with attempted car-breaking. One of the negroes, Hammie Williams, was remerous robberies at Allendale.

Hammie Williams, Jno. Talbert, Dan- ably the Ivar of Copenhagen. ny Moore, Bill Gardner, Charlie Johnson, negroes, and W. T. Scott, white, were arrested Sunday on charges of car-breaking and robbery, and were sent to the county jail at several others, was caught in the act train while it was stopping for coal town, about 2 o'clock Sunday mornmg.

cape, except Williams, who, becomproached and demanded the prison-The flagman presented his pistol and frightened them away. On seedelivered him to the police. Three-more negroes were arrest-which four others and one white man were arrested Saturday and are now awaiting preliminary hearing. The white man and one negro have confessed and profess willingness to testify against the others. Later Hammie Williams confessed and implicated the above named When she screamed for help, one of prisoners. For some time evidences the men placed his nand over her of car robbery has been in progress at that point, and the authorities believe they have captured the members of an organized band,

SHOULD HELP EACH OTHER.

Parmers Should Organize for Mutual

Protection. All classes of business men can combine and plan and work and scheme for their mutual benefit except the farmers. Their attempts at co-operative work in buying and sell-Occasionally when cotton goes below the cost of production, the farmers blow off het air and then, after a ed to hold cotton until it rises to a certain price. Then another set of resolutions will be passed to cut down the aureage of the next crop. Three-fourths of the farmers take no part in these meetings, and they do not feel bound by any tesclutions. These farm: rs the patient is in a moribund condispasmodic efforts to bring around a that is, working together for the ben-

If the farmers could get rid of three-fourths of the middlemen who stand between them and the manufacturers on one side and the ultimate consumers on the other, they would then be in a fair way to be benefited by co-operative buying and selling. Large farmers who buy sup-Investigations of the causes for plies by the car load and 100 to 500 tons of fertilizer may deal directly ducks in the neighborhood of Salt with the manufacturers and get rid Lake City, Utah, which were justi- of the middlemen, except a per cent. gated by the American Game Pro- reserved for special agents of the tective and Propagation Association, territory where the purchase is

WILL MAKE IT A PARK.

Kentucky Will Beautify the Birthplace of Jeff Davis.

The work of beautifying the Jefferson Davis Memorial park at Fairview, near Hopkinsville, Ky., will be taken up in earnest with the advent of spring, according to an announcement from the board of commissioners appointed by Governor McCreary. Nineteen acres of the Davis farm, on which Jefferson Davis was born, have been purchased and a stone fence is being built around it with funds appropriated by the state. The statue of the former president of the Confederacy will be erected in the spring. Other permanent improvements of the property are expected to get under way as soon as weather conditions permit. Kansas Comes Back Again. George H. Hodges, of Olathe, was inaugurated Tuesday as the nineteenth governor of Kansas, being the manent physical injuries; accounts first Democratic executive to take in gratitude when his tormentors forth in the normal phrasing of the was communistic in habit, or that each man was blessed with 100

They Had Free Fight.

At Cheyenne, Wyo., a riot broke out in the house of representatives of the Wyoming legislature Monday when Speaker Spratt and Speaker Pro Tem Wood both claimed the right to preside. A violent fight, which was interrupted by members, took place between the two officers.

Ship Dead to China.

After being buried in various Chiof seventy-four Chinese were disinterred and placed in metallic caskets ne woman's appear- ty. The buildings were leoted and for final burial. They were shipped chill blasts of winter in the north; New York for Hong Kong.

LOST WITH ALL HANDS

ONE WAS A MURDERER PAROL- ONE STEAMER SEES ANOTHER GO TO THE BOTTOM.

> Saw Large Ship Plunge Beneath the Waves in Terrific Hurricane With All on Board.

The News and Courier says the sinking of a large Danish steamship, with all hands on board, off the southwest coast of England during a terrific hurricane on the 26th of December, was the scene witnessed by Capt. K. Ree, master of the Dutch cently paroled by the Governor dur- steamship Phecda, which arrived in ing good behavior. He was serving port Saturday night from Hamburg out a sentence for murder, having with a cargo of fertilizer material. been convicted at Barnwell several The name of the lost vessel is not years ago. The arrests followed nu- known, but it is believed by some of Capt. Ree's officers that she was a A dispatch from Allendale says large Danish merchantman, prob-

Capt. Ree says that on the 25th and 26th of December the Phecda passed through a hurricane. On the afternoon of the 26th, about three o'clock, the officers of the Phecda Legislature. Barnwell. Hammie Williams, with sighted a big Danish tramp, which seemed to have been badly damaged of robbing a car of a through freight by the storm, but was fighting her way slowly through high seas. and water in the suburbs of the Capt. Ree signalled to know if the steamer was in distress and needed assistance. The unknown vessel did Upon the approach of the train not request aid. She carried her result." crew all the robbers made their es- flag at half-mast. As the Phecda drew nearer the Dane appeared to ing entangled in a wire fence, he be trying to make a turn and come derselling in local markets, mergers. was captured, placed in charge of to the leeside. The high seas washthe flagman, who was instructed to ed her decks and scattered her boats. turn him over to the police. On At about 4:15 o'clock a mountaintheir way a party of negroes, suppos- like sea swept over her, and when ed repeatedly during the national ed to be members of the gang, ap- it passed the vessel plunged downward head first.

Capt. Ree thinks that the last high sea that broke over the ill-fated Dane swept the men from their mind. ing the pistol drawn Williams caught | decks. The Phecda came up to the and wrung it from his grasp and at- spot where the unknown vessel was tempted to use it with murderous seen to go down and stood by until intent, but after a scramble the flag- nearly midnight. The officers of the man overpowered him and tied and Fhecda kept a sharp lookout to see if any of the bodies of the drowned men could be found, but nothing ed Sunday charged with complicity floated afterward by which the lost in the car-breaking and robbery for ship could be identified. The weather was clear after the storm and the moon shone brightly.

The vessel which sank appeared to be a steamer of about 3,000 tons, with black hull and smokestack. The smokestacks had the sign of the perpendicular cross. It is believed that she was a Danish merchantman owned in Copenhagen, probably the Ivar. The Phecda experienced an exceedingly rough passage, but being a very fine ship and in the hands of able officers and seamen she weathered the gale and is entirely seaworthy and ready for the sea again at a moment's notice.

ISSUES ATTRACTIVE FOLDER

The Southern Railway Mails One to Every Railroad Agent. The Southern Railway has recently issued and mailed to every railroad ing have been failures except in a ticket agent in the United States a local way, where only a few men en- very attractive folder printed in two tered into a business arrangement colors, which booms the South as a which was practical and beneficial. new field for settlers. The following is coppled from it:

Man is a migratory being. This is hold meetings and politicians will particularly true of the American. As far back as that point in time time, some resolutions will be pass- when history fades into tradition man has sought the possible or the impossible through migration. When, in the days of the later > Caesars, civilization took its west ward trend the spirit of migration began to develop. Its inspiration then was battle, conquest, territory. Emulation among men pressed forward the outposts of civilization until they belted the world. They were advanced to the south and to the north, and there came a day when the remotest regions of the earththe north pole and the south poleyielded to the militant spirit of mi> gration instilled through centuries of conquest into man. The spirit of migration is as active in man to-day as it was in the days of the Roman legions. Its inspiration, however, is not battle and blood; but commerce and industry, rest and recreation. It renders possible a further extension of the arts of peace and the realms of pleasure. Through its promptings fancy is translated into fact; and man is the > better for it. Civilization, too, has developed. In this twentieth century migratory man is supplied with the means of gratifying the spirit of moving innate in him. He is no longer chained to a post. The railroad, the telegraph, the telephone, have removed the bars of business and man now may indulge the spirit of migration without suffering loss. He may migrate for pleasure, for health or for commerce, assured that he will enjoy all the conveniences, comforts and luxuries of his own habitat-and then some. Man thus has become enthusiastic in his migration. The forms of his movements are varied. He may change his residence; he may take day night, in which six men received a business trip; he may migrate for pleasure or for health. But the spirit of his being is one that promotes industry, prosperity and happiness. Migration has become vacation. Man yields to its fascination and thereby becomes the better acquainted with his country, with nature, with his family, with himself. His is an amplified life. He does not exist, merely; he lives. And he lets others live. He does not waste time; he finances it.

Through migration man has been emancipated; his wits have been sharpened; and his intelligence has been enlightened. No longer is the man with a gun case, a fishing rod or a bag of golf clubs regarded as in the products of its soils and an idler or a drone. He is a man of mines; imperial in its natural beauideas. He capitalizes brains. More ties and resources; imperial in its than likely he is a captain of industry, a promoter of patriotism of a supporter of good citizenship. He is tunities. manifesting in a morally and physi-As a playground, for the winter cally healthful way that spirit of migration that was born in him. His periods of migration are the results world. Its fruits and flowers are irof evolution and of the superior development of his own being.

Migrations for pleasure, for health, no longer restricted by the seasons. | al. cago cometeries for years, the bodies In these days, the great empire of the south, which is gridironed by empire of the south becken alike the the lines of the Southern Railway. affords delightful relief from the the poor. Room is there for bothand in the summer, the beauties of that empire spells success.

HITS TRUSTS HARD MET TRAGIC DEATH

TRYING TO END THEM IN NEW NAZIM WASHA SHOT TO DEATH IN HIS OFFICE. JERSEY BY THE LAW

AFTER WATERED STOCK YOUNG TURKS TO FIGHT

Seven Bills Providing for Most Extensive Revision of Corporation Laws in State's History Introduced is Confidently Expected, Both Houses Being Democratic.

President-elect Woodrow Wilson Monday reached what he considers the climax in his program of reform as Governor of New Jersey. Seven bills making for the most extensive revision of the corporation laws in the history of the State were introduced Monday night in the State

"These Acts are designed to put an end to trusts and monopolies under the laws of New Jersey." declared Governor Wilson in a prepared statement describing the measures, "and I confidently predict that they will accomplish that much-desired Though the principle of the bills, which seek to prevent monopoly, unthe existence of holding companies and the issuance of watered stock. is one which the Governor emphasizcampaign, he declared Monday night that the proposed legislation had been drawn with the conditions in the State of New Jersey alone in

"These bills embody my ideas of the way New Jersey should deal with the question," ne said. "National legislation might have to be different."

Ever since the end of the campaign the Governor has been working on the problem of corporation reform. Chancellor Edward I. Walker and Judge Bennet Van Rycknel assisted him, and Monday night the bills were launched in the Senate. As the Acts are administration measures and the Democrats have a comfortable majority in both houses, Democratic leaders were practically unanimous in predicting that they would be enacted with little opposi-

The feature of the bills that atracted most attention was the provision making violations of the proosed law a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment as well as fines. The bills go into extensive details in defying trusts, monopolies and mergers. It was pointed out in the statement issued from the Governor's office, however, that while mergers and consolidations are prohibited in general, the proposed laws do not intend to prevent legitimate expansion of a business concern by the purchase of property "cognate in character". Provision for this is made in the second of the series of bills, which ваув: "When stock is issued on the basis of the stock of any other corporation, no stock shall be issued, therefor in an amount greater than the sum actually paid for such stock in cash or its equivalent, provided that the property purchased or owned by the corporation whose stock is purchased must be cognate in character and use to the property used or contemplated to be used, by the purchasing corporation in the direct conduct of its own proper business." This still permits, it is stated, a corporation to extend its business by wound while expostulating with a the purchase of the property, including the stock, of another corpor ation if its business be the same, but prevents the issuing of watered stock in the transaction. It has nothing to do with holding companes, which are otherwise treated, it is contended. While the bills, it is claimed, take way none of the rights of existing erporations, they do restrict these omparies from extending their noldings and make them subject to the provisions forbidding underselling, discriminations and other monopolistic practices. Present companies will be affected so far as stock issuances and mergers are concerned. Among the larger combinations chartered under New Jersey laws are the United States Steel Corporation, the Standard Oil Company, the American Tobacco Company, the American Sugar Refining Company, the International Harvester Company, the Amalgamated Copper Company, the United States Leather Company, and the Rock Island Railroad Company.

Six Men Shot or Cut.

A flerce pistol and knife duel took place at Glen Alpine, a small place of Nazim was unpremeditated, and six miles from Charlotte, N. C., Monwhat is thought to be fatal wounds. Dr. E. A. Hennessee, a prominent physician of Burke county, was one of the combatants, and was shot through the head and lungs, and cannot live.

The Greenville Piedmont says 'the trouble with a mild winter is that it gets the womenfolks to thinking about their spring hats too soon."

its mountains and the extent of its natural resources are objects of wonder and of admiration. The south is, indeed, an empire.

It is imperial in its extent; imperial nomenal development in commerce and industry; imperial in its opportraveler or for the summer tourist, the south is without a peer in the resistible; its climate is superb; the delights of its river and mountain scenery are unsurpassed; and the for Recuperation, for business, are hospitality of its people is tradition-The varied industries of the great money of the rich and the muscle of opportunity for all. Application in home.

in Constantinople Their Party Captured the Government After Killing Nazim Pasha, Former Comin Legislature and Their Passage

> ing. A dozen or more persons have been wounded and many arrests have been made. Great public excitement has followed the killing of Nazim Pasha, the i mer war minister and commander of the Turkish army, who was shot during public demonstrations in Constantinople Friday night. Talaatt Bey, the new minister of the interior, informed the European embassies that all measures necessary to insure the security of the city had been taken. He also addressed circulars to the provincial calling upon people to lend their moral and material aid to the governprospect of a resumption of hostili-mander of the Turkish Army.

Fighting occurred at several places in Constantinople on Saturday morn-

Enver Bey, who has taken such a ular hero of the day.

Nazim Pasha's death by a shot from the revolver of Envey Bey or Talaatt Bey is believed to have been accidental. The two officers, in order to protect themselves from the fire of Nazim's aide de camp, who had shot at them from a window, drew their revolvers and emptied them at him. A bullet struck and killed Nazim Pasha who was seated inside the room. The scene outside the offices of the Grand Vizier when the leaders of the Young Turk party arrived there m the afternoon was very dramatic. There was a considerable crowd present and great enthusiasm was manifested when some one unfurled a flag and waved it. The excitement became tense when Enver, mounted on a white charger, came in view, accompanied by several Turkish staff officers. As he dismounted before the door and made his request for an audience with the Grand Vizier, the gates closed as though automatically. The camman-on guard and refused to allow any one to enter except Enver Bey and Talaatt Bey. Accompanied by the commandant, they walked straight to the council and wrote out his resignation. En-

Sultan's palace amid the cheers of point. the crowd. The Sultan at first was disinclined to accept the resignation as genuine, but after sending a messenger to the Grand Vizierate and obtaining confirmation, he called for Mahmoue Shefket Pasha and promptly appointed him Grand Vizier. Nazim Pasha's Death.

Nazim Pasha, the commander of the Turkish army, received his death crowd of demonstrators for having become embroiled in a conflict at the Grand Vizierate. The official version of the affray, which is termed a "regrettable incident," was issued Friday night.

When the demonstrators, it says headed by Enver Bey, one of the leaders of the Young Turks' party, penetrated the Grand Vizierate in an attempt to enter the Council chamber they were stopped by Fafiz Bey, aide-de-camp to the Grand Vizier, who, drawing his revolver, fired a shot at them. The aide-decamp of Nazim Pasha also fired at the crowd, his bullet striking Mehmed Nedjif, one of the demonstrators. The demonstrators thereupon replied and Nazim's adie-de-camp was instantly killed. and rushed outside. Facing the deing them ill-mannered curs. While his remarks and he fell dead.

killed. The leading Unionists of to reporters. His attorney, however, Constantinople declare the shooting much rekretted, but under the circumstances, unavoidable. They say the Unionists bore no ill-will toward Thirty Persons Imprisoned in a Roo Nazim, whose open and soldierly character made him respected even by his political opponents. All the old ministers were set at liberty Friday and permitted to return to their homes.

FIND FORTUNE IN BIBLE.

Shows Three New Yorkers to Heirs to English Estate.

the 18th century was recently discovered in the possession of T. Howard Adams, of Albany, and it shows Mr. Howard, Mrs. Hollister and Mrs. Proper to be heirs to the estate.

interview in which he says that the engine on the Southern at the Main military companies of South Carolina street crossing. The driver, a negro shall not attend the presidential in- named George Patton, had an almost auguration if he can help it. So our miraculous escape from death, being soldier boys will have to stay at caught between the engine and & priest's vow of celibacy when the LOVE WINS OVER VOWS.

Priest Places Love for Woman Above

Love won in a long bout with a · Churchly Duties.

Rev. Father Daniel J. Gallagher, assistant rector of the Cathedral of the Assumption, in Louisville, Ky., and Miss Florence Layer, a pretty trained nurse of the same city, were united in marriage in St. Louis by the rector of an Episcopal church. For After Much Disorder and Excitement two years the priest was torn by a conflict within his breast, weighing his churchly duties and his vows of celibacy against his love for a woman. The love for the woman won and they are now in Seattle, where they expect to make their future home. Father Gallagher had been con> sumption in Louisville for about six years. Two years ago he first met Miss Laver when she was persuaded to embrace Catholicism. The young woman went to Father Gallagher for instruction. Their acquaintance became friendship, then rove. Father Gallagher fought his battle alone. Two days before Christmas he made his first call at the La . home, declared his love, gave Miss Layer an engagement ring and departed.

nected with the Cathedral of the As-Miss Layer admitted she loved the priest, but was devout in her adoptgovernors, explaining the reasons for ed faith. She did not want him to the change in the government, and make the sacrifice, for she knew that he would have to give up his church. She consented, however, after being ment. "We are determined," he told by Father Gallagher that he had said, "to defend the interests of the already gone so far that he could no country, now face to face with the longer be assistant rector at the cathedral whether she married him or not.

Miss Layer and her lover then left prominent part in the overthrow of for St. Louis, where they were unit-Kiamil Pasha's cabinet, is the pop- ed in marriage by a clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal church. Mrs. Layer was one of the witnesses of the ceremony, and declares that her daughter and the former priest declare they are satisfied they have chosen wisely and that they will be

SENATE VERY CLOSE.

The Democrats and Republicans Divide it Evenly.

Democratic control of the next enate, which became a certainty when John K. Shields was elected by the Tennessee Legislature Thursday, now rests at the minimum strength of 48, exactly one-half of the membership of the senate. Democratic leaders, disappointed in the recent loss of Senator Gardner's seat in Maine, now are hopefully watching Illinois, New Hampshire, West Virginia and Wyoming in the belief that a Democratic senator may be added to the lists from some one of dant of Constantinople himself stood The control of the senate, if no further Democratic additions are made, will be so narrow as to make action on many econtested problems, and on tarig legislation, a matter of constant doubt. With Vice-President chamber, where most of the ministers | Marshall's vote to rely upon in case were gathered and without prelim- of a tie, the Democrats will have cinaries called upon the cabinet to rc- trol of the senate organization and sign from office. The domand scem- of general senate affairs. It is reced to be more or less expected, for ognized, however, that on many max-Kiamil Pasha immediately sat down ters of general legislation divisions within the party may reduce the ver Bey took it and proceeded to the Democratic party to the vanishing

The fight against Senator Warren in Wyoming, the contest to upset Senator Fall's re-election in New M. xico, and the effort to make arrangement that will give the Democats at least one of the two places to be filled in Illinois, now are holding attention of the party leaders. Democratic control after March 4 will be scrangithered by the division within Republican ranks, and the presence of atleast two Progressives, Senators Clapp and Poindexter, on the Republican sile of the chamber.

YOUNG GIRL FOOLED.

Thought to be the Victim of an Old Man From Boston.

A special to The News and Courter from Atlanta says the appear of J. D. McCloud, an inventor of Hyde Park, Boston, for a loan from a secret order, to which he belongs here precipitated an investigation, which led to the belief that he has been leading a double life. He has been placed under arrest on the charge of bigamy. McCloud, who is 58 years of age, was married November 10 in Walhalla, S. C., to Miss Essie Poole, a young girl, who has since lived Nazim Pasha, who was in the with him in Atlanta. Investigation Council chamber, heard the shots brings out the charge that he has a wife in Hyde Park, Boston, who is in monstrators he upbraided them, call- destitute circumstances. When she confronted him in the police station. he was speaking a bullet cut short his girl-bride denounced him as the destroyer of her happiness, and then A secret police agent and an at- threatened to commit suicide. Mctendant of the Sheik-Ul-Islam head Cloud was taken to the city prison of the Mohammedan clergy also were at Atlanta, but denied information

THEIR LIVES IN DANGER.

declare he is innocent.

by Floods. A dispatch from Henderson, Ky., says relief parties in that section daily are discovering new instances of destitution among suxerers from the Ohio river flood. Thursday thirty persons-men, women and children-were found huddled in one room in a house locatel on the crest of a knob surrounded for miles by water. There was no food in the house and the only material avail-Through the discovery of a Bible able for building a fire was wet driftbrought to this country from Eng- wood. Similar conditions were found land, Charles Howard, Mrs. W. G. in a room at Smith Mills, a small Hollister and Mrs. M. A. Proper of town near Henderson, completely Walton, become heirs to a large Eng- surrounded by water. Still another lish estate, says a Binghamton dis- relief party found many persons livpatch. In 1852 the last of the Pow- ing in the second story of their homes ard family in England, Nicholas by with no food, and exposed to wind name, died, ans there apparently be- and rain storms which have beset ing no heirs the estate reverted to them during the past several days. the crown. A Bible brought to this About five miles below Henderson, in country by James Howard early in Walnut Bottom's, it is reported 200 persons are destitute.

New Auto Smashed by Train. At Rock Hill, Mr. R. R. Heffn of Chester, bought a Ford car Frida and a few moments later had Governor Blease has given out an smashed into kindling by a shifting freight car on the siding,